Subject: Request for Deficiency Appropriation for Publishing, Purchasing, Distributing Free Textbooks

In pursuance of the suggestion made by James S. Dean, Director of Finance, at a conference held last August between representatives of the Department of Finance and the Department of Education, request is hereby made for an appropriation to make possible publication of the following textbooks in reading:

Title of book	Number of copies required	Estimated cost of printing	Total
To School and Home Again—Primer-----	75,000	$0 42	$31,500

			$354,000

All of the foregoing books were adopted for a period beginning July 1, 1946. Publication of these books has thus far been impossible for two reasons:

1. The textbook appropriation for the current biennium is insufficient to permit placing of orders with the State Printing Plant.
2. Up to the present time the State Printing Plant has not been able to print these books in addition to printing books for which orders have been already placed.

These books should be made available to pupils not later than the beginning of the school year 1947-48. No reading textbooks for grades two through five have been available for distribution to schools during the current year.

We are informed by the State Printer that the foregoing books can be printed and available for distribution at the beginning of the school year 1947-48. An additional appropriation of $354,000 is necessary in order for the Department of Education to be able to place orders for the foregoing books with the State Printer.

In view of its intention to make this request for a deficiency appropriation, the Department of Education did not include a provision for the foregoing books in its budget request for the biennium 1947-49.

To the Members of the Senate and Assembly,

GENTLEMEN: Your committee created by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19, relative to providing for a full year, state-wide celebration in 1950 commemorating California's admission to the Union, begs leave to report as follows:

Your committee in cooperation with members of an advisory committee as set forth in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19 has held several meetings throughout the State in conjunction with a Centennial Committee of the State Chamber of Commerce and has come to the conclusion that a commission to be appointed by the Governor should be created with proper financial assistance and safeguards to plan and prepare for certain centennial events in 1948, 1949, and 1950, as set forth in Senate Bill No. 610, which seeks to create said commission.

Your legislative committee and advisory committee after conferences with the Governor feel that only events commemorating the centennial anniversaries of the discovery of gold, the gold rush, the adoption of the first Constitution, and the admission of California to the Union be celebrated. We have therefore designated these certain events that should be definitely commemorated in Senate Bill No. 610.

We believe that the State of California should sponsor these events and recommend the full support of the Members of the Legislature.

SECOND SPECIAL REPORT

Regarding Foot-and-mouth Disease in the Republic of Mexico. Submitted by the Joint Legislative Committee on Agricultural and Livestock Problems

PROBLEM: The menace to the American livestock industry represented by the presence of foot-and-mouth disease among livestock in the Republic of Mexico.

Since the Special Report of the committee made on January 15, 1947, relating to the presence of foot-and-mouth disease in the Republic of Mexico, and pointing out the serious threat the disease is to the American food and milk supply, there have been a number of developments of which the committee believes the Members of the Legislature and the people of California should be informed.

In our previous report, and in Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 on January 14, 1947, the committee stated that Governor Warren has taken a keen personal interest in this grave situation and has done everything that could be expected he could do to protect California livestock against an invasion by this terrible disease of animals. He continues his personal attention to the problem day by day.

The Governor has offered also to use the emergency funds at his disposal for any proper program to safeguard California's livestock industry from this threat. He has telegraphed the President of the United States, the governors of the several border states and has made several very helpful suggestions to increase the degree of protection existing. He also telegraphed the President of the Republic of Mexico offering the assistance and cooperation of California in combatting the disease and attempting to prevent its further spread.

As a result of the knowledge developed by our Legislature in formulating Senate Joint Resolution No. 2, our legislator members on the California Commission on Interstate Cooperation presented the problem to the General Assembly of the Council of State Governments meeting at Chicago, Illinois, January 16-18, 1947. As a result, a resolution similar to Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 was unanimously adopted in behalf of the 44 states which are members of the council. This action definitely showed the unanimity of opinion throughout the Nation of the serious menace presented by the situation in Mexico.

The Governor, and the State Director of Agriculture, and the veterinarians in the Division of Animal Industry, California Department of Agriculture, have cooperated diligently in searching out and establishing the facts concerning this situation, and the Members of the Congress have been most cooperative in their interest and understanding of the problem. Cattlemen have been especially interested and cooperative and their organizations have passed strong resolutions calling for maximum effort to repel the disease.

Foot-and-mouth disease exists all over the world wherever cattle and sheep are produced, with the exception of the North American Continent, the West Indies, Cuba, Australia, and New Zealand.

On eight occasions in this century we have had outbreaks of foot-and-mouth disease in this Country.

Each time, by prompt work of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture, aided by the various states, the disease has been stamped out. A former Chief of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry has estimated that the entire cost to the livestock industry, and to the State and the Federal Governments cooperating in stamping out the disease in these eight outbreaks, exceeds two hundred million dollars. Many of these millions of dollars were paid by California and Californians.

The 1914 outbreak was perhaps the most serious and widespread nationally. It was necessary to kill 172,222 head of cattle, hogs, and sheep in 22 states.

The livestock killed in that outbreak in the 10 larger states were as follows: Illinois, 78,566; Pennsylvania, 26,306; Ohio, 12,142; Massachusetts, 8,238; Michigan, 7,877; Indiana, 7,050; New York, 6,545; Wisconsin, 4,703; Kentucky, 4,025; Iowa, 3,914.

Reference has been made previously to California's dreadful experience in two outbreaks.

Foot-and-mouth disease attacks cattle, hogs, sheep, goats and other cloven hoofed animals. The disease is highly infectious and when once started spreads with great rapidity. The nature of the disease is such that every object with which the infected animal comes into contact becomes a possible source of infection from which other animals or humans may spread the disease.

Infected animals coming in contact with a healthy herd, of course, are the main carriers of the disease; but it is generally believed that next to the infected animals and the products therefrom that man can carry the virus and spread the disease on his shoes or clothing. The 1929 outbreak in California was directly traced to garbage brought ashore from a ship just returned from Argentina. When hogs ate the infected garbage, they were victims of foot-and-mouth disease.

Usually the United States is fortunate to have an ocean between us and the countries where foot-and-mouth disease prevails. Now, suddenly, we find the scourge in the Republic of Mexico.

The origin of the infection, sketched briefly in the committee's first special report, is of particular interest in view of the repeated charges that the sanitary embargo against the South American meat was a mere pretext used by the livestock industry to prevent competition from those countries that made no effort to stamp out foot-and-mouth disease.

The present source of infection came to Mexico through the importation of Brahma (Zebu) bulls from Brazil. A relatively small shipment, about 140 head, was received in October, 1945. The United States Bureau of Animal Industry at once protested the acceptance of this shipment as being in violation of the sanitary treaty between the United States and Mexico. The record of this protest is well documented.

The protest was ignored, and after a brief quarantine period on an island in the Harbor of Vera Cruz, the bulls were allowed to land and 18 of the animals were moved into the southern part of Texas, an extraordinary procedure.

There is no record that this first shipment of bulls brought the foot-and-mouth disease with them, and the few head now in Texas are under close quarantine and supervision.

On April 10, 1946, a much larger shipment of Brahma bulls left Brazil for Mexico (about 327), and despite strenuous and repeated protests of the American Bureau of Animal Industry were allowed to unload on the Island of Sacrificios, near Vera Cruz.

The commercial cattlemen of Northern Mexico joined in the protest. At a conference in Los Angeles late in July between representatives of the American Department of Agriculture and the Mexican Department of Agriculture, it was agreed that these bulls would either be returned to Brazil or be shipped to Europe for relief purposes. However, the Mexican authorities permitted these bulls to be moved from the quarantine island to the mainland, and they were placed on a ranch in the State of Vera Cruz.

In about three weeks' time after the bulls were moved to this ranch, foot-and-mouth disease broke out among cattle in contact with them.

Unfortunately, the Mexican Government did not let the American Government know of this outbreak for about two months. It was not until December 18th that the United States Bureau of Animal Industry learned of the situation and not until December 26th of last year that the disease was positively diagnosed by veterinarians of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, using laboratory tests, as foot-and-mouth disease.

Since that time several officials of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry have spent considerable time in Mexico surveying the situation in order to help the Mexican Government eradicate or check the disease.

The State Division of Animal Industry, through the Bureaus of Livestock Disease Control, Meat Inspection, Livestock Identification, and Dairy Service, has coordinated and cooperated with the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, the Federal and State Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, United States Customs, United States Immigration, State Division of Fish and Game, county livestock inspectors and veterinarians in effecting protective measures against the entrance of foot-and-mouth disease from Mexico through infective carriers.

Maritime Port Inspection: All ships carrying meat sea stores, which originate in countries in which foot-and-mouth disease is present, are under regular inspection and control by the United States Public Health Service, United States Customs, United States Bureau of Animal Industry, State Division of Animal Industry, Federal and State Bureaus of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, assisted in many ports by county agricultural commissioners and county livestock inspectors. All vessels carrying meat sea stores which originated in Mexico are sealed while the vessels are in California ports. Garbage from all ships in port is either retained on board, destroyed in incineration or hauled out to sea for dumping under proper sanitary safeguards.

Airplane Inspection: Aircraft from Mexico and other foreign countries in which foot-and-mouth disease exists are under inspection on arrival for prohibited plant and animal materials by the State and Federal Bureaus of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, assisted by the inspectors of the Division of Animal Industry.

Inspection of Hogs and Cattle: Hogs, especially garbage fed hogs, are under routine inspection by veterinarians trained especially in the detection of vesicular diseases.

Reference was made in the Special Report to the large number of cattle which had come into California from Mexico following the quarantine imposed against the importation of Mexican cattle in connection with foot-and-mouth disease, October 18th.

It is the belief of the State Department of Agriculture that in all about 38,000 head of cattle came into California directly from Mexico between October 18 and December 26, 1946, when the border was closed again.

The department has no way of determining, however, the number of cattle brought into the State originating in Mexico, the ownership of which was changed in other border states.

All known cattle originating in Mexico now in California are under constant veterinary inspection by veterinarians of the State Department of Agriculture, Division of Animal Industry, and the county livestock inspectors.

The cattlemen are giving the department great assistance in identifying Mexican cattle.

All cattle coming into the State from other states are subject to veterinary inspection by state and county veterinarians.

In furtherance of California's grave concern in this situation, the State Director of Agriculture sent Assistant Director Dr. C. U. Duckworth to Washington, D. C., for a first hand report and offer of full cooperation by the State of California in any international attack on the disease in Mexico.

In addition Dr. A. K. Carr, Chief of the Division of Animal Industry, State Department of Agriculture, will attend an emergency meeting of the United States Livestock Sanitary Association in Fort Worth, Texas, at which reports will be made by members of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry who are making an investigation of the control along the border from Texas to California.

Upon receipt of word by telephone from Washington, D. C., that the Mexican outbreak was in fact foot-and-mouth disease, the California department took every precaution known to it to keep the disease from this State.

The committee wishes to emphasize that foot-and-mouth disease control is not a human health problem. However, the livestock industry of this Nation cannot exist with foot-and-mouth disease.

In Argentina, where it has been prevalent so long, there are large alfalfa fields on which the cattle run during many months of the year. On soft feed and footing of this kind, the effect of the disease is said to be far less serious than it would be under other conditions, such as exist in the United States and California.

In the northern and western part of this Country, where cattle are on dry feed for six to eight months of the year, the situation would be entirely different and under the range conditions of the West, where cattle must travel long distances for feed and water, the situation would be such that the cattle industry could not operate successfully.

The investment in livestock in the United States is said to equal the combined investment in the steel and automobile industries. With an investment of that size, a very large part of it in California, we simply must do everything possible to prevent the disease from spreading.

If your next door neighbor's house is on fire, of course, you help him put it out. If the wind is blowing toward your house, you keep your eye out for flying sparks. That is exactly the position of the American livestock industry in this present dreadful situation.

It may be that before the foot-and-mouth disease is controlled in Mexico that every head of cattle in that infected area may have to be killed and buried. That is the way the disease has been fought in California and the United States. In that case the United States might have to pay a large portion of the bill to protect this Nation's livestock and our milk supply.

The committee wishes to take this opportunity to point out a significant fact. Over the years some radio commentators, magazine and newspaper writers, and others have sought to convince the American people that the sanitary embargo which prevented beef and lamb exports from certain South American countries to this Country was a subterfuge and economic barrier. They called it a "phony" law to keep out competing meat.

Now with foot-and-mouth disease on the North American Continent, the American people will have to review everything these people have written and said over the radio. They will have to look at these statements in the cold light of unhappy fact.

California must help keep this Country free of foot-and-mouth disease. The committee is not informed what the program of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry and the Committee on Agriculture of the House will recommend but it is absolutely imperative that we do everything possible to keep the disease from spreading into the Northern Mexico States, for the very simple reason that if it ever gets up to our borders it will be practically impossible to prevent the disease from spreading to our Country no matter how tightly the international border may be closed.

The disease can be carried by birds or by wild animals as well as on clothing of human beings or packing materials, and in many other ways.

If it ever invades Northern Mexico and is allowed to become established there, then we will have a constant battle to keep it out of the United States and California.

It is a serious threat, even though now it is reported to be a distance of several hundred miles from the nearest infected area to our American border.

There is one project that may be of great help in keeping the disease out of the United States. That is a new international fence.

The International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, has submitted to the Congress two proposals for carrying on fence construction along the Mexican boundary. The fence was included in the budget as a measure to repel tick infested cattle. One project contemplates fencing along the boundary line west of El Paso, Texas, and the other contemplates the construction of 415 miles of fence extending from Del Rio, Texas, to the Gulf of Mexico along the Rio Grande border.

The American cattle industry and livestock disease officials are very much interested in the protection that would be furnished by the proposed fencing in both sections, including the California-Mexican border, because of the assistance it would be to our livestock disease control and eradication work in the United States and the protection that it would provide against the admission of animal diseases and parasites from Mexico. The United States Division of Animal Industry has appealed to federal officials for immediate action in construction of a good fence.

At present the United States Bureau of Animal Industry maintains a force of about 44 men along this border at an annual cost to the Federal Government in excess of $100,000.

With the completion of the proposed fence, it is believed that it may be possible to furnish much better protection than is at present possible. Perhaps the personnel should be greatly strengthened, because of the present foot-and-mouth disease threat.

California is very much interested in this proposed fencing of the international border and it is to be hoped that the project will be adequately financed and rushed to completion at the very earliest date possible.

Senator Tenney moved that the following recommendations by the Joint Legislative Interim Committee on Pre-School Training be printed in the Journal and 1,000 copies be printed separately in 10 point type:

Motion carried.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF JOINT INTERIM COMMITTEE ON PRE-SCHOOL TRAINING

The Joint Legislative Interim Committee on Pre-School Training hereby makes the following recommendations relative to child care centers:

1. That child care centers, as provided under and designed to fill a wartime need should be discontinued; and
2. That a child care service should be continued under peacetime needs with state aid to meet the requirements of needy parents and their children; and
3. That the parents' and children's need of the service be determined under the following conditions:

(a) That there is but one parent in the home who both supports and care for the child, or

(b) That there are two parents in the home, one of whom is physically or mentally unable to either support the family or care for the child, or

(c) That either parent is a veteran of World War II attending school or receiving instruction under the GI Bill of Rights during the years 1947 to 1951, and the other parent, if any, is gainfully employed, or

(d) That the services of the parent having care of the child are necessary as a teacher in a public school or as a nurse in a hospital.

4. That except under the conditions as set forth in 3 (c) and (d) above no child shall be admitted to a child care center unless the total monthly income from all sources of the child's immediate family is less than two hundred dollars ($200) or unless the monthly income per person in the family as determined by dividing the total monthly income of the immediate family from all sources by the number of persons to be supported therefrom does not exceed fifty-five dollars ($55).

5. That a part of the cost of such child care service be borne by the parent by the payment of a reasonable fee set in proportion to the total family income, and size of the family.

6. That such child care services wherever possible be maintained in the buildings and with the equipment and facilities now in use and available.

7. That such child care services be administered by the regular public school administrative staffs.

COMMUNICATIONS

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
WASHINGTON 25, D.C., February 28, 1947

*Hon. J. A. Beek, Secretary of the Senate
State of California, Sacramento, California*

DEAR MR. BEEK: President Truman has asked us to write to you concerning the California Senate's Resolution No. 53, a copy of which you recently forwarded to him. We very much appreciate the interest that the California Senate has taken in the national school lunch program.

As you may know, President Truman specifically mentioned the school lunch program in his Economic Report to Congress of January 8, 1947. In that report he stated: "The Congress has recently authorized a permanent school-lunch program in cooperation with the states. I hope this program will be expanded until we are sure that every American school child gets an adequate diet." This and other similar statements which Mr. Truman has made since he became President are indications that California and the rest of the Nation may expect his continued support for this very worthwhile program.

Sincerely yours,

N. E. DODD, Acting Secretary

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
FOREST SERVICE, WASHINGTON, February 12, 1947

Mr. J. A. Beek, Secretary of the Senate
State of California Legislature, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. BEEK: Your letters of January 23d to the President and to the Secretary of Agriculture, transmitting a copy of Senate Resolution No. 38, have been referred to me for reply.

This expression of interest by the California Senate in the Forest Service Research Program at the San Joaquin Experimental Range is greatly appreciated. It is particularly gratifying at this time since the program at San Joaquin was curtailed during the war to a more or less maintenance basis. Moreover, the Conscientious Objector Camp that was at the San Joaquin Experimental Range and aided materially in the conduct of the research has now been liquidated.

The fine cooperation which representatives of the Forest Service have enjoyed with stockmen and members of the University of California and the University Agricultural Experiment Station has, however, materially enhanced the research. We hope that it will be possible to build up the San Joaquin Experimental Range research work so that it can contribute even more to the welfare of the stockmen and the ranges of your State.

Sincerely yours,

LYLE F. WATTS, Chief

DIVISION OF ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

SACRAMENTO 14, CALIFORNIA

February 28, 1947

Mr. Joseph A. Beek, Secretary, California State Senate
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. BEEK: Pursuant to the provisions of Business and Professions Code, Section 110.6, we are submitting herewith the Biennial Report of the Division of Administrative Procedure to the Governor and to the Legislature.

Yours truly,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Chief,

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, February 22, 1947

California State Legislature
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN: On March 9, 1842, a native Californian by the name of Lopez first discovered gold in California, at Placerita Canyon, some 30 miles from the City of Los Angeles.

We have marked the site of the discovery with an appropriate marker, but we feel that our State Legislature should create a state park commemorating this important date in our State's history.

History tells us that six years later James W. Marshall, a carpenter in the employ of John A. Sutter to build a saw mill on the American River, found gold in the tail-race. This discovery brought on the 1849 Gold Rush.

You have made a state park at the Marshall, Sutter Mill site, but have neglected to set aside a park at the first and original site of the finding of gold in California, at Placerita Canyon, Los Angeles County.

We request that you give your prompt attention to the bill creating a state park in this locality, and act favorably so that this park will become a reality.

Sincerely yours,

W. O. GILKEY
History and Landmarks Committee

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, SACRAMENTO, February 6, 1947

To the Honorable Members of the Senate
State of California, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: I am returning herewith, without my signature,

Senate Bill No. 64, entitled "An act to amend Sections 164, 181, 222 of, to repeal Section 146.5 of, and to add Section 182.1 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to the registration and transfers of registration of vehicles, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

Although the bill is stated to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, I am advised by the law enforcement officers of the State, including many of those who have had the greatest experience with auto thieves, that the failure of the State to check applications for transfers of registration against the stolen car index would facilitate the registration of cars by auto thieves.

There was apparently no serious consideration given this part of the bill, and the chiefs of police, district attorneys and sheriffs state that they were not aware that this provision was in the bill, and had they known of its presence there would have opposed its approval.

There is no objection to the other portions of the bill, and I suggest that after the recess the legislation be revised to accomplish the other desirable features of the bill and to make some adjustment regarding the provision of the bill relative to the use of the stolen car index consistent with law enforcement procedure.

Respectfully submitted.

EARL WARREN, Governor

Message read.

CONSIDERATION OF GOVERNOR'S VETO

Senate Bill No. 64—An act to amend Sections 164, 181, 222 of, to repeal Section 146.5 of, and to add Section 182.1 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to the registration and transfers of registration of vehicles, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

The question being: Shall Senate Bill No. 64 become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?

The roll was called, and the Senate sustained the objections of the Governor by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Breed, Brown, Burns, Busch, Carter, Crittenden, Cunningham, DeLap, Dillinger, Dilworth, Donnelly, Gordon, Hulse, Jespersen, Judah, Keating, Kraft, Mayo, McBride, O'Gara, Parkman, Powers, Quinn, Rich, Salsman, Slater, Swing, Tenney, Ward, Watson, and Williams—31.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

SACRAMENTO, February 6, 1947

To the Honorable Members of the Senate

State of California, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: I am returning herewith, without my signature,

Senate Bill No. 201, entitled "An act to amend Sections 18540 and 18973 of the Government Code, relating to veterans and civil service credits for military service, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

I believe that this bill is an unwarranted extension of veterans preference in our state civil service examinations. It provides that anyone who was in service as little as one day before December 31, 1946, which is 15 months after the actual warfare was over, is entitled to a lifetime preference over his fellow citizens in civil service. In my opinion this is not within the spirit of veterans privileges, and in fact reduces such system to an absurdity.

In addition, this act would deprive some men who had arduous service overseas in expeditionary forces, from civil service preference to which they have heretofore been entitled under existing law. To thus deprive them of existing preferences and at the same time grant the privilege to men who have been in as little as one day after actual warfare ceased, cannot be reconciled. Under our very liberal existing law every veteran who has 30 days service in time of war in the armed forces is entitled to a 10 percent preference, and if disabled, is entitled to a 15 percent preference.

Respectfully submitted.

EARL WARREN, Governor

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Senator Desmond:

Senate Resolution No. 61

WHEREAS, Section 18850 of the Civil Service Act requires that the State Personnel Board establish salaries for state employees as follows:

"The board shall establish and adjust salary ranges for each class of position in the state civil service. The salary ranges shall be based on the principle that like salaries shall be paid for comparable duties and responsibilities. In establishing or changing such ranges consideration shall be given to the prevailing rates for comparable service in other public employment and in private business, improvement of living standards, the current costs of living, and the State's financial condition"; and

WHEREAS, The State Personnel Board adjusted the salaries of state employees, in accordance with said provisions of Section 18850 as of June 1, 1946, and said adjustments were based on prevailing rates and cost of living data as of that date, even though later granted as a result of appeals; and

WHEREAS, It appears from official figures that the cost of living has increased approximately 15 percent since June 1, 1946; and

WHEREAS, It also appears that other public jurisdictions, such as the City of Los Angeles, the County of Los Angeles and the City and County of San Francisco, as well as a number of private industries, have materially increased the salaries of a large number of employees for classes comparable to those in state service since June 1, 1946, and it is probable that there will be further increases in the salaries for similar employees in the near future, which increases are causing state employees to be paid at salaries substantially below the prevailing rates; and

WHEREAS, Said condition is having and will continue to have an unfavorable effect upon the morale of state employees and is also seriously affecting the efficient functioning of state service because of the inability to obtain and retain competent employees in competition with the higher salaries being paid in other public jurisdictions and private industry; and

WHEREAS, It appears that in order to make appropriate adjustments in salaries of state employees made necessary by increases in prevailing rates and increase in the cost of living since June 1, 1946, it will be necessary for the Legislature to provide additional funds to finance said salary adjustments; and

WHEREAS, There now are bills before the Legislature to provide further funds for adjusting the salaries of state employees; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary in order for the Legislature to take proper action on such bills that it have as complete information as possible on the present status of salaries of state employees and salaries in general; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the State Personnel Board be and is hereby requested to furnish to the Senate of the State of California, not later than by April 15, 1947, a written report on the present status of the salaries of state employees in relation to prevailing rates and increases in the cost of living, together with an analysis of alternative methods and costs of making further salary adjustments for state employees.

Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Governmental Efficiency.

MR. PRESIDENT: The Interim Committee on Veterans Affairs (S.R. 150, 1945—Continued by S.R. 22, 1947) submits the following Partial Report:

* Term Expired January 6, 1947.

The committee met promptly before leaving Sacramento and organized by choosing Senator Irwin T. Quinn as Chairman and Senator Nelson S. Dilworth as Vice Chairman. The other members were Senator T. H. DeLap, Senator Frank Mixer and Senator George Biggar.

The first hearing held in Los Angeles developed a startling need of more hospital beds in Veterans Administration facilities for disabled veterans in California. The care of the disabled comrades has always been the first concern of every American veteran.

The gravity of the situation was so great and the need of haste so urgent that the committee decided to appeal direct to the President of the United States and forwarded the following resolution by telegram:

Resolution of California State Senate Interim Committee on Veterans' Affairs
SUBJECT: Veterans Hospitals and Facilities

WHEREAS, The California State Senate Interim Committee on Veterans' Affairs has held hearings in San Francisco, on November 5, and in Los Angeles, on November 7, 1945, at which hearings factual evidence pertaining to veterans hospitals facilities in California was presented to the committee by representatives of the Veterans Administration, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Service Organizations, and other groups; and

WHEREAS, It was found by the committee, from the facts and evidence, that the present facilities, beds, wards, buildings, and veterans hospitals in California are wholly inadequate to meet the hospital requirements of the discharged veterans of World War II: That a most critical situation now confronts the Veterans Administration and new facilities and beds must be immediately provided in California to prevent chaos and a breakdown in caring for those who come back from the battle fronts, sick, disabled, and broken in health; that from Northern California discharged sick veterans are being sent to Washington and Oregon: That from Southern California they are being sent to Arizona and New Mexico hospitals; that from Los Angeles County some are being sent to San Diego; that there are now more than 100 mental cases in state institutions who should be in veteran hospitals; that there is now not a single bed in San Francisco or Livermore available for tubercular or respiratory cases—only those of the most dire need of treatment can be admitted; that on December 7, 1941 all the veteran hospitals' facilities were filled to capacity, with the exception of the tubercular, by World War I veterans;

That since then only 250 beds have been added, these at Sattelle, Los Angeles; that without question the number of World War II veterans which will require hospitalization will be 5 to 10 times that of World War I; that as a minimum and to immediately relieve the situation, 3,000 beds in Northern California and 5,000 beds in Southern California, must be provided now; that there was inducted from California over 700,000, exclusive of women, and there are in California more than 350,000 discharged veterans from other states, which means that present veteran hospitals and beds are totally inadequate in California; and that California's rehabilitation requirements will be more than 33½ percent above normal;

That there was appropriated by the GI Bill of Rights, in June 22, 1944, $500,000,000 for the construction of hospitals by the Veterans Administration throughout the United States; that the Veterans Administration and the Federal Board of Hospitalization have not as yet commenced any hospital construction in California to care for the returning veterans who are being discharged from military service; and

That the Army and Navy hospitals, in the training camps, are being discontinued and information has come to this committee that the DeWitt Hospital, at Auburn, Hammond at Fresno, and numerous other Army and Navy hospitals in the south, are being closed; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the United States Administrator of Veterans' Affairs and the Federal Board of Hospitalization proceed immediately to furnish in Northern California 3,000 additional beds and in Southern California 5,000 additional beds and the necessary hospital facilities; that these be divided between general and surgical cases, with adequate provisions for treatment of recurrent tropical diseases; for nervous and mental disorders, with adequate infirmary beds; and for the treatment of respiratory infections, such as tuberculosis and other allied diseases, with complete facilities for their care and treatment according to the best approved medical science by adding to present facilities and by establishing new hospitals in suitable places throughout the State of California; and

That to meet immediate needs the Veterans Administration enter into contracts to take over and operate, temporarily, the desirable Army and Navy hospitals that are being discontinued; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, Major General Omar R. Bradley, Director of Veterans' Administration, Federal Board of Hospitalization and to all members of the California delegation in Congress.

Unanimously adopted this seventh day of November, 1945.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

FEDERAL BOARD OF HOSPITALIZATION,

WASHINGTON 25, D. C., November 21, 1945

Mr. Irwin T. Quinn, Chairman

Eureka, California

MY DEAR MR. QUINN: Acknowledgment is made of your letter of November 14, 1945, enclosing a copy of a communication which you have sent to General Omar N. Bradley, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, together with a copy of a resolution adopted by the California State Senate Interim Committee on Veterans' Affairs on the subject of veterans' hospitals.

Although we are not in a position at present to advise you specifically as to what will be done in the State of California regarding the need for additional hospital facilities for the care of veterans, we do wish to take this opportunity to assure you that special consideration is being given, at the present time, to the California problem by both the Veterans Administration and the Federal Board of Hospitalization, with a view to providing ample facilities when needed.

We have carefully read the resolution of the State Senate Interim Committee and note its statement concerning the provisions made in the G. I. Bill of Rights for additional hospitals. We should like to point out that while the G. I. Bill of Rights authorized an expenditure of $500,000,000 for the construction of hospitals by the Veterans Administration throughout the United States, it did not appropriate these funds. Appropriations against the amount authorized are made in successive fiscal years in order to provide for the need for additional beds as that need develops.

Another factor which necessarily must be taken into consideration is that the hospital load developed among the veterans of World War II will not reach its peak until somewhere in the neighborhood of 1975.

Permit me to express our appreciation of the interest shown in this question by the State Senate Interim Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

Very sincerely yours,

B. FRANK BENNETT, Director

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON 25, D. C., December 3, 1945

Mr. Irwin T. Quinn, Chairman

Box 176, Eureka, California*

MY DEAR MR. QUINN: The President has asked me to reply to your letter of November 14, 1945, enclosing the resolution of the California State Senate Interim Committee on Veterans' Affairs, setting forth the need for additional hospital beds in California and urging the utilization of the Army and Navy hospitals now being declared surplus in the states.

We appreciate the interest of the California State Senate with regard to the needs of veterans in that State. The shortage of hospital beds throughout the United States is one which is giving me increasing concern. I am speeding the expansion of existing hospitals, the construction of new hospitals, and the acquisition of such Army and Navy hospitals as are found suitable for conversion to veterans' hospitals. I am working in close cooperation with the Army and Navy with regard to hospitals now being declared surplus. Approximately 60 Army hospitals will be made available within the next six months. Some of these hospitals are temporary or semitemporary structures without fireproof construction. Many of them are clusters of one-story buildings, difficult to operate with limited personnel. Most of them are far removed from medical centers where the services of medical specialists are available on a part-time basis.

Inasmuch as we do not have sufficient medical and other professional personnel to staff the hospitals needed for our program, we are having to rely on the medical staffs of the communities in which the hospitals are to be located. In the case of the DeWitt General Hospital, there are not enough physicians and other medical personnel within Placer County, or in nearby areas, to supplement the care which we would be able to provide.

At the present time, to meet the acute bed shortage that exists in California, arrangements are being made with the Army and the Navy for the allocation of bed credits at their installations until the conditions can be alleviated.

Sincerely yours,

OMAR N. BRADLEY, General, U. S. Army Administrator

The results of the above communications have been prompt and the Veterans Administration has approximately met the figures on need presented by our committee. Four thousand three hundred one hospital beds were available in Veterans Administration facilities June 30, 1944, and on October 31, 1946, this number had increased to 8,736 beds in California. In addition 3,388 beds were available in domiciliary homes and 2,384 additional hospital beds had also been made available to disabled veterans in service hospitals and on contract in other qualified hospitals in the State making a grand total of 14,508 beds available in California. These figures have been analyzed in the following tabulations:

Following the efforts of the committee and after their recommendations to the Veterans Administration in Washington in November 1945, the federal agency granted almost immediate relief, making available thousands of additional beds and establishing an out-patient program.

Now, as of the date of this report, the hospital facilities available for California more nearly approach the need. However, many of the services are available only in temporary wartime construction and permanent facilities consisting of several thousand beds must be constructed as soon as building materials are again procurable for such purposes. The acute situation at the time the committee went into action has been somewhat relieved. There is in addition a present shortage of several hundred beds for tubercular patients. It is hoped that the Veterans Administration will be able to meet this urgent need some time in 1947.

On June 30, 1946, there were 1,203 United States war veterans receiving care as patients on active record of the state mental hospitals. These veterans have not been able to gain admission to the United States Veterans Administration facilities, nevertheless they must receive hospitalization.

This is one of the reasons that it is so necessary to enlarge our state mental hospitals and over $60,000,000 has been appropriated and is now available for new construction of patient quarters and facilities.

We understand the federal law prohibits admission of these veterans to Veteran Administration facilities because of the nature or origin of their disability. In the opinion of this committee no good reason exists for exclusion of these veterans from federal care.

California has a vital interest in this situation because the presence of these veterans adds acutely to the congestion in our state mental hospitals. These veterans should be accepted by the Federal Government as their responsibility and we recommend urgent representations to Congress to enact suitable legislation to take care of these veterans.

SERVICE OFFICERS

The front line men on the service to veteran sector are the local service officers. They are delivering to the veteran's doorstep the benefits and services provided by a grateful State and Nation. They must work all day and be on call at night. A successful service officer must be both a diplomat and an executive, and an able talker on his feet. He is in demand at veterans' meetings, union meetings, funerals and Chamber of Commerce dinners and at the strenuous pace demanded he must be in love with his work and devoted to the welfare of those he serves. Finally, he must find time to become a thorough student of all the laws of the United States Veterans Administration.

Only by such service can veteran services be made effective, for the veteran can only be helped in his own community and not at Washington.

VETERAN SURVEY

A survey conducted by the Census Bureau in five areas in California indicated that an average of 27 percent of the married veterans in those sections were living doubled up with relatives or friends, in rented rooms, or other cramped quarters. The sampling, requested by the National Housing Agency, showed 24 percent of the married veterans owned the homes in which they were living, and 49 percent were renting.

In California, the survey covered Los Angeles County, the San Francisco area (including Oakland, Berkeley, and Alameda) the San Diego area, Sacramento, and Fresno. It was estimated 500,000 veterans of World War II were residing in the six areas at the time of the survey, which was made in July and August.

The most severe overcrowding among married veterans was reported in Sacramento, where the survey indicated 32 percent were living in crowded quarters. Other percentages were: Los Angeles, 28; San Francisco, 27; Fresno, 26; San Diego, 16; and Salt Lake City, 26. Percentages of married veterans owning their homes were: Fresno, 35; Sacramento, 30; San Diego, 28; Los Angeles, 25; San Francisco, 19 and Salt Lake City, 22.

NEWCOMERS TO STAY

The San Diego area led in the proportion of veterans who are newcomers to California, with the survey showing 40 percent of the total number of veterans lived elsewhere before the war. Percentages of immigration for other areas were: San Francisco, 36; Fresno, 28; Los Angeles, 26; Sacramento, 25; and Salt Lake City, 20.

The great majority of the new arrivals plan to stay, according to the survey. Fresno topped the list with 95 percent indicating they intend to remain. Other percentages were: San Francisco, 90; Los Angeles, 89; Sacramento, 88; San Diego, 86; and Salt Lake City, 89.

The investigators found that an average of 58 percent of the veterans in the six areas were married.

HOUSING GREATEST NEED

Statements before our committee and comment in the press of the veteran organizations and in the public press all confirm the belief of the committee that the greatest need of the returned veteran in California is adequate rental housing that can be rented for reasonable prices. Few veterans are ready and in a position to buy homes at this time and the market is most unfavorable.

In addition to the federal rental projects, the construction of private dwellings for rental has been considerable but has been limited by shortage of building materials.

STATE HOUSING ACTIVITY

The State has energetically pursued all means of making available temporary housing by the use of military surplus.

The following is a brief report relating to temporary emergency veterans' housing under provisions of Chapter 29, Statutes of 1946, as amended. Chapter 29 appropriated $7,500,000 and Chapter 1, Statutes of 1946 (Second Extra Session) appropriated an additional $2,500,000 for similar purposes.

Under provisions of this act, the Director of Finance may provide funds for temporary housing made available by the National Housing Administrator (Federal Public Housing Authority). The usual procedure has been that FPHA has made buildings available to cities, counties, housing authorities, and districts, and in turn such local agencies have revamped the buildings into dwelling units. Two types of allocations have been made by FPHA—one being called "in quota" and the other being called "out of quota." The largest proportion of units for which local agencies have requested assistance upon the part of the State have been "in quota" units. Under the "in quota" program FPHA dismantles buildings in one locality, and later erects the buildings into units upon a site prepared by a local agency. Under the "out of quota" program, FPIIA merely provides that a local agency accept buildings at a location designated by FPIIA. It then becomes necessary for a local agency to dismantle such buildings, transport and erect them upon its own site.

The preparation of a site requires installation of necessary utilities such as water mains, sewers and electrical service, together with sidewalks and pavement.

As of January 12, 1947, 60 local agencies have made 111 applications to the State requesting $7,719,000. Of these applications 32 were made by cities or city housing authorities, 19 by counties or county housing authorities and nine were made by school districts and the University of California.

According to reports from Federal Public Housing Authority, 18,829 dwelling units have been allocated to cities, counties, housing authorities and other public agencies in California. Of these units 6,528 have been completed, leaving 12,301 in various stages of completion. Included within the total number of units, 5,359 were allocated to schools, colleges, and universities of which 2,993 are complete, and 2,366 incomplete.

Since approval of Chapter 29 and its amendments, applications have been made to the State by local agencies such as cities, counties, housing authorities and educational institutions for assistance in the establishment of 11,309 units under this program. Of the 11,309 units FPIIA contracted to erect, 9,372 were upon sites prepared by local agencies with state financial assistance and 1,937 units were allocated without federal financial participation. In these programs the State participates to the extent of not to exceed 90 percent of the non-federal cost of establishing such units. On December 20, 1946, FPIIA issued a "Stop Order" affecting 7,320 units in which the State is participating and a total of 7,520 units requiring state assistance remain incomplete.

At present a balance of $3,100,000 remains unallocated from the $10,000,000 appropriation made by Chapter 29 and its amendments, thus several millions more may be needed if the State is called upon to carry forward the entire unfinished "Temporary Emergency Veterans' Housing Program."

VETERAN HOME BUILDING

Private construction by veterans has been greatly advanced by the liberal loans made by the State of California to veterans. By the end of November, 1946, 5,911 World War II veterans had been assisted by state loans to purchase homes to be paid for on monthly payments amortized at 3 percent for up to 20 years. The total principal for these loans was $31,437,600. We regret to report a ruling in 1946 by the former Attorney General that is unfavorable to the continued exemption from taxation of the interest of the State in these properties. The veteran's equity and possessory interest has always been taxable.

COMMENDATION

National commendation has been given to the State of California for the efficient and helpful operation of the Farm and Home Purchase Acts. We recommend that these functions be not changed at this session but that their operation be continued with usual care and prudence to protect the fine record of 20 years of solvency.

The financing provided by the Federal G. I. Bill has assisted perhaps an even larger number of veterans to acquire ownership of a California home.

The most encouraging factor is the very great number of veterans who have proceeded to acquire or construct homes on their own initiative with their own resources and without state or federal financing. This is private enterprise in action at its best.

PROTECTION NEEDED

Our hearings exposed a serious abuse suffered by veterans from time to time. They have in large numbers been induced to make a down payment to contractors to secure an opportunity in turn to buy a home as constructed. Evidence shows that those who accepted these payments have in certain cases used these funds in their business, have been improvident or at least unsuccessful and lost the money in unprofitable construction projects leaving the veterans with nothing but a worthless claim against a bankrupt contractor.

Your committee recommends and will present legislation to require holders of state licenses as contractors to place and hold all advance payments to contractors in a trust account separate from their personal funds, until such time as they can be used in a specific project for the party who makes such payments.

INFLATION DANGER

Your committee views with much concern and some alarm the willingness of certain numbers of veterans to buy homes of old construction at inflated values. They are, in too many cases, paying an exorbitant premium for immediate possession of a home.

The basic cause of this deplorable situation is the shortage of building materials and the State cannot by law bring into existence the cement, lumber, and fixtures to construct a modern home. That can only be done by the industry of its citizens. The supply is steadily increasing as postwar industry gets into full production, and a better day is fast approaching.

The committee doubts the wisdom of encouraging veterans to acquire a heavy loan at present inflated prices. Experience has proven that conditions such as we now are in are bound to pass. When that time comes we do not want thousands of veterans carrying loans greatly in excess of the then deflated values of their properties.

The unprecedented influx of veterans from other states has resulted in much acute congestion that would not otherwise have occurred. The industries of California have been able to provide enough housing for our own veterans but the in-rush of veterans of other states, many of them well supplied with funds to over-bid our own veterans, has exceeded available building material supply temporarily. The situation is improving as the supply of building materials and skilled labor grows month by month.

VETERANS EXPLOITED

Information has been given the committee that certain unlicensed parties have collected cash considerations of as much as $300 from numbers of veterans to do the paper work and negotiate GI loans through financial institutions.

Your committee recommends and will present legislation to require a broker's license by such parties who charge a fee for such services and to limit their charges to the usual and reasonable commission.

EDUCATION

Your committee has heretofore presented a bill for a deficiency appropriation of $1,308,854.71 for the educational aid to California veterans who are students at our colleges and universities and other schools. We recommend leaving the terms as they are at present. The education of our young veterans is the duty of the Federal Government and it is beyond the financial resources of California to relieve the Federal Government of its responsibility. Our educational aid provisions are only intended to assist worthy veterans who by reason of delay or difficult circumstances are unable to receive federal GI Bill aid.

The committee does urge and recommend greater diligence by both the schools and the state department in clearing the monthly checks to these students. Approximately 4,000 students are being aided in about 125 schools of this State at the present time.

It was determined by test check that of the total enrollments approximately 85 percent were public schools and 15 percent private schools. Tuition cost of private schools estimated at $125 per semester. Books and supplies estimated at $25 per semester. Subsistence calculated at $40 per month per student or $200 per student per semester.

Estimated cost per student per semester in private school $350.
Estimated cost per student per semester in public school $225.

Over 5,000 applications for educational assistance have been received, and since May 21, 1946, when the benefits of both farm or home and education were made available, many veterans immediately requested the benefits of both acts.

Our records indicate that during the fall semester we have students enrolled in over 100 schools within the State of California. Practically every locality of the State is represented by enrollees who are participating in the benefits of the California Veterans' Educational Institute Act.

Due to the heavy percentage of present enrollments in the professional field, it is estimated that at least 83 percent will utilize the maximum benefits of the act.

Of the total veterans enrolled in colleges, universities, and trade or business schools, approximately 83 percent are majoring in a professional field such as medicine, law, engineering, dentistry and education; approximately 11 percent in the semi-professional field, such as business administration, journalism, forestry, and agriculture; the remaining 4 percent are majoring in arts and trades, such as commercial art, photography and radio, and 2 percent finishing high school.

Of the large percentage of student veterans in the professional field, engineering and medical students top the list, with approximately 35 percent of the total enrollees in each field. Law and dentistry are next in line. It is clear that because of the length of time required for schooling in these professions, the veteran will unquestionably utilize all funds provided by the act, a maximum of $1,000, and will then avail himself of the benefits under Public Laws No. 16 and No. 346. Likewise, there is a considerable proportion of student veterans who are now using federal aid that will eventually seek state aid to finish training beyond the maximum provided by public law. Therefore, the California Veterans' Educational Institute program will be attractive to the veterans for some years to come, and it will be necessary for the State to provide sufficient funds to fulfill the future educational needs of the California veteran.

The following observations are based on a partial survey, of a projected state-wide survey by this division, in connection with routine interviews during September and October with school administrators, and with the veterans themselves, in universities, colleges, junior colleges and secondary schools, both public and private, in Northern California.

The larger colleges, universities, and junior colleges employ full-time veterans' coordinators, often former student counselors, who advise veterans as to their educational plans and problems and through whom it is possible to clear California Veterans' Educational Institute problems and secure maximum cooperation on the part of the school administratively.

These schools are aware of the vital part played by California Veterans' Educational Institute assistance in supplementing educational aid provided by Public Laws No. 16 and No. 346.

These schools were unanimous in stating that veterans enrolled are either making "fine records" scholastically, or are making "records averaging above the general grade average." Unexcused absences were found to be at a minimum compared with non-veteran student records.

The number of veterans in California who may become eligible for educational aid is variously estimated up to 250,000. A heavy financial load for the State is inevitable for many years.

DEPENDENTS

In addition to returning veterans the State extends educational aid to the dependents of those service men who sacrificed their lives and did not return.

The following activities are reported for the month of October, 1946.

Of the total dependents enrolled in colleges, universities, trade or business schools, approximately 46 percent are majoring in general subjects, such as English, History, Languages, Social Sciences, Liberal Arts, etc., while some are majoring for teaching credentials. Approximately 34 percent of the total enrolled are majoring in trades or business training such as Cosmetology, Merchandising, Secretarial, Advertising, etc. The remaining 20 percent are majoring in professional and semi-professional fields, such as Medicine, Nursing, Chemistry, Engineering, Art, and Music.

The attendance reports indicate a minimum of "unexcused" absences and the grades are generally above the average required for passing in the respective schools. Consequently, there has been very little cause for adjustment with the student, for the past semester.

In the educational aid provided for the children of service men killed in the armed services during the war, we have found an urgent need to include children adopted by the deceased service man before his entry into the military service of his Country. Such a bill is being presented.

ADMINISTRATION

Probably legislative action will be necessary after careful consideration of proposals to clarify the respective zones of authority of the Director of the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Veterans' Board, the department is requesting consideration of this matter at the Regular Session.

DEFINITION OF "VETERAN"

A uniform definition of "veteran" in the various laws is desirable and needed for a better understanding and more efficient administration of the state services. Your committee will recommend one definition to include all wars and to include only those who have served under enlistment or induction in the armed services. This situation has been much confused by an opinion rendered in 1946 by the Attorney General.

Persons free to quit at their own choice and time, do not qualify as war veterans, however meritorious their personal conduct has been.

The time has now arrived for the Legislature to decide on a date for the termination of the period in which a person's service acquires veteran status.

SOLICITATION FRAUDS

The use of the name "veteran" for solicitation purposes has been greatly abused. Fly-by-night and irresponsible names of supposed veteran organizations have often been used to secure large sums of money from charitably disposed business firms and individuals, by persons who may be or may not be veterans. Funds solicited for the benefit of "Veterans" or "Veteran" Organization should be used strictly for the benefit of "Veterans" or "Veteran" Organizations. Misappropriation of these funds by others or for others should be punishable and a bill for this purpose is being submitted.

It appears desirable that the State require a registration of organizations soliciting funds for veterans. Observance of city ordinances should be preserved.

Following the population pattern of the First World War we may reasonably expect a veteran population of 2,000,000 in California by 1960. Veterans are continuing to migrate to California from all parts of the United States, and even from Alaska and Hawaii, the Veterans Administration reports.

A spot survey conducted by the VA in its San Francisco Office from October 26th to November 4th showed that of 2,700 veterans questioned, 1,254 hailed from every state in the Union except Vermont, and planned to make their homes in California. Approximately 1,400 were native Californians.

Only 46 of the former GI's were undecided as to whether they would remain here or try their luck elsewhere.

REEMPLOYMENT

The time limits in the various reemployment statutes may well be standardized at one year from discharge.

By means of excluding from state civil service examinations all applicants without certain years of experience, the Personnel Board is effectually barring most veterans from competition to prove their qualifications and ability. The committee's objection to the experience requirements is that a veteran who was inducted into the service in 1940 or 1941 and served until the end of the emergency would never have had an opportunity to fulfill these requirements due to the fact that while he was serving in the Orient or Europe, it was impossible for him to gain the experience set forth. Assuming a veteran was inducted while in high school or in college, and, in the course of the ensuing service of the Country, became married, and has now returned to civilian life and wishes to go into state service, he is completely barred from demonstrating his actual ability by taking an examination.

We feel that a veteran must have the ability to carry out the assignments in state service but it does seem unfair to entirely rule him out of the possibility of demonstrating his ability. We feel that the veterans should at least be given a chance to take the examination, and the fact that they have not gained the experience set forth in the specifications is not their fault but can only be blamed on the fact that they were in the service. This is not an attempt to force unqualified veterans or men without ability upon the State. It is merely saying that the veteran must be given a chance to prove his ability without being so ruled out.

Veterans preference for employment in the civil service of the State has been further handicapped by a ruling of the Attorney General in 1946 and the intention of the Legislature needs to be emphatically reaffirmed in unmistakable terms.

Veterans who were unable to accept appointments tendered them by the Highway Patrol, because at the time of appointment they had entered military service, deserve an opportunity to accept a new tender of appointment as vacancies occur.

Veterans who have, in the military service, received training and practice in the various trades such as barbers, should receive credit, for this experience toward reducing the required time of apprenticeship. Over twelve hundred veterans monthly entered into apprenticeship agreements in the summer just past.

Veterans seeking to obtain permits as public accountants have been prevented from obtaining them by a further unfavorable opinion from the former Attorney General. Further legislation will be presented to clear away present obstacles.

In far too many cases returning veterans find stay at homes intrenched in occupations and trades behind a legal barricade that is either insurmountable or requires exasperating months or years of delay to the veteran in taking up his chosen vocation. Veterans should not be prevented from going to work in the occupation of their choice except for the requirement of a minimum of necessary qualification.

NATIONAL GUARD

The State Guard is being demobilized as rapidly as the new National Guard can be activated. Appropriations should be made for necessary armories, for administration and storage facilities only, in line with the latest National Guard legislation.

Bills will be presented to set up the California National Guard in conformity with the recent federal legislation and present military needs.

STATE HOME

The California Veterans Home at Yountville is seeking congressional legislation to increase the federal allowance for care of disabled veterans in the home, and also to grant a higher priority for purchase of surplus government property.

Several members of the California Congressional Delegation have offered to sponsor such legislation, and Colonel Nelson M. Holderman, Commandant of the Home, has contacted officials of 27 other states having veterans' homes. The California Legislature, along with the law-making bodies of the other states involved, has adopted resolutions recommending action by Congress.

Colonel Holderman explained that the Federal Government now allows only $300 per year for each veteran, for care in state homes, whereas the cost of such care has increased greatly in the past few years and now averages $935 per capita in the Yountville Home.

A proposal submitted to the last session of Congress proposed an increase from $300 to $500 and also that the aid would be payable from the date of a veteran's admission if he is subsequently determined to be eligible for care in a Veterans Administration facility. No action was taken on the measure however.

A higher priority for surplus purchases is asked on the grounds that the Yountville Home provides housing and hospital care for veterans who otherwise would be an additional burden on federal facilities, and therefore should be given a rating equal to that given the Veterans Administration.

Appropriations of $2,254,000 have been made available by the Legislature for new construction at the State Veterans Home.

Some period of residence in California is needed for determining eligibility for admission to the Woman's Relief Corps Home at Santa Clara.

VETERAN REPRESENTATION

Veterans should be represented by appointed veteran representatives on the membership of the California Employment Stabilization Commission, and State Personnel Board.

The program of the State of California for assistance to veterans is being well administered. Our laws are being used as a model for other states. As hereinbefore noted certain minor clarifications are needed, but the main provisions should be continued as they are now operating. Legislation is recommended to carry out the former intention of the Legislature that has been the subject of unfavorable opinions by the former Attorney General.

As the session progresses suitable bills will be submitted by the committee and a final report prepared at an early date.

In addition to the $90,000,000 bond issue for purchase of homes for sale to veterans, there have been the following appropriations:

1. Chapter 15, Statutes 1946, First Extraordinary Session ----- $4,000,000 00

This appropriation was made for construction, furnishing and equipment of student housing at state colleges. While not specifically for veterans as such this housing would aid the veteran since most of the increase in student enrollment at the colleges has been due to return to civilian life of service men and women.

2. In addition the following amounts were appropriated to the Veterans Home of California for construction :

Appropriation—

2621. As used in this article "assessed valuation" means the latest total assessed valuation of the property subject to county taxation (excluding solvent credits), as of the date the county tax rate is set annually by the board of supervisors.

2622. For the purposes of this article, "aid to indigents" includes all relief and support granted indigent persons pursuant to this chapter but does not include medical or hospital care, nor intra-mural care furnished in almshouses or county farms owned or operated by a county. The cost of administration of aid to indigents, including all salaries and wages of county employees, cost of equipment, operating and maintenance expenses, and other similar expenses, shall not be considered a cost of aid to indigents within the meaning of this article.

2623. The board of supervisors of any county may, by a majority vote of the board, apply on behalf of the county to the State Department of Social Welfare for state assistance under this article. For the purposes of this article, application for state assistance is made on the date the application is sent by registered mail to the state department, and the post-office cancellation mark stamped upon the envelope in which the application is enclosed is prima facie evidence that the application was mailed on that date.

The application shall be accompanied by an affidavit executed by the chairman of the board of supervisors setting forth the amount of the county expenditure for aid to indigents under this chapter during the current fiscal year to the date of the application.

Within 30 days after making the application, the county shall file with the State Department of Social Welfare a plan of county indigent aid policies and procedures, which shall include all ordinances adopted and rules and regulations promulgated by the county for the granting or denying of aid to indigents, for determining the amounts to be paid to indigents, and for determining such other indigent aid matters as are within the discretion of the county under this chapter.

2624. The State Department of Social Welfare shall determine whether or not the county's costs exceed the amount set forth in Section 2620 and shall approve the county plan if the plan provides for (a) payments of aid in cash or in kind in amounts not exceeding the maxima established by the State Department of Social Welfare, and (b) compliance with any other requirements prescribed by this chapter. If the department finds that the county is eligible for state assistance under this article, it shall grant the application, and certify that fact to the State Controller.

2625. The expenditure of funds rendering the county eligible for state assistance under this article shall be subject to audit by the State Department of Social Welfare and by the State Controller.

The State Department of Social Welfare may make rules and regulations regarding the accounting procedures to be used in making such expenditure.

2626. The amount of state assistance payable under this article to any eligible county where application therefor has been granted shall be 60 percent of so much of the county's expenditure for aid to indigents as exceeds 0.08 percent of the total assessed valuation of the property subject to county taxation. Payment of the state assistance shall be commenced as of the first day of the month in which the application for assistance was made, if the county was or became eligible for assistance during that month, except that in computing the state assistance to which the county is entitled here shall be excluded any county expenditure for aid to indigents which does not exceed 0.08 percent of the total assessed valuation of property subject to county taxation. If the county was not eligible for assistance during the month in which application was made, but became eligible thereafter, assistance shall be commenced as of the first day of the month in which the county became eligible therefor, and in computing the state assistance to which the county is entitled there shall be excluded any county expenditure which does not exceed 0.08 percent of the total assessed valuation of property subject to county taxation. Payments to counties under this article shall be made pursuant to the procedure set forth in this article.

2627. The State Department of Social Welfare shall make rules and regulations regarding the submission of claims to the State, which rules and regulations shall be subject to the approval of the State Controller. Such rules may, but need not, include the following requirements:

(a) Where aid is paid by means of cash warrants, the claim shall be supported by a listing of all recipients to whom aid is so paid, together with the amount of the payment to each recipient.

(b) For relief orders, the claim shall include the name of the vendor, the amount paid to him, and the listing of recipients in behalf of whom such payment is made.

(c) Where aid is given by means of goods purchased by the county, the claim shall include the purchase price of goods actually issued.

2628. Claims submitted by the county shall be subject to preaudit by the State Department of Social Welfare and the State Controller, and payment shall be made to the county in the amount approved. Adjustments found necessary through audit subsequent to payment of the claim shall be effected either through adjustment of a current claim or, in the absence of a current claim, the county shall refund to the State any excess previously allowed.

This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Proceedings have been commenced for the establishment of a river port district to include Sacramento County and a portion of Yolo County pursuant to Part 6 of Division 8 of the Harbors and Navigation Code. The election to determine if such district shall be created will be conducted April 15, 1947 and said district will therefore not be in existence until subsequent to the last allowable date in 1947 authorized by Section 3720 of the Political Code for the filing of the required map or plat. Without the benefit of this Section therefore, said district would be deprived of all revenue from taxation for a period of almost two years from the date of its formation, to wit, until January 1, 1949. It is urgent that said district, if established, have funds with which to function and operate at the earliest possible date so as to insure said district of receiving the assistance of the United States Government in accordance with United States Senate Document No. 142, Seventy-ninth Congress, Second Session, and to promote and facilitate the early accomplishment of the objective of said district, to wit, the construction of a deep water port and related facilities near Sacramento, California. The construction and operation of such port and facilities will materially promote the peace, health and safety of the people of said district and of this State in that:

(1) Said project will afford additional flood protection to property adjacent to or near the Sacramento River.

(2) Said project will stimulate employment, increase industry, alleviate economic distress and promote the general welfare of the people of said district as well as of the State.

(3) Said project will improve the military and naval facilities on the West Coast and will assist the War Department of the United States in its objectives, thereby promoting the peace, health and safety of the people of this State."

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Taxation of Veterans' Farm and Home Purchases—No. 173

Honorable George J. Hatfield
Box C, Newman, California

DEAR SENATOR HATFIELD: You have asked us the following:

QUESTION

Are farms and homes purchased by the Department of Veterans Affairs, or its predecessor, the Veterans' Welfare Board, and resold to veterans under the Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act subject to taxation, except as to the possessory interest of the purchaser?

OPINION

In our opinion the interest which the veteran has under his contract for the purchase of a farm or home from the Department of Veterans Affairs or the Veterans' Welfare Board is taxable solely as a "possessory" interest in the land, not as if he were the legal or equitable owner of the fee.

That has been the administrative and legislative interpretation of the contract and of the statute for some 25 years and we find nothing in the judicial decisions of this State that leads us to think that our Supreme Court entertains or will entertain a different view.

The only court decision we know of that might be viewed as casting a possible doubt upon the soundness of the conclusion herein expressed is a recent one by a federal court construing a federal statute. (S. R. A. vs. Minnesota (1946), 66 S. Ct. 749, 90 L. Ed. Adv. 663.)

Such a decision at most could only be persuasive, not authoritative, in a California state case involving a state contract executed pursuant to a state statute.

But we do not think the S.R.A. case is even persuasive here. That was a case of the sale of an old government building which had been vacated and was no longer needed for government purposes. It was sold under a federal statute providing for the disposal of surplus federal real estate. Obviously, it was a contract of sale the purpose of which was that of getting the money value out of the property and putting the money to work, and, as the court indicated, the only conceivable interest the government any longer had in the property was security for the purchase price money.

That is an entirely different sort of transaction from the one which we are considering.

The several veterans' farm and home purchase acts are essentially similar, and have the following common provisions:

(a) The purpose of providing veterans with the opportunity to acquire farms and homes.

(b) Limitation upon the amounts which the State may advance and upon the value of the farm or home to be acquired.

(c) Inquiry as to eligibility and qualifications, and preference to wounded or disabled veterans.

(d) Inquiry as to desirability of the property.

(e) Requirement that the veteran actually reside upon the property to be acquired.

(f) Provision that property shall not be, voluntarily or involuntarily, transferred, assigned, encumbered, leased, let, or sublet, in whole or in part, without the written consent of the board.

(g) Provision for cancellation of contract, retaking and resale of the property, and retention of payments made in case of a breach of the contract.

(h) No provision for collection of a deficiency.

(i) The right of a widow to complete the veteran's contract if he dies after making application.

(j) The making of the Veterans' Welfare Board sole judge of the validity of taxes, assessments, encumbrances, etc.

In addition, the 1943 Act (Section 987.7 of the Military and Veterans Code) provides that the board may pay the veteran any net gain realized in excess of the amount due it, and makes the board sole judge of the net gain.

Interest has been reduced from time to time to cover the bare costs of administration. (1946, First Extra Session, Chap. 47).

The Legislature, by the enactment of Chapter 1502 of the Statutes of 1945, returned to the veteran purchasers the load charge which had been collected from them to guarantee the financial soundness of the operations of the board in case of unforeseen contingencies, such as a marked decline in real estate valuations, an unexpected number of defaults on purchase contracts, and similar unforeseen contingencies which would cause an eventual loss to the State, and which was found unneeded as the operations developed.

The Legislature has expressly interpreted the interest of a veteran in such a purchase as a "possessory interest" only. Sections 987 and 2190.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code (added by Chapter 324 of 1945) provide for the assessment and collection of a tax upon the possessory interest of a veteran in real estate of the Veterans' Welfare Board.

In the administration of this act, the board has adopted rules to insure that the veteran is a qualified purchaser. It has adopted standard specifications and appraisals to determine the desirability and adaptability of the property to serve the purpose of this legislation, that of providing the veteran and his family with a suitable home for future years. It passes upon the location, as to accessibility to transportation, schools, markets, churches, parks, and opportunity for employment. The proportion of lot value to the dwelling cost is considered.

The board has also permitted joint tenancy contracts with the veteran and his wife, and established a group insurance plan to preserve the home for the survivor.

During the depression years temporary suspensions in payments were granted. New contracts were written. Temporary renting of the property was permitted (Veterans' Welfare Board Report as of June 30, 1936, p. 21). All these things resulted in preserving many homes for veterans which would otherwise have been lost to them.

Provisions have been made for additional loans for reconditioning.

These significant features of the statute, and of the contract made pursuant to the statute, present a quite different picture from that presented when a governmental agency is selling broken-down, dilapidated, second-hand property in order to get the money out and put the money to a useful purpose.

The significantly different public purpose of the Farm and Home Purchase Act gains emphasis if we focus attention upon the fact that it was but one of several veterans welfare acts all adopted at the session of 1921, following World War I.

The acts adopted at that session of the Legislature include:

The Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act (Chapter 519).

The California Veterans' Welfare Act, Land Settlement (Chapter 580).

An act establishing the California Veterans' Educational Institute (Chapter 579).

The Veterans' Welfare Bond Act of 1921 (Chapter 578), which was later validated by initiative constitutional amendment adopted November 7, 1922.

An act providing for the use of tax-deeded lands to aid vocational education of veterans' dependents (Chapter 349).

An act affording relief to veteran purchasers of school lands (Chapter 118).

An act authorizing counties to establish homes and maintain meeting places for veterans (Chapter 348).

An act granting state civil service preference to veterans (Chapter 577).

An act exempting veterans from certain business licenses (Chapter 164).

An act to exempt veterans from certain fees in connection with pension and insurance claims (Chapter 326).

The public purpose of these enactments was thoroughly considered by the Supreme Court in Veterans' Welfare Board vs. Riley (1922), 188 Cal. 607; Veterans Welfare Board vs. Jordan (1922), 189 Cal. 124; and Allied Architects' Assn. vs. Payne (1923), 192 Cal. 431.

In the Allied Architects' Assn. case, at page 439, in discussing the use of memorial buildings, the court states the general rule as to such enactments:

"The justification for the grant does not rest upon the moral or equitable obligation of payment to the veteran for services already rendered. In its dedication of the use of the building to associations of veterans the State is not looking toward the past but to the future. In short, it is not for past services rendered that the proposed building is dedicated to the use of those who served their Country but the services to be rendered by them to the State in the future by keeping alive and fostering that spirit of patriotism which actuated them when they offered their all, even unto 'the last full measure of devotion,' for the perpetuation of the ideals and institutions for which this Nation stands."

Administratively, the purpose of the Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act has been given the same broad interpretation.

The Foreword to the Report of the Veterans' Welfare Board as of June 30, 1926, contains a brief resume of veteran legislation from the days of Carthage to the present. This resume recites the problem of overcoming the mental and physical condition induced by war and of conquering the spirit of wanderlust and adventure. To overcome this the United States prior to World War I made land grants for the returning veterans, but in 1919 no more lands were available for that purpose and a new plan of home building had to be provided.

"So the idea of remedial aid for soldiers was not a new one, born in the minds of the present generation, but one of the oldest of national customs. The only problem was the application of an old principle. There were no longer new lands to be conquered or new territories to be settled, and there was very little government land to be offered for settlement; so the problem now was to find a means whereby these returned service men might be assisted in the acquisition of homes or farms in which to reestablish themselves within the boundaries or confines of our own Country."

On page 16 of the same report, the advantages of the act are set forth, together with an explanation:

"2. No taxes while the State has title to the property * * *

In practically every county, the property to which the State holds title under the Farm and Home Purchase Act has been exempted from taxation under an existing law which provides that property, the title of which is vested in the State of California, shall not be subject to taxation."

On page 22 of the 1928 report we find these statements:

"2. Less taxes through the application of the $1,000 exemption given veterans by the Constitution of the State of California. (Section 14, Article XIII.) * * *

In a majority of the counties the property to which the State holds title under the Farm and Home Purchase Act has been exempted from taxation under an existing law which provides that property, the title of which is vested in the State of California, shall not be subject to taxation. In other counties the veterans under farm and home purchase contracts are assessed for taxes on the basis of their possessory interest in the farm or home and the $1,000 exemption given them by the Constitution of the State of California, is applied against the assessment."

The State Land Settlement Act (Chapter 755 of the Statutes of 1917), though of an earlier vintage and one which in its declaration of purposes put the emphasis upon the importance of the land settlement problem and the need to improve general economic and social conditions of agricultural settlers, is in a similar category.

In the case of State Land Settlement Board vs. Henderson (1925) 197 Cal. 470, the court did in fact say that lands held by the State and open for settlement under the terms of that act "are lands which belong to the State and are exempt from taxation."

Under that act the State bought large parcels of land for the purpose of subdividing, improving and selling them. These lands were sold under contracts of sale essentially similar to the contracts under the Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act.

We do not see much difference between the purchase and resale of the larger tracts and buying small individual farms or homes or lots and improving them and selling to individual veterans. The situation is somewhat similar to that of the owner of a mining claim or of a homesteader or of a desert entryman or other purchaser of lands in the public domain who has but a possessory interest in the land when it comes to taxing his interest.

We are not unmindful of the holding of the Supreme Court in Veterans' Welfare Board vs. Jordan (supra), wherein the court held that General Fund bond moneys could be used in furtherance of land settlement but not in carrying out the provisions of the Farm and Home Purchase Act. The latter, the court said, was in fact a lending transaction and if bond moneys were used in furtherance thereof, that would amount to a lending of the credit of the State contrary to Section 31 of Article IV.

That is all very true but does not, we think, disallow the logic of our reasoning which leads to the conclusion that the State's interest and policy and purpose are such that the State has something far more and quite different over and above the interest which the vendor of mere surplus property has in the property under sale, security for payment of sales price money.

From a consideration of the foregoing factors, it is our opinion that a farm or home, purchased under the Veterans' Farm and Home Act is subject to taxation solely as a possessory interest in the land.

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel

Chief Assistant Secretary Cleve V. Taylor at the Desk

In accordance with the provision of Joint Rule 37, we submit herewith a Partial Report of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

The primary purpose of this partial report is to place in your hands as early as possible the Report of the Legislative Auditor to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee analyzing the Budget of the State of California for the Fiscal Year July 1, 1947 to June 30, 1948.

We are asking that this partial report of the committee be printed in the Journal and that this report, together with the Report of the Legislative Auditor on the Budget, be printed as a supplement for the reason that we find at the moment there is a scarcity of paper and type metal in the State Printing Plant and several legislative committee reports and legislative printing competing for it. By following this procedure we will use less paper and release the type metal sooner.

By Joint Rule 37 your Joint Legislative Budget Committee is a continuing committee dealing constantly with matters "concerning the State Budget, the revenues and expenditures of the State and of the organization and functions of the State, its departments, subdivisions and agencies with a view of reducing the cost of the State Government, and securing greater efficiency and economy." The committee has had its Legislative Auditor and his staff studying state revenues, organization and procedure and the operation of the various agencies of the government in order to forward the purposes of the committee.

In particular, we have had the Legislative Auditor devote himself and his staff to the State Budget which is now before the Legislature. He has conducted many studies concerning the operations of the State preliminary to the analysis of the budget itself. This information has yielded much valuable material for use with the budget and for other recommendations within the purview of the committee, and subsequent reports will be presented to you covering these matters. This report deals solely with the State Budget now before you.

Cooperation With Budget Makers

At the request of the Director of Finance, Honorable James S. Dean, the Budget Committee instructed the Legislative Auditor to participate in the budget hearings and to consult with the Director of Finance and render every assistance in the formation of the budget. This service the Legislative Auditor and his staff have performed now for the three budgets of this administration through participating in these budget hearings. We believe that assistance was rendered in formulating a better budget and keeping it within more reasonable limits than might have resulted if this service and experience had not been available.

Our Legislative Auditor, by sitting in at the budget hearings representing the Legislature as an official observer, has been able to view at first hand just how the budget was formulated, including what the original requests were and the changes which were made by the Governor and the Department of Finance. This information and intimate acquaintance with the making of the budget itself makes it possible for him as our employee to report to us more adequately on this matter.

During this time the Legislative Auditor secured information from the various departments concerning their budget requests and the justification therefor and made further examination insofar as was possible into the needs of the departments and the efficiency of their method of operation.

Budget Analysis and Report

As soon as the budget hearings were over the Legislative Auditor formulated his own budget estimates preparatory to reviewing the final budget requests in the official document.

When the Department of Finance and the Governor had concluded the budget for any agency or division of the State, the final schedules showing allowances were provided the Legislative Auditor. His office thereupon began an exhaustive analysis of these budget requests. This work was already underway a short time before the formal budget document was presented to the Legislature on January 29, 1947. From that time until yesterday the Legislative Auditor and his staff have been concentrating on analyzing the budget and all of its parts and preparing a report which covers in comprehensive detail the budget document. This report includes the revenue estimates and the Governor's Message and the over-all procedure followed in forming the budget, together with an item by item analysis of the appropriation bills. Senate Bill No. 666 and Assembly Bill No. 1250, which are identical bills. This analysis, consisting of 660 pages, is now available for the use of the Legislature.

We believe that this report will assist materially in considering the budget, will expedite action thereon, and above all, will result in a more equitable budget. Moreover, it will promote economy and efficiency.

It has been the insistent desire of the Legislative Budget Committee to get this report into your hands as early as possible in the session. We have pressed the Legislative Auditor to do this. We believe that when you examine this report in connection with the budget document and the appropriation bills, you will appreciate that it was no small task to perform this service in the limited time available. The Legislative Auditor has pointed out to us that only by the industry of his staff, who have worked long hours and almost every night for several weeks, has it been possible to get out this report in this time. The committee wishes to express appreciation to its staff for this industry and service.

The nature and extent of the budget report is such that the members of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee have not had opportunity to read or act upon the recommendations contained therein.

I have examined much of this report in the page proof and I have consulted with the members of the staff of the Legislative Auditor responsible for the research work on many sections. I know that the report itself, supplemented by such additional information as this staff possesses, will give you fuller information than has ever before been available to you concerning the items of appropriation in the Budget Bill and will make more understandable the exhaustive material in the budget document.

Budget Committee Task Increases With Budget

This is the third budget your Joint Legislative Budget Committee has considered. The first two of them, 1943-45 and 1945-47, were each for a biennium, and the present one for the one Fiscal Year 1947-48. We believe that our reports have improved with each budget. The size of our task continues to grow. The first biennial budget we considered for 1943-45 totaled $463,947,005 when presented by the Governor. The 1945-47 Budget as presented by the Governor totaled $683,710,643. This budget, the first one on an annual basis, totals $641,599,026. It is only $42,111,617 less than the previous biennial budget. The fiscal problems of the State of California have almost doubled within the space of three years. While the population has grown, it has not experienced nearly such a rapid increase. The job of your Legislative Budget Committee increases at the same rate as the budget. With an annual budget of almost the same size as the preceding biennial budget and 40 percent larger than the first biennial budget we considered, our task not only increases but it now becomes an annual one. We believe that by bringing you a comprehensive analysis of the budget and thereby giving you information which we know to be reliable and in which we have confidence that we can serve you and the people of the State in the most valuable way. It is information that we need before us in order to act intelligently on the fiscal matters we must consider in the budget and in the many appropriation bills in the Legislature.

Policies of the Budget Committee

The report of the Legislative Auditor outlines the policies the Budget Committee has set. We believe them to be consistent with the joint rule establishing the Budget Committee. The recommendations made by the Legislative Auditor are his recommendations and have not been acted on specifically by the Budget Committee. The report and recommendations are presented in this fashion so that each one of you may have these recommendations and facts as they are presented. You will have before you the basis and policies on which they are founded, and with these you can make your own determinations. Where additional information is desired, the Legislative Auditor and his staff are available to provide it.

At later dates additional studies prepared by the Legislative Auditor on particular matters of government operations and expenditures will be presented by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and a full report of the committee will be presented to the Legislature.

Respectfully submitted.

W. P. RICH, Chairman

Said board may enter into and do all acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreements with the United States or any state, county or district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm, or individual, or any number of them, for the joint acquisition, construction, leasing, ownership, disposition, use, management, maintenance, repair or operation of any levees, works or other property of any kind which might lawfully be acquired or owned by the district, and may acquire the right to store water in any reservoir or to carry water through any canal, ditch or conduit not owned or controlled by the district, and may grant to any owner or lessee, the right to the use of any water, the right to store such water in any reservoir of the district, or to carry such water through any canal, ditch or conduit of the district. The board is authorized and empowered to take conveyances, leases, contracts or other assurances for all property acquired by it under the provisions of this act, in the name of this district, to and for the uses and purposes herein expressed, and to institute and maintain any and all actions and proceedings, suits at law or in equity, necessary or proper in order to fully carry out the provisions of this act, and to enforce, maintain, protect or preserve any and all rights, privileges and immunities created by this act or acquired in pursuance thereof, and may appear and defend in person or by attorneys in the name of such irrigation district.

5. The legal title to all property acquired under the provisions of this act shall immediately, by operation of law, vest in the district, and shall be held by the district in trust for, and is hereby dedicated and set apart to, the uses and purposes set forth in this act. And said board is hereby authorized and directed to hold, use, manage, keep and possess, said property as herein provided. 6. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees to establish suitable by-laws, rules and regulations for the distribution and use of water among the owners of lands, which must be printed in convenient form for the use of the district. Said board may fix and collect rates of tolls and charges, for the purposes, and in the manner in this act provided.

Said board may provide, by uniform rules and regulations, that water shall not be furnished to persons against whom, or for use upon land on which, there are delinquent water tolls or charges or delinquent district taxes.

7. The boundaries of the divisions and precincts or any subsequent changes therein must be shown on the minutes of the board. other precinct of his intention to do so, in order that the election board may note the ballots represented by said land as having been voted.

8. After the first election of trustees held in pursuance of the provisions of this act, all subsequent regular elections shall be called annually at the times fixed for the holding of the annual election, and the trustees shall cause notice of such election to be given for the period and in the manner hereinbefore prescribed in reference to the first election, and the trustees shall perform all the duties in respect to giving notice of the election, establishing election boards, providing the ballots and assessment roll records necessary for conducting the election, designating voting places, causing the returns to be canvassed, and the results declared, which have been imposed upon the supervisors in respect to the first election.

In all elections for trustees the persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed elected for the office to be filled, provided, that if among the persons receiving the highest number of votes there shall be so many persons who are not resident in said district that the aggregate number of trustees whose terms have not expired who are not resident in said district added to such number of nonresident persons voted for shall exceed three, then the nonresident or nonresidents having the lowest number of votes shall be deemed not elected and the person or persons receiving the next highest number of votes who are resident in said district shall be deemed elected, so that not less than a majority of the trustees shall be residents of the district. If an election is not held as herein provided, then upon the filing of a petition with the secretary of the board of trustees, signed by property owners owning real property assessed upon the last preceding equalized assessment roll at not less than the aggregate of five thousand dollars, requesting that a special election be called for the election of officers, the trustees of such district shall thereupon call a special election for the election of such officers, such election to be held within not less than 40 days after the filing of such petition.

Each member of the board of trustees shall qualify by executing an official bond in the sum of five thousand dollars on or before noon of the tenth day following his election, which bond shall thereafter be approved by a judge of the superior court of Riverside County, and be recorded in the office of the county [treasurer] recorder thereof, and filed with the secretary of the board. All official bonds herein provided for shall be in the form prescribed by law for the official bonds of the county officers, and premium thereof may be paid by the district.

9. Said board of trustees shall have the power at any time that, in its judgment, as declared by order entered in its minutes, the expenditure of money is absolutely necessary to the welfare of the district and the accomplishment of the purposes of this act, and there is no money in the fund of said district to make such necessary expenditures or the money in said fund is insufficient to make such necessary expenditures, to borrow for any period of time, not exceeding one year, such sum, not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars as may be necessary to make such expenditure, and may evidence such indebtedness by the note or notes of said district, executed by its president and secretary, and bearing interest at not more than 7 percent per annum.

When any such official map has been adopted by resolution of the board of trustees and filed in the office of the assessor, it shall thereafter be lawful for the assessor, in assessing any parcel of land shown thereon, for district purposes, to describe such parcel by lot number, letter or designation as delineated upon such map. Such map may consist, in whole or in part, of a copy of another map or compilation from other map, or a resurvey or renumbering or relettering of parcels of land in such tract. Senate Resolution No. 61—Relative to establishment of state employees salaries.

WHEREAS, Section 18850 of the Civil Service Act requires that the State Personnel Board establish salaries for state employees as follows:

“The board shall establish and adjust salary ranges for each class of position in the state civil service. The salary ranges shall be based on the principle that like salaries shall be paid for comparable duties and responsibilities. In establishing or changing such ranges consideration shall be given to the prevailing rates for comparable service in other public employment and in private business, improvement of living standards, the current costs of living, and the State's financial condition.”; and

WHEREAS, The State Personnel Board adjusted the salaries of state employees, in accordance with said provisions of Section 18850 as of June 1, 1946, and said adjustments were based on prevailing rates and cost of living data as of that date, even though later granted as a result of appeals; and

WHEREAS, It appears from official figures that the cost of living has increased approximately 15 percent since June 1, 1946; and

WHEREAS, It also appears that other public jurisdictions, such as the City of Los Angeles, the County of Los Angeles and the City and County of San Francisco, as well as a number of private industries, have materially increased the salaries of a large number of employees for classes comparable to those in state service since June 1, 1946, and it is probable that there will be further increases in the salaries for similar employees in the near future, which increases are causing state employees to be paid at salaries substantially below the prevailing rates; and

WHEREAS, Said condition is having and will continue to have an unfavorable effect upon the morale of state employees and is also seriously affecting the efficient functioning of state service because of the inability to obtain and retain competent employees in competition with the higher salaries being paid in other public jurisdictions and private industry; and

WHEREAS, It appears that in order to make appropriate adjustments in salaries of state employees made necessary by increases in prevailing rates and increase in the cost of living since June 1, 1946, it will be necessary for the Legislature to provide additional funds to finance said salary adjustments; and

WHEREAS, There now are bills before the Legislature to provide further funds for adjusting the salaries of state employees; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary in order for the Legislature to take proper action on such bills that it have as complete information as possible on the present status of salaries of state employees and salaries in general; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the State Personnel Board be and is hereby requested to furnish to the Senate of the State of California, not later than by April 15, 1947, a written report on the present status of the salaries of state employees in relation to prevailing rates and increases in the cost of living, together with an analysis of alternative methods and costs of making further salary adjustments for state employees.

Recommendation of the Governor

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

SACRAMENTO, March 26, 1947

GENTLEMEN:

Senate Bill No. 497—"An act to amend Section 27 of an act entitled 'An act making an appropriation for allocation to cities, counties, and cities and counties to develop a postwar public works program comprising the preparation of surveys and plans and specifications for proposed public works and the acquisition of rights-of-way and sites for major streets, roads, bridges, sewerage and other public facilities, and providing the procedure for making such allocations,' approved June 20, 1944, relating to postwar public works programs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately,"

The State Controller is hereby authorized to sell, cash, redeem, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, certificates of deposit, or other securities, and all other classes of personal property so distributed or escheated to the State of California and deposited in the State Treasury, and, in the name and on behalf of the State of California, to sell, cash, redeem, exchange, compromise, adjust, settle, or otherwise dispose of any accounts, debts, contractual rights, or other choses in action, so distributed or escheated to the State of California, whenever, in the opinion of the Controller, such action on his part is necessary or will tend to safeguard and conserve the interests of all parties, including the State of California, having any vested or expectant interest in the property.

Opinion of Legislative Counsel

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, March 31, 1947

Application of Section 1134, Labor Code No. 3578

Hon. George J. HatfieldSenate Chamber

DEAR SENATOR HATFIELD: You have asked whether subsections (a) and (b) of Section 1134 of the Labor Code apply to employers as well as employees.

The answer to this inquiry, which we believe to be in the affirmative, is contained in the language of the section referred to, and it is our opinion that the language itself leaves no room for doubt as to its all inclusive application.

Subsection (a) of Section 1134 is comprised of two disjunctive, definitive phrases, each of which is prefaced with the words "As used in this chapter 'Hot Cargo' means," and followed by the subjective definitive "any combination or agreement." It is to be noted that the language used is all inclusive. It does not limit the combination or agreement to one or several specific groups or individuals but clearly encompasses all with the words "any combination or agreement."

"Hot Cargo" is defined to be "any combination or agreement resulting in a refusal by employees * * * or a refusal by employers" because of a dispute in the first instance or by reason of an agreement with labor on the part of an employer in the second instance.

The language of subsection (b) of Section 1134 is substantially the same as subsection (a) both as to form and content. The definition of "secondary boycott" includes combinations or agreements of all kinds, whether an employer or employee group. It declares a "secondary boycott" to be any combination or agreement causing a refusal to perform services or handle goods by employees on the one hand and employers on the other, and in the use of broad language includes motivating action on the part of employers as well as employees.

As indicated above, it is the opinion of this office that the language leaves no room for doubt as to its all-inclusive purpose, and that it applies equally, in terms, to employers as well as to employees.

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel
By JOHN P. GLEESON, DeputyCONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE

Opinion of Legislative CounselOFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, March 31, 1947

Constitutionality of "Hot Cargo" Law as amended by Senate Bill No. 342, as amended in Senate, March 17, 1947.—No. 3618

Hon. George J. Hatfield

Senate Chamber

DEAR SENATOR HATFIELD: You have directed our attention to Senate Bill No. 342, as amended in Senate March 17, 1947, and ask whether the amended bill in any way modifies the opinion prepared by us on January 19, 1947.

In compliance with your request we have examined the amended bill and find therein nothing which would cause us to modify the opinion rendered on January 19, 1947, in regard to the constitutionality of the "Hot Cargo" Law.

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel
By JOHN P. GLEESON, Deputy

SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, January 19, 1947

Constitutionality of the Hot Cargo Act—
Labor Code Sections 1131-1136, No. 164

Hon. George J. Hatfield
Senate Chamber

DEAR SENATOR HATFIELD: Transmitted herewith is a proposed amendment to the "Hot Cargo" Act which you requested. It is the opinion of this office that this is the only change necessary to make the act permanent in view of our analysis which follows:

Since the Hot Cargo Act became effective in December, 1942, there have been no decisions handed down from our high courts on the question of its constitutionality, and there have been no recent decisions from either the United States Supreme Court or the State Supreme Court since those reported in opinions issued by this office in 1941-42. Several cases have arisen in the superior court, however, with varying results, and there is at least one case involving the validity of the act pending before the California Supreme Court at the present time. (Application of W. T. Blancy, Writ of Habeas Corpus, Criminal 4733.)

The opinion previously prepared in this office concluded:

(1) That the act outlaws:

- (a) The secondary strike;
- (b) The sympathetic strike;
- (c) The secondary boycott; and
- (d) Picketing in aid of each of the foregoing.

(2) It does not affect the primary strike, the primary boycott, or picketing in aid of either.

(3) The constitutionality of the act insofar as it outlaws the secondary and sympathetic strike, and secondary boycott is unquestioned, but decisions handed down from the United States Supreme Court since Senn vs. Tile Layers Union, 301 U. S. 468 (1937) identifying picketing with free speech, place the validity of its proscription in question. As indicated previously, the question of constitutionality goes only to the inclusion of picketing within the provisions of the act.

The trend of the federal decisions is not all in one direction, and while the probabilities lean toward unconstitutionality, in respect to the restriction of secondary picketing under the act, they go no further. It appears however, although most of the cases strengthen the freedom of speech aspect, that the Supreme Court in its most recent decision has recognized that it may have gone too far in balancing the interest of free speech with other constitutional guarantees. In Carpenters Union vs. Ritter, 315 U. S. 722, (1941), Mr. Justice Frankfurter stated at page 727:

"It is true that by peaceful picketing, working men communicate their grievances. As a means of communicating the facts of a labor dispute, peaceful picketing may be a phase of the constitutional right of free utterance. But recognition of peaceful picketing as an exercise of free speech does not imply that the states must be without power to confine the sphere of communication to that directly related to the dispute. Restriction of picketing to the area of the industry within which a labor dispute arises, leaves open to the disputants other traditional modes of communication. To deny to the states the power to draw this line is to write into the Constitution the notion that every instance of peaceful picketing—anywhere and under any circumstances—is necessarily a phase of the controversy which provoked the picketing.”

This language is not as positive nor as forceful as that previously used by the court in Thornhill vs. Alabama, 310 U. S. 106 (1940), where it said:

“Peaceful picketing is an exercise of the right of free speech guaranteed by the 14th Amendment * * *”

It is apparent from this change of attitude that the court is willing to concede that even peaceful picketing is something more than free speech; i.e., that it is a coercive action which infringes on the right of an individual to do business. This, not the free speech doctrine, was the basis of decision in the Carpenters Union vs. Ritter case, by the Texas court. (149 SW 2d 694). The decision there referred to the Texas anti-trust laws and the court stated:

“The 14th Amendment of the Federal Constitution does not make unconstitutional the use of an injunction as a means of preventing the violation of Texas anti-trust laws.”

Teller, on Labor Disputes and Collective Bargaining, Vol. 1, at page 63, 1943 Supplement, sums up the present state of confusion as follows:

“In the absence of a clarified decision by the Supreme Court rejecting the mistaken identification of picketing with free speech, or conceding the enjoinability of picketing where carried on in furtherance of torts, the line separating baseless restrictions from those which the Supreme Court will allow is difficult, if not impossible, to draw.”

“But,” he adds, in conclusion, “the Supreme Court would seem to have reinvested the courts of the several states with jurisdiction to reconcile the demands of organized labor with the regime of free enterprise, and to make the reconciliation effective by enjoining unlawful picketing.”

The decisions handed down in the lower courts of our State show that the superior court bench is divided on the question of whether the restriction of peaceful picketing in conjunction with secondary strikes and boycotts is unconstitutional. Judge Washburn states the problem succinctly in his decision on three cases (infra) arising in the Los Angeles Superior Court:

“Neither the United States Supreme Court nor that of California has furnished any precedent requiring or warranting a holding that the instant statute is unconstitutional in proscribing the Hot Cargo and Secondary Boycott—unless perchance that result grows out of the picketing phase of these labor instrumentalities and the contention that it cannot be restricted or regulated."

Judge Willis, also of the Los Angeles bench, in Ramser vs. Van Storage, etc., Local Union, L. A. Superior Court files No. 512,326, said:

"Subject to the intimation appearing in recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court as to the immunity of peaceful picketing from court restraint, there does not appear in this legislation any violation or transgression of any provision of either our State or Federal Constitutions."

He goes on to say, however, referring to the "Hot Cargo" Act:

"Herein the Legislature has spoken outright, declaring it public policy by outlawing both the secondary strike and secondary boycott together with their incidents. Of these incidents, the chief one is the picket line * * * this court is bound to hold that the State had the right to enact the act herein questioned, that it does not contravene the 14th Amendment, and that it is constitutional and enforceable in all the parts which relate to this action, and that upon proper showing, an aggrieved party or employer is entitled to relief by way of injunction as well as damages. And such injunction may reach out and attach its restraint to any act, combination or agreement which directly or indirectly causes, induces or compels a violation of any of the provisions of the act. Among the acts embraced are those of secondary striking, secondary boycott in its commonly accepted meaning, conducted in combination or agreement, and picketing conducted solely in aid of such unlawful activities at plants or places of business of others than the plaintiff."

Judge Washburn upheld the validity of the act in all its aspects in the following cases:

Los Angeles Downtown Shopping News Corporation vs. Los Angeles Central Labor Council, etc., et al., L. A. Superior Court files No. 516,314.

Plaintiff, a publisher, was subject to threats and secondary boycotting by defendants who also threatened newspapers and other concerns doing business with plaintiff that they would be picketed and boycotted as well, unless they discontinued doing business with the plaintiff publisher. As a result, the newspapers refused to accept further business from plaintiff and engravers who had previously done work under contract refused to serve him further. Defendants also picketed and boycotted plaintiff's advertisers.

Plaintiff had no dispute with its employees but the defendants were engaged in a dispute with the Pacific Press which printed and distributed the plaintiff's publication under contract. The boycotting of plaintiff and firms with which plaintiff did business was effectuated solely to bring pressure upon the Pacific Press.

The court recognized the complaint as one stating a cause of action for secondary boycott within the statute, but sustained the demurrers thereto and dissolved a temporary restraining order because of insufficiency of the pleadings.

Simon Brick Company, Incorporated, vs. Union Brick Tile and Clay Workers of America, etc., et al., L. A. Superior Court files No. 516,329.

Plaintiff brought action against numerous defendants, alleging a combination and agreement within the definition of secondary boycott and hot cargo, Labor Code 1131-1136.

Defendants attempted to negotiate a union shop agreement with plaintiff, a brick manufacturer, who had no dispute with his employees. Unsuccessful, the defendants proceeded by agreement to notify trucking companies and firms dealing with plaintiff that they could no longer continue to do business with him under threat of having their own employees strike.

Pursuant to these threats, the truck companies refused to haul bricks for the plaintiff, and customers discontinued purchases, and refused delivery of quantities previously ordered.

The court found that the defendants were acting in concert if not by agreement and held it to be sufficiently equivalent to an agreement to warrant a preliminary injunction, which was granted.

Van De Kamps Holland Dutch Bakers, Inc., vs. International Brotherhood of Teamsters, etc., et al., L. A. Superior Court files No. 515,878.

Defendant union sought to organize the truck drivers of plaintiff, a large baking concern with 115 retail outlets, five of which were operated by plaintiff under lease.

Defendants picketed owners of plaintiff's leased stores and during the picketing, employees of the owner-employers ceased work with the result that the owners agreed with defendants to terminate month to month tenancies held by plaintiff and to refuse to renew existing leases.

Injunction granted as to defendant unions; demurrers of employer defendants sustained on grounds that they were acting involuntarily and under compulsion.

Other cases arising in the superior court, however, have held that the instant act is unconstitutional in its application to picketing because of a supposed unlawful restraint of free speech. The decisions in each case are based on the theory that picketing is not an integral part of the proscribed concerted pressure upon the nondisputant employer and it is treated as freedom of speech alone. (Bear vs. Los Angeles Building Trades Council, Los Angeles County Superior Court No. 492,770; Union Ice Company vs. Sales Drivers, etc., Union, San Diego County Superior Court No. 131,560; and Butte vs. Distillery, etc., Union, Fresno County Superior Court No. 70957.)

Conclusion

Because the Supreme Court in Carpenter's and Joiner's Union vs. Ritter's Cafe, 315 U. S. 722, indicated that peaceful picketing could be confined to an industry, although no definition or test was given, and intimated in Bakery Driver's Union vs. Wohl, 315 U. S. 769, that it would sustain an injunction where the picketing is for an unlawful objective, it seems reasonable that "secondary" picketing in conjunction with strikes and boycotts is enjoined under the provisions of the "Hot Cargo" Act, Labor Code, Sections 1131-1136. And since picketing, even as free speech, is not an end in itself but only a means to an end, it should follow that the statutory restriction of picketing as an adjunct of the secondary strike or boycott is proper and valid, and not prohibited by the Constitution—the purpose and object of such picketing being unlawful under the act.

This view is further supported by the court's departure from its former position of aligning picketing with freedom of speech.

The code provisions apply only to concerted action—they do not pertain to individual action. In its application to concerted action, the act is an anti-trust law and a modification of the Cartwright Act to the extent that it proscribes restraint of trade by the concerted action of labor groups.

From this viewpoint, and in the light of the United States Supreme Court cases, the act would seem to be but an enactment of a state policy that does not contravene the prohibitions of the Constitution.

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel

30005. The license issued hereunder shall be in such form as the department shall prescribe but shall be under the seal of the department and shall set forth the name of the licensee, the location for which the license is issued, the type of operation, the period of the license and such other information as the department may determine. Licenses shall be for a term of one calendar year and shall be renewed annually upon like application and the payment of an appropriate fee as in the case of the original license. The original license or a certified copy thereof shall be conspicuously displayed by the licensee in locker plant.

30006. The floors, walls, and ceilings of locker plants shall be of such construction and finish that they can be conveniently maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

(a) When the locker plant is engaged in the selling of meats for processing, freezing or storage in a locker plant the inspected and uninspected meats shall be kept separated in the freezing room. A wire mesh separation is sufficient. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the receiving of inspected and uninspected meats through a common entrance.

Meat intended for retail selling shall not be hung, cut or processed in a room used for uninspected meat, or with equipment which has not been thoroughly sterilized.

(b) All rooms must have the name of the room identified.

(c) Each locker room must be provided with an overflow storage space, which must be kept locked at all times. No packaged food of any kind, frozen or otherwise, shall be stored or exposed to the public in the locker room, except in the presence of an attendant. All unfrozen foods shall be frozen in a separate room or compartment, at temperatures hereinafter specified, before being put in lockers.

30007. All rooms of a locker plant shall at all times be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition. All equipment and utensils shall be cleaned when put into use and shall be thoroughly cleaned after each day's use and shall be so stored or protected as not to become contaminated. Lockers shall be thoroughly cleaned before they are leased or put into the possession of any patron. The premises of locker plants shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition. The food stored shall be protected from filth, flies, dust, dirt, insects, vermin and any other contamination and from any unclean or filthy practice in the handling thereof or caring therefor. No food shall be stored in such condition or in such a manner as to cause injury to or deterioration of articles of food in adjacent lockers.

No room or rooms used for the preparation, storage, display or sale of food or for the processing of food shall be used as a living room or sleeping room nor shall dogs, cats or other domestic animals be permitted in any such room.

30008. Locker plants shall have an ample water supply readily available and the water that comes in contact with any food product or the equipment shall be uncontaminated. Locker plants shall be provided with adequate toilets so located as to be readily accessible to employees and equipped with adequate washing fixtures or facilities or have such fixtures or facilities convenient thereto and shall be supplied with running water, single soap and single towel service. The doors of all toilet rooms shall be full length and self-closing and no toilet room shall open directly into any room in which foods are prepared, processed, chilled, frozen or stored. Toilet facilities and rooms shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition. All processing and cutting rooms shall be provided with running hot and cold water at all times.

30010. The operator shall require all employees engaged in the handling of unpackaged foods in any locker plant to have a semiannual health examination by a physician and health certificate for each of such employees shall be kept on file by the operator at all times. No person suffering from any communicable disease, including any communicable skin disease, or with infected wounds, and no person who is a "carrier" of a communicable disease shall be employed in any capacity in a locker plant.

No person shall work or be employed in or about a locker plant during the time in which a communicable disease exists in the home in which he resides unless he has obtained a certificate from the state or local board of health stating that no danger of public contagion or infection will result from the employment of such person in such establishments. Every person employed by a locker plant and engaged in direct physical contact with food during its preparation, processing or storage, shall be clean in person, shaven, wear clean, washable outer garments and a suitable cap or other head covering, said garment to be used for that purpose only. Only persons specifically designated by the operator shall be permitted to touch food products with their hands and the persons so designated shall keep their hands scrupulously clean.

30011. All meat cutters working in a locker plant who do the custom processing of food shall be licensed by the department in accordance with such requirements as shall be formulated by the department.

The license fee shall cost one dollar ($1) and shall be renewable annually.

Qualifications must include references as to their integrity.

30012. The refrigeration system for a locker plant shall be equipped with reliable controls for the automatic maintenance of uniform temperatures as required in the various refrigerated rooms and shall be of adequate capacity to provide under extreme conditions of outside temperature and under peak load conditions in the normal operations of the plant, the following temperatures in the several rooms, respectively:

(a) Pre-cool, chill and/or aging rooms—temperatures shall be commensurate with good commercial practice.

(b) Sharp freeze room or compartment—shall have sufficient refrigeration capacity to freeze products at ten (10) degrees below zero Fahrenheit or lower, or zero Fahrenheit or lower when forced air circulation is employed, with a tolerance of five (5) degrees Fahrenheit for either type of installation for a reasonable time after unfrozen food is put in for freezing.

(c) Locker room—temperature not to exceed five (5) degrees Fahrenheit, with customary commercial variation.

The foregoing temperatures shall not be construed as prohibiting such variations therefrom as may occur during the short periods of time incidental to operating conditions beyond the control of the operator.

30013. Thermometers in good order shall be provided in all rooms held under low temperature at locations therein which will reflect true storage temperatures of foods in such rooms.

30014. No food shall be placed in a locker for storage unless it has been sharp frozen. No foods shall be placed in a locker unless such foods have been inspected by the operator. No unwrapped meat or unwrapped fruits or vegetables shall be placed in any locker. Only materials suitable for the wrapping of meats that are to be frozen and stored, shall be used. Each wrapped portion shall be marked or stamped with the correct locker number and the date of wrapping. All fresh carcass meats on coming into the custody or possession of the operator shall be identified with a suitable tag or stamp and if not cleaned, shall be washed with cold water or otherwise suitably cleaned and shall then be placed in the chill room sufficiently long to lose body heat, and in no case less than 24 hours, unless previously chilled before removal to the cutting room. In applying marks directly to meat or other food products, the operator shall use only nontoxic ink or other harmless substances.

30015. (a) No fish shall be stored in any locker unless properly frozen and wrapped. All fish shall be so handled as to protect equipment and other stored foods from fish flavors and fish odors.

(b) Storage of fish and game by patrons shall comply with the federal and state fish and game laws.

30016. Every operator of a locker plant shall keep an accurate and correct record, setting forth:

(a) The name and address of each customer.

(b) The record of each transaction.

(c) The rental period for each locker rented, the charge therefor and the payments thereon.

These records may be available for examination by constituted authorities.

30017. In case the patron, at the time the products are delivered, shall so request, then the operator of any locker plant shall supply such patron delivering carcasses or parts of carcasses for cutting or processing or freezing, with an accurate and complete report showing the carcasses weight at the time of delivery, the quantities used for sausage, other meat products and wastage.

30018. No person shall be permitted access to another patron's locker and its contents without proper authorization. Patrons shall not be permitted to handle meats or foods, other than their own, which are stored in the aging room or are in the process of preparation for freezing for storage.

30019. Only food fit for human consumption, or clean, sanitary by-products therefrom, shall be stored in the chill room, aging room, freezing room or locker room of any locker plant.

30020. The operator owning or operating a locker plant shall have a lien upon all property therein for all charges due from the owner of such property. Such lien may be secured and enforced in the same manner as warehousemen's liens are secured and enforced.

30021. Operators of locker plants operating solely as such shall not be construed to be warehousemen or public utilities, nor shall receipts or other instruments issued by such persons in the ordinary conduct of their locker business be construed to be warehouse receipts or subject to the laws applicable thereto.

30022. The department, after notice and hearing, may revoke the license issued for any locker plant for failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter. Before revoking any license the department shall give the licensee notice of 20 days, by registered mail, and an opportunity to be heard with respect thereto at a time and place specified in such notice.

In the event any license is revoked, the department shall permit the continued operation of the plant involved for a period of six months, and if the operator can establish within such six-month period his compliance with this chapter, his license shall be reinstated.

In the event the department suspends or revokes any license, the licensee may petition for a judicial review of the action in accordance with law.

30023. Any person violating the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100), and if such person is the holder of a license issued hereunder, such license may be revoked or suspended.

30024. The liability of the owner or operator of lockers for loss of goods in lockers or in operator's care shall be limited to gross negligence of the operator or his employees.

30025. Upon the signed petition of at least 25 operators of locker plants licensed under this chapter, the director shall, within 10 days after receipt of said petition, cause to be held at such places and at such times as he may provide a public hearing for the purpose of gathering facts and data for the revision, correction or amendment of any rule or regulation issued pertaining to this chapter.

SEC. 2. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act shall for any reason be adjudged or decreed to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment or decree shall not affect, impair, nor invalidate the remainder of this act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof, directly involved in the controversy in which said judgment or decree shall have been rendered."

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, April 3, 1947

MR. PRESIDENT: The Committee on Finance submits the following resolution:

Resolution of Senate Finance Committee

WHEREAS, The Legislative Auditor, on page 147 of his analysis of the Budget and the Budget Bill for the Fiscal Year July 1, 1947, to June 30, 1948, with reference to Item 31 of Senate Bill 666, the Budget Bill, has made the following statement:

"The present charge of $2.50 per year for each member of local government systems whose records are maintained by the State Employees' Retirement System under contract must be increased next April to offset the cost of an increased staff and salary rates required to maintain these records. It is anticipated that the revenues for the 1947-1948 Fiscal Year received under such contracts will not meet the cost of the services performed. It is estimated that under the proposed budget these costs will average $3.11 per member. The additional amounts thus required must be recovered through an increase in charges for the next year. To accomplish this such charges must be slightly in excess of the actual costs for the ensuing year. The present costs average approximately $2.70 per member under outside contracts. We recommend the charges be set at $3.50 for each member, and that no allowance be made for additional staff unless at least the actual costs for carrying the contracting systems are fully paid by them.”;

therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate Finance Committee, That the Director of Finance undertake an immediate survey to ascertain if the contracts, whereby the State Employees' Retirement System maintains retirement systems for local governments, provide an adequate charge to reimburse the State for all services performed by the State for such local governments, and, if it is found that such charges are not adequate, that the Board of Administration of the State Employees' Retirement System revise the rates to provide an adequate charge whenever such revision in rates becomes possible under the provisions of existing or future contracts; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent by the Secretary of the Senate Finance Committee to the Director of Finance and the Board of Administration of the State Employees' Retirement System, and that a copy be printed in the Senate Journal.

ADOPTED this second day of April, 1947.

RICH, Chairman

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered:

By Senator Slater:

Senate Resolution No. 69

Relative to the death of the Honorable Royal E. Vitousek, former Speaker of the Hawaiian Legislature

With sincere regret, many California friends and Members of the California Legislature learned of the unexpected death in Honolulu last week of the Honorable Royal E. Vitousek, for many years a Member and Speaker of the Hawaiian Legislature and also Chairman of the Territorial Republican Convention, a man of recognized integrity and prominent in the profession of the law.

Mr. Vitousek was a Californian and his boyhood days were spent in Healdsburg, Sonoma County, a member of a widely known pioneer state family. He attended the Healdsburg schools and later graduated as a lawyer and practiced his profession in Santa Rosa, being then associated for some time with the Honorable Rolfe L. Thompson, for many years now Associate Justice of the Third District Court of Appeal in Sacramento. Many years ago, Mr. Vitousek took up his residence in Hawaii and at the time of his death was head of one of the outstanding law firms in the islands and devoted many years to the upbuilding of social welfare and the advancement of the islands. He quite frequently visited California where his two sons are now attending Stanford University, and a daughter and sister reside in Los Angeles.

In the passing of Mr. Vitousek, a very valuable citizen has exchanged Time for Eternity, leaving behind a life story enriched with many fine and unselfish accomplishments.

To the many tributes of regard for Mr. Vitousek, the Senate of the State of California in session assembled this April 7, 1947, extends its sincere sympathy to the bereaved widow and family of the late Royal E. Vitousek and does so in full appreciation of his recognized devotion to his family, his service to humanity and the other distinguishing highlights of a well spent life.

The Secretary of the Senate is requested to forward a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Vitousek and the members of the deceased's family.

Resolution read, and adopted by a rising vote of the following Senators:

Senators Breed, Brown, Burns, Busch, Carter, Collier, Crittenden, Cunningham, Desmond, Deuel, Dillinger, Dilworth, Donnelly, Gordon, Hatfield, Jespersen, Judah, Keating, Kraft, Mayo, McBride, McCormack, O'Gara, Parkman, Powers, Quinn, Rich, Salsman, Slater, Sutton, Swing, Tenney, Ward, Watson, Weybret, and Williams—36.

WHEREAS, The formulas set up by the two bills vary in many respects, and are of considerable complexity, involving factors of average daily attendance and taxing ability of the school districts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Legislative Auditor is hereby requested to prepare and submit to the Legislature, at the earliest possible date, a breakdown by separate school districts, showing the relative apportionments provided by each of Senate Bill No. 1368 and Assembly Bill No. 2120.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Senator Hatfield asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following opinion of the Legislative Counsel, regarding quarters for the Legislature, printed in the Journal, in 10-point type.

Opinion of Legislative Counsel

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, April 5, 1947

Quarters for Legislature—No. 3782

Hon. George J. HatfieldSenate Chamber

DEAR SENATOR HATFIELD: You have asked us a series of questions which we will paraphrase as follows:

What can the Legislature do to assure itself that:

(a) The Capitol Annex will be commenced and completed as expeditiously as possible?

(b) The plans and specifications for the Capitol Annex will provide suitable and adequate quarters for the Legislature and its adjuncts?

(c) Adequate space will be provided in the existing Capitol for present needs of the Legislature and its adjuncts?

(a) The Capitol Annex is a part of the state building program provided for by Chapter 145 of the 1946 (First Extraordinary) Session. Section 3 of that act gives a practically absolute priority to the projects for hospitals and institutions for the mentally ill and other wards of the State. Unless this priority is changed by statute, the construction of the annex will await the time that it will not use material or labor which could be devoted to the institution and hospital program.

The priority is given by the following language of Section 3 of the act:

“* * * The Legislature realizes that said Statement of Capital Expenditures Required by State Agencies includes proposals for the expenditure of many, many millions of dollars for projects not designed or calculated to relieve, ameliorate or rectify the intolerably overcrowded and distressed living conditions at our hospitals and other institutions for the care of the mentally ill and other wards of the State, and, therefore, requests and directs the State Public Works Board, in the exercise of its powers and the discharge of its responsibilities under this act, to give prime consideration to the needs of these institutions, and, in making its approvals and in establishing priorities, to do everything within its power to assure prompt rectification of such conditions and to allow or suffer the undertaking of no other project at a time or in a manner or under conditions that will or may impair or retard the expeditious and complete attainment of these objectives for the wards of the State.”

A resolution would be ineffective to modify this priority. However effective a resolution might be to guide the discretion of an administrative board, it obviously can have no effect when, as here, there is no discretion. In any event a resolution has no binding force on anyone other than the members of the house or houses adopting it (Mullen vs. State, 114 Cal. 578).

(b) We believe it would be proper to provide for an interim committee of the Legislature to work with and advise the State Architect in the preparation of plans and specifications for the Capitol Annex. We believe that a statute for this purpose would be preferable to a resolution. Our theory is that in providing quarters for itself the Legislature would be performing a legislative function. We have no doubt that if the present Capitol were destroyed, the Legislature could provide itself with quarters without reference to the Executive Branch of the State Government. Furthermore, the Legislative Branch of the Government knows its needs and what provision should be made to satisfy them better than any other branch.

Our reason for preferring a statute to a resolution is the case of Parker vs. Riley (1941), 18 Cal. (2d) 83, holding valid the creation of the California Commission on Interstate Cooperation on the ground that the functions of the legislator members were legislative in nature. We believe that somewhat broader power than merely investigating can be conferred by a statute. The constitutional provision authorizing the creation of interim investigating committees (Sec. 37, Art. IV) amply authorizes investigations but nothing else.

(c) The allotment of space in the existing State Capitol is under the jurisdiction of the Department of Finance. (Sec. 13160, Gov. C.) The Director of Finance would probably make an effort to comply with a resolution requesting him to provide more space for the Legislature and its adjuncts. The Legislature undoubtedly has power to provide by statute who shall and who shall not occupy the Capitol. Such a statute could be made an urgency measure as it would not involve changing the duties of the Director of Finance but simply direct him in exercising powers already vested in him.

Inasmuch as providing more space for the Legislature involves moving somebody out of the building and probably crowding one of the other buildings, we believe a statute could get better results than any resolution that could be drafted.

We are enclosing copies of Assembly Bills Nos. 1153, 2522, and 2528 which bear on the subject and which may have some suggestive value. From the standpoint of administration, Assembly Bill No. 2522 has the advantage of definiteness, inasmuch as it specifies who moves and who does not. Inasmuch as moving anyone out may involve crowding some place else, you might want to consider permitting the temporary, but only temporary, occupation of the vacated offices while the Legislature is not in session.

Very truly yours

By JOSEPH W. PAULUCCI, Deputy

Such bond, moneys, or securities shall first be approved by the commission and upon the written order of the commission be deposited with the State Treasurer for the purpose herein specified. and each of the claimant's base period employers shall be promptly notified of such computation.

(c) Upon the receipt of any notice as provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the employer, employing unit, or claimant so notified may protest the accuracy of the computation and shall inform the department of any facts which may affect the claimant's entitlement to benefits.

(d) Subsequent to the receipt of any notice as provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, an employer or employing unit acquiring information which may affect the claimant's entitlement to benefits and which could not reasonably have been known when notification as hereinbefore provided was received, shall inform the department thereof.

(e) A determination shall be promptly made whenever an employer, employing unit, or the claimant protests the computation or submits information pursuant to subsections (c) and (d) of this section. The claimant and such employer or employing unit shall be notified of the determination and may appeal therefrom to a referee within seven days from mailing or personal service of the determination, whichever is the later, provided that said seven day limitation may be extended for good cause.

(f) A determination as to the entitlement of the claimant for benefits may be made upon the initiative of the department at any time. If benefits are denied for any week pursuant to such determination, the claimant shall be promptly notified of the denial and the reasons therefor and may appeal therefrom in the manner provided in subsection (e) hereof. If such determination allows benefits for any week contrary to a previous determination made upon information submitted by an employer or employing unit pursuant to subsection (e) of this section, that employer or employing unit shall be promptly notified of the determination and the reasons therefor and may appeal therefrom in the manner provided in subsection (e) of this section.

(g) Any computation or determination provided for in this section may be reconsidered by the department upon a showing of good cause. Notification of any reconsidered determination shall be given to the claimant and any employer or employing unit which received notification of the determination being reconsidered, and may appeal therefrom in the manner provided herein for appeals from other determinations.

(h) Notices, protests, and information required under this section shall be made pursuant to authorized regulations.

SEC. 11. Section 68 is added to said act, to read:

Sec. 68. A referee after affording a reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall, unless such appeal is withdrawn, affirm, reverse, or modify the determination. The claimant and any employer or employing unit becoming a party to the appeal by submitting a protest or information pursuant to Section 67 shall be duly notified of the referee's decision, together with his reasons therefor, which decision shall be deemed to be final, unless within 10 days after mailing of such decision, further appeal is initiated to the Appeals Board pursuant to Section 72 of this act; provided that said 10 day limitation may be extended for good cause.

Sec. 12. Section 68.1 is added to said act, to read:

Sec. 68.1. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to the period prior to the final decision on the appeal shall be paid only after such decision, except as hereinafter provided. If benefits for any week are payable in accordance with a determination by the department irrespective of the decision on the issues set forth in the appeal, such benefits shall be promptly paid regardless of such appeal. If a referee affirms a determination allowing benefits, such benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, and regardless of any action taken under Section 72 of this act or otherwise by the commission, Appeals Board, or other administrative body or by any court; but if such determination is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid as to each determination so reversed."

This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

A number of cities in California have voted bonds to pay for playgrounds, swimming pools, athletic fields and other recreational facilities and have other funds available for such purposes. Titles to some lands available as sites for such installations are in a state of confusion by virtue of past transactions by the cities and school districts and among school districts. Serious question has arisen as to whether city bond funds may be expended lawfully on lands owned by a school district.

By giving immediate effect to this measure cities will be able to start construction of these recreational facilities at once and have them available for use by school children and adults by the summer of 1947 instead of having to delay such construction until the spring of 1948.

The early operation of these facilities will promote the health and welfare of the inhabitants of many communities in California and will reduce juvenile delinquency therein."

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Senator Ward asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following opinions of the Legislative Counsel relative to the power of the Public Utilities Commission to regulate train crews printed in the Journal in 10-point type:

Opinions of Legislative Counsel

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, April 14, 1947

Power of Public Utilities Commission to Regulate Train Crews, No. 3980

Hon. Byrl R. Salsman

Senate Chamber

DEAR SENATOR SALSMAN: Referring to Senate Bill No. 580, as amended in Senate February 4, 1947, you have asked whether the Public Utilities Commission has power under the Public Utilities Act (DA 6383) to require additional brakemen on a train, over and above the minimum fixed by the bill, where public interest requires additional personnel.

In our opinion the Public Utilities Commission clearly has power to regulate the number of brakemen required on a train operating in California, and it may, after hearing pursuant to Section 42 of the Public Utilities Act, order the use of additional brakemen on a train, over the minimum required by Senate Bill No. 580.

Section 22, Article XII of the California Constitution grants the Legislature authority to confer powers upon the commission in addition to the direct constitutional grant, which conferred powers are consistent with those constitutionally granted. Section 23 of Article XII further provides that the commission shall have and exercise such powers and jurisdiction to supervise and regulate public utilities as shall be conferred upon it by the Legislature.

Section 42 of the Public Utilities Act (DA 6386) is a direct grant of power to the commission under the constitutional authority of the Legislature. This section provides that:

"The commission shall have power * * * to require every public utility to construct, maintain and operate its line, plant, system equipment, tracks and premises in such manner as to promote and safeguard the health and safety of its employees, passengers, customers and the public * * *."

The California Supreme Court in holding an ordinance of the City of Los Angeles invalid, declared that a regulation by the commission authorizing the operation of one-man street cars within the city is clearly within the power vested in the commission by the Constitution and the Public Utilities Act. Los Angeles Ry. vs. City of Los Angeles (1940) 16 Cal. (2d) 779, at page 787. (See also cases cited therein.)

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, April 10, 1947

Power of Public Utilities Commission to Prescribe Minimum
Train Crews—No. 3863

Hon. Clarence C. Ward
Senate Chamber

DEAR SENATOR WARD: In your letter of April 8th, you asked for an opinion as to whether the Legislature under Section 22, Article XII of the California Constitution by the enactment of Section 42 of the Public Utilities Act, empowered the Public Utilities Commission to make an order directing the use of more than two brakemen on a train of more than 49 freight cars operating in this State.

In stating your request, you assume (1) the passage of Senate Bill No. 580 which proposes the repeal of certain provisions of the Labor Code which require more than two brakemen on freight trains in excess of 49 cars operating in California, and (2) that the Public Utilities Commission after hearing pursuant to Section 42 of the Public Utilities Act, determines that the safety of railroad employees, passengers, or the public requires more than two brakemen on such a train.

In our opinion, there is no doubt that the Public Utilities Commission has been empowered to make such an order as that suggested, by virtue of the enactment of Section 42 of the Public Utilities Act.

Section 22, Article XII of the California Constitution grants to the Legislature authority to confer powers upon the commission in addition to the direct constitutional grant, which conferred powers are consistent with those constitutionally granted, and the authority of the Legislature to confer additional powers is expressly declared to be plenary and unlimited. Section 23 of Article XII further provides that the commission shall have and exercise such power and jurisdiction to supervise and regulate public utilities as shall be conferred upon it by the Legislature.

Section 42 is a direct grant of power to the commission under the constitutional authority of the Legislature. This section provides that:

"The commission shall have power * * * to require every public utility to construct, maintain and operate its line, plant, system, equipment, tracks and premises in such manner as to promote and safeguard the health and safety of its employees, passengers, customers and the public * * *."

A railroad is a public utility. (Sec. 23, Art. XII, Const.)

Analysis of the Constitution and the provisions of Section 42 of the Public Utilities Act leads inevitably to the conclusion that the commission may, after hearing, determine that more than two brakemen are required for the safety of employees and the public, on a freight train of more than 49 cars and order the use of additional brakemen on such a train. (Los Angeles Ry. vs. Los Angeles, 16 Cal. (2d) 779).

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Senator Breed asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following statement of the Director of Public Works, relative to Senate Bill No. 917, printed in the Journal in 10-point type :

Statement of Director of Public Works

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

SACRAMENTO, April 11, 1947

Hon. Arthur H. Breed, Jr.

Member of the Senate

State Capitol, Sacramento, California

Re: Senate Bill No. 917, Regular Session

MY DEAR SENATOR: Pursuant to your verbal request, I am writing to advise in respect to the manner in which the moneys appropriated from the State Highway Fund for construction of approaches on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge will be repaid to the State Highway Fund, under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 917 as amended in Senate April 9, 1947.

The situation to which your question relates is as follows:

By Chapter 5 of the Statutes of 1933, the sum of $6,600,000 was appropriated for expenditure for construction of the approaches to the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. Provision was made that the amount expended should be charged against moneys available for construction in County Group No. 1 (northern counties).

By Chapter 24 of the Statutes of 1933, the Legislature provided that collection of tolls should be continued after retirement of bonds until the expenditure under Chapter 5 had been repaid to the State Highway Fund and credited to the portion of the fund from which it was taken.

Of the $6,600,000 appropriated the sum of $6,288,550.41 was actually expended for the construction of the approaches.

The repayment of the said sum will be made under one of the two following alternative procedures:

(a) If a new bond issue is sold under the California Toll Bridge Authority Act as proposed to be amended, before the said sum has been repaid to the State Highway Fund, it will be repaid out of the first bonds sold. See proposed Section 30608, Streets and Highways Code, as added by Senate Bill 917, as amended in Senate April 9, 1947, page 2, lines 22 to 36, inclusive;

(b) If there is no bond issue before the said sum has been repaid, it will, under the existing law, be repaid out of the continued collection of tolls after the presently outstanding bonds have been retired.

I may say that it is our intention in the financing of any second bridge, to provide for the immediate repayment of the said sum of $6,288,550.41. I am advised that Senate Bill 917, as amended, guarantees this.

Very truly yours,

C. H. PURCELL
Director of Public Works

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Senator Quinn asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following opinion of the Legislative Counsel, relative to Senate Bill No. 917, printed in the Journal in 10-point type:

Opinion of Legislative Counsel

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Senate Bill No. 917—San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge—No. 3958

Hon. Irwin T. Quinn
Senate Chamber

DEAR SENATOR QUINN: We have your request for an analysis of Senate Bill No. 917, as amended in Senate April 9, 1947, relative to the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

The bill provides that the cost of constructing the approaches and of maintaining and operating the bridge and approaches, including insurance (except insurance against loss of revenue) and the cost of compliance with orders of any governmental agency, shall be paid by the Department of Public Works out of funds available to the department other than bond proceeds or tolls so long as any bonds or other obligations are unpaid.

An exception to this is made if bonds are issued for the double purpose of refunding outstanding bonds of the existing bridge and constructing a new bridge or other highway crossing, in which case the California Toll Bridge Authority may provide for the payment of the costs of operation and insurance from the tolls or other revenues. (Section 30605, Streets and Highways Code.)

Section 30606 provides that the department shall pay for the operation and maintenance of the bridge and approaches and costs of insurance and compliance with orders of a governmental agency from funds appropriated for the construction of highways in Group 1 (Northern California) counties.

If an additional bridge or other highway crossing is constructed and the department determines to pay the costs of operation and insurance from tolls (as provided in the exception in Section 30605), the expenditures shall be made only for the physical maintenance of the bridges or other highway crossings.

The bill further provides that in any new bond proceedings to refund or retire existing indebtedness of the bridge there shall be included a sum sufficient to reimburse the State for the $6,288,550.41 advanced in 1933 for cost of constructing the approaches, and this sum shall be repaid from the bond proceeds to the State Highway Fund, to be expended on highway construction in Group 1 counties for the purposes for which the money was originally appropriated (Section 30608, Streets and Highways Code).

The bill is mainly a reenactment of existing law, except that in any new bond proceedings the payment of operation and insurance may be made from the tolls and revenues of the bridges, if a new bridge or other crossing is constructed. This cost of operation is restricted to physical maintenance.

The existing provisions for the return of the $6,288,550.41 to the use of Group 1 counties is protected and repayment provided for in any bond refunding or retirement proceedings.

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel

By JOSEPH L. KNOWLES, Deputy

Copies to authors pursuant to Joint Rule No. 34.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Senators Hatfield and Crittenden:

Senate Resolution No. 74

Relative to the prices of fluid milk and fluid cream

WHEREAS, The Agricultural Code provides that the Director of Agriculture shall prescribe or provide methods for prescribing the minimum prices to be paid by distributors of fluid milk and fluid cream to the producers thereof in such parts of the State as are or may be designated as marketing areas; and

WHEREAS, The method of payment prescribed for fluid milk has been based solely upon the milk fat content thereof, with no consideration as to solids-not-fat content thereof; and

WHEREAS, It has been represented to the Senate Standing Committee on Agriculture that the milk produced from certain breeds of dairy cattle, particularly the Holstein-Friesian, is relatively low in milk-fat but relatively high in solids-not-fat, and that the method of payment prescribed disregards the values of the milk attributable to the solids-not-fat; and

WHEREAS, It has been represented to said committee that establishing the price of fluid milk solely on a milk-fat basis results in discrimination against the producers with cattle producing low milk-fat milk in that they receive no compensation for, and in effect make the distributors a gift of, the additional values attributable to the solids-not-fat, which then can be used and sold by the distributors in a variety of forms with a definite cash value; and

WHEREAS, It has been represented to said committee that in the great majority of the marketing areas within the United States the prices for fluid milk are based upon a method which gives consideration to all of the values in such milk and that such method is the only fair and equitable method for fixing such prices; and

WHEREAS, It has also been represented to said committee the Legislature of this State for years has prescribed by law the minimum milk fat requirements for fluid milk, thereby indicating that the consuming public desire that milk be relatively rich in milk-fat and encouraging milk producers to use the breeds of dairy cattle producing milk with a high milk-fat content; and

WHEREAS, It was further represented to said committee that the dairy industry is of vital importance to the State and that the basic price of fluid milk affects not only that product but a great number of other dairy products; and

WHEREAS, It is apparent that the problem is extremely complex and is one that requires study and research in order to understand all of the relevant factors required to be considered; and

WHEREAS, The method now in effect in California is determined by the Director of Agriculture and no legislation is required to authorize him to adopt a new method if it is desirable to do so; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Director of Agriculture is hereby requested to make an investigation of the methods of establishing minimum prices for fluid milk, and particularly methods based upon solids-not-fat as well as milk-fat, and, if he determines that some method other than the one now in effect is more just and equitable to take such steps as may be necessary to put such other method into operation in the several marketing areas within this State; and be it further

Resolved, That the College of Agriculture of the University of California through the research department of said college is requested to cooperate with and assist the Director of Agriculture in his investigations and studies pursuant to this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Director of Agriculture is requested to report to the Senate within five days after the convening of the 1948 Regular Session of the Legislature as to his activities pursuant to this resolution and the results thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Agriculture of the State of California, the President of the University of California, and the Dean of the College of Agriculture of the University of California.

Resolution read, and, on motion of Senator Hatfield, adopted.

NOTICE OF A MOTION

Senator Hatfield gave notice that on Friday, April 18, 1947, he will move that Senate Bill No. 344 be taken from the inactive file, and placed on the second reading file.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Senator Hatfield asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following analysis relative to Senate Bill No. 344 printed in the Journal in 10-point type:

ANALYSIS OF CHANGES EFFECTED BY SENATE BILL NO. 344, AS AMENDED APRIL 1, 1947, FROM EXISTING PROVISIONS OF CHAPTERS 1 TO 6, INCLUSIVE, DIVISION 4, AGRICULTURAL CODE

This bill rearranges the provisions of Chapters 1 to 6, Division 4, Agricultural Code, into 10 new chapters, all sections affected receiving a new number except Sections 499 and 500.

This analysis relates only to changes in substance made by the bill. Purely verbal changes, changes in cross-references made necessary by the changes in section numbers, and restatements without change in effect are disregarded. However, when there is any question whether or not a substantive change is intended by a particular provision, it is included herein.

The first number in a paragraph is that of the section or part of section in the bill followed by its source in the present law in parentheses, or by an indication that it is new. Where a change can be shown more graphically by strikeout and underline that method is followed.

Throughout the bill any reference to sheep's milk is deleted. "Department" is changed to "director" and "cubic centimeter" to "milliliter." Inasmuch as "milk" is redefined to include milk from goats, "goat's milk" is frequently deleted, and reference to "cows" expanded to include goats. These changes are not included in this analysis.

Abbreviations

Subd.-----subdivision of section.
Sent.-----sentence of section.
Para.-----paragraph of section.

The term director means Director of Agriculture. "Specifies" means that the provision put into the law is there already by implication. "Deletes specification" means that what is taken out is still covered by implication.

442, subd. (d) (445, subd. (b)) "~~Examine and, inspect, test or by other means determine the health of cows and exclude reacting animals from the herds animals the milk from which is unfit for human consumption.~~"

443 (453) Provides for condemnation of milk or cream that is "tainted" as well as that which is impure, unclean, adulterated or unwholesome. (Note—Present Sec. 641 prohibits sale, etc. of tainted milk or cream).

Present law prohibits destruction of condemned milk or cream until 12 hours after producer is notified. Bill requires producer to request return of milk or cream at his expense immediately upon notification.

445 (454) Provides that no samples of test need be given accused when taken for proof of fraudulent manipulation of test for the basis of payment for, rather than milk fat or bacteria count in, milk or cream.

446 (455, except subd. (b)) Specifies that director may adopt score cards for milk products plants.

447 (661) Requires, rather than permits, director to compile and publish dairy industry statistics. Deletes provision for charging for publications.

448 (662, 1st para.) Requires monthly, rather than annual, reports from milk products plants and distributors. Authorizes director to require reports annually, semiannually, or quarterly.

450 (466, subds. (a) (b) (e)) Expands definitions of milk to apply to milk from goats as well as that from cows. Deletes definition of sheep's milk. Specifies that milk is unadulterated lacteal secretion of cows or goats. Prohibits using, as well as obtaining, milk for human consumption for certain periods before or after parturition.

Deletes provision that milk must contain at least 8.15 percent solids not fat and for stabilization at not less than 3 percent milk fat. (Note—These provisions appear, with modification as to milk fat, in standards for market milk—460 (476 . . .) below.)

451 (476, 1st and 4th sents. of subd. (a)) Market milk defined as that supplied consumer in "the natural fluid state or prepared for human consumption without being converted into another form or product." (Note—Restores this provision to way it read prior to amendment by Ch. 611, Stats. 1945.)

460 (476, subd. (a), 2d and 3d sents.) Redefines market milk. Reduces maximum bacteria count for raw milk from 25,000 to 15,000, for milk prior to pasteurization from 100,000 to 75,000 per milliliter, retaining present maximum of 14,000 for pasteurized milk at time of delivery.

Establishes cooling requirements. Raw milk to be cooled to 50 degrees F. or below and so maintained until delivery to consumer. Market milk delivered for pasteurization need not be cooled to 50 degrees F. or below if it arrives at the milk products plant within four hours after production if it meets bacteria standard and is so cooled immediately upon arrival or if separation or pasteurization commences immediately.

Increases minimum fat content from 3.3 to 3.5 percent. Retains present minimum of 8.15 percent of solids not fat.

- 461 (476, subd. (b)) Bottles and containers. Requires that skim milk, buttermilk, and cultured buttermilk, as well as market milk, for retail trade to be in bottles or containers. Expands prohibition against transferring milk outside of milk room or place where served to include all such products.
- 463 (478) Bottling. Requires representative of inspection service to be "present" rather than "maintained" when raw and pasteurized market milk are bottled in same plant, unless all milk received is Grade A.
- 464 (479) Serving of market milk. Expands to require that seal of container, as well as cap of bottle, be removed in presence of customer or patron, and to make provision applicable to all places where food or drink is sold to public, and to schools and hospitals.
- 467 (483, subd. (a)) Guaranteed raw milk. Deletes minimum milk fat requirement of 3.5 percent—rendered unnecessary by increase of required fat content of market milk.
- 468 (483, subd. (b)) Guaranteed pasteurized milk. Requires bottling at place where produced—same as guaranteed raw milk.
- 469 (484, subd. (a)) Grade A raw. Permits determination of health of cows by any method, rather than only "by physical examination."
- 470 (484, subd. (b)) Grade A pasteurized. Makes same changes as 469 above. Adds cooling requirements same as for market milk—see 460 above.
- 471 (New) Homogenized market milk.
- 472 (New) Homogenized market cream.
- 473 (New) Requires homogenized market milk and cream to be so labeled. Prohibits mixing with market milk or cream.
- 474 (New) Half and half.
- 475 (New) Labeling of market cream.
- 477 (486) Degrading or excluding milk for market milk for low score on score card. Permits mailing in lieu of giving copy of notice to distributor or processor who buys such milk.
- 478 (New) Degrading or excluding for high bacteria count. Provides procedure for recounts.
- 482 (488) Milk bottle caps and labels. Prohibits use, as well as sale, of caps unless properly packaged.

- 483 (489) Grade designations. Provides maximum bacteria count for market cream shall be not more than twice, rather than three times, that for corresponding grade of milk.
- 484 (664) "~~All vehicles from which market milk, cream, butter, ice cream, buttermilk or ice milk and milk products are regularly sold; and marketed; delivered or peddled; shall have the name and address of the owner distributor plainly lettered thereon in letters at least three inches high; and one and a half inches wide, on both sides of such vehicle.~~"

- 490 (496) Approved milk inspection services. The last paragraph is amended to read:

No provision of this division; ~~except subdivision (b) of Section 498, or any rule and regulation of the director is shall be~~ a limitation on the power of a municipality or county to ~~provide for reasonable additional regulations not in conflict therewith requiring standards higher than the minimum requirements for the grades of market milk established in this division; but any municipal or county ordinance or regulation requiring higher~~ require that all market milk sold therein shall be pasteurized market milk, nor a limitation against ordinances requiring the protection of the pouring lips of standard milk bottles and single service containers nor a limitation on ordinances which prescribe minimum standards for milk fat and solids not fat higher than those established in this division ~~shall apply only to~~ in market milk after standardization by a ~~milk~~ distributor.

(Note—Effect of this section in present law and in the bill is to limit local legislation to legislation on the subjects specified. The State having occupied the field of milk regulation, the local governmental agencies may legislate only within the field relinquished to such regulation by the provisions of the section.)

- 492 (498) Specifies that minimum construction standards apply to extensive repairs to existing market milk dairy farms as well as new ones. Retains provision that buildings need not be rebuilt unless owner is making repairs to extent of 75 percent of value of existing buildings.
- 501 (New) Provides for designation of milk inspection service to inspect dairy farms when milk produced in a county is sold within the jurisdiction of one or more inspection services.
- 502 (501, subd. (b)) Expands provision for protest of designation of milk inspection service to include reference to new 501. Deletes grounds for protest. Authorizes milk inspection service, rather than health officer, to file protests, retaining provision for protest by producer or distributor.
- 503 (500, subd. (c)) Milk inspection service fees. Deletes reference to inspection fees, provides for collection from distributors only. Distributor to pay inspection service under supervision of which his plant operates and the service which inspects dairy farms all of the milk from which goes direct to distributor operating plant in jurisdiction of another inspection service.

- 505 (500, subd. (e)) Specifies that inspection services shall enforce provisions of code in accordance with rules and regulations of director pertaining to market milk.
- 506 (500.5, 1st para.) Provides that when permit is issued by milk inspection service designated by director no other permit shall be required of producer or milk products plant by another milk inspection service.
- (508) (New) Requires distributor selling in another jurisdiction to register with and furnish the inspection service therein with evidence that permit is in effect. To be done at least 48 hours before sale or distribution of milk in such other jurisdiction.
- 515 (631 and 634) Pasteurization defined. Deletes specification that purpose of pasteurization is to eliminate harmful organisms, confining definition to description of process. Recasts provision for use of other process to require demonstration of efficiency, rather than only investigation, and approval of director.
- 518 (New) Authorizes repasteurization of pasteurized skim milk from market milk used in standardizing pasteurized market milk.
- 520 (635, 2d para.) Thermometer records. Deletes provision for delivering records to health officers, etc. in lieu of preserving them.
- 528 (642) Deletes from provision prohibiting sale, etc. of milk produced or handled under unsanitary conditions, prohibition against sale, etc. of milk of animals affected by any disease.
- 529 (466, subd. (f)) Deletes provision that milk is unfit for human consumption if it does not meet standards for milk.
- 531 (647) Requires conveyances transporting milk or cream or clean empty containers and shipping platforms, etc. where containers are held to be afforded protection from contamination. Deletes specification that conveyances etc. must be enclosed or provided with canvas covers and protected from direct rays of sun, warm air, dust, mud, and other sources of contamination. Deletes provision that containers of milk or cream shall be handled carefully and kept right end up when containing milk or cream.

SEC. 6. Section 6701 of the said code is amended to read:

6701. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to insure compliance with this part, may require any person subject thereto to deposit with it such security as the board may determine. The amount of the security shall be fixed by the board but shall not be greater than twice the [person's] estimated average liability [for the period for which he files returns] of persons filing returns for quarterly periods or three times the estimated average liability of persons required to file returns for monthly periods, determined in such manner as the board deems proper, or ten thousand dollars ($10,000), whichever amount is the lesser. The amount of the security may be increased or decreased by the board subject to the limitations herein provided. The board may sell the security at public auction if it becomes necessary so to do in order to recover any tax or any amount required to be collected, interest, or penalty due. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person who deposited the security personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made in the manner prescribed for service of a notice of a deficiency determination and shall be addressed to the person at his address as it appears in the records of the board. Security in the form of a bearer bond issued by the United States or the State of California which has a prevailing market price may, however, be sold by the board at private sale at a price not lower than the prevailing market price thereof. Upon any sale any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

SEC. 7. Section 6902 of the said code is amended to read:

6902. No refund shall be allowed unless a claim therefor is filed with the board within three years from the [fifteenth day after] last day of the month following the close of the quarterly period for which the overpayment was made, or, with respect to determinations made under Articles 2 or 3 of Chapter 5 of this part, within six months after the determinations become final, or within six months from the date of overpayment, whichever period expires the later. No credit shall be allowed after the expiration of the period specified for filing claims for refund unless a claim for credit is filed with the board within such period, or unless the credit relates to a period for which a waiver is given pursuant to Section 6488.

SEC. 8. Section 6907 of the said code is amended to read:

6907. Interest shall be paid upon any overpayment of any amount of tax at the rate of one-half of 1 percent per month from the [fifteenth] last day of the calendar month following the quarterly period for which the overpayment was made; but no refund or credit shall be made of any interest imposed upon the claimant with respect to the amount being refunded or credited.

The interest shall be paid:

(a) In the case of a refund, to the fifteenth day of the calendar month following the date upon which the claimant, if he has not already filed a claim, is notified by the board that a claim may be filed or the date upon which the claim is certified to the State Board of Control, whichever date is the earlier.

(b) In the case of a credit, to the same date as that to which interest is computed on the tax or amount against which the credit is applied.

SEC. 9. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State shall, under the provisions of Section 1, Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately; provided, however, that the provisions hereof shall become operative on July 1, 1947."

Bill read second time.

Motion to Amend

Senator Desmond moved the adoption of the following amendments:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "Section 13", and insert "Sections 1 and 57".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out lines 1 to 31, inclusive, and insert "Section 1 of the Social Unemployment Act is amended to read:

Section 1. As a guide to the interpretation and application of this act the public policy of this State is declared as follows:

Experience has shown that large numbers of the population of California do not enjoy permanent employment by reason of which their purchasing power is unstable. This is detrimental to the interests of the people of California as a whole.

The benefit to all persons resulting from public and private enterprise is realized in the final consumption of goods and services. It is contrary to public policy to permit the supply of consumption goods and services at prices which do not provide against that harm to the population consequent upon periods of unemployment of those who contribute to the production and distribution of such goods and services.

Experience has shown that private charity and local relief cannot alone prevent the effects of unemployment. Experience has shown that if the State awaits the coming of excessive unemployment it can neither create immediately the organization necessary to orderly, economical and effective relief nor bear the financial burden of relief without disrupting its whole system of ordinary revenues and without jeopardizing its credit.

The Legislature therefore declares that in its considered judgment the public good and the general welfare of the citizens of the State require the enactment of this measure under the policy power of the State, for the compulsory setting aside of funds to be used for a System of Unemployment Insurance providing benefits for persons unemployed through no fault of their own, and to reduce involuntary unemployment and the suffering caused thereby to a minimum.

It is the intent of the Legislature that persons involuntarily unemployed shall be required to make all reasonable effort to secure employment on their own behalf.

SEC. 2. Section 57 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 57. An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the commission finds that:

(a) A claim for benefits with respect to such week has been made in accordance with such regulations as the commission may prescribe.

(b) He has registered for work, and thereafter continued to report, at a public employment office or such other place as the commission may approve, except that either or both of the requirements of this subdivision may be waived or altered by authorized regulation as to partially employed individuals attached to regular jobs.

(c) He was able to work and available for work for such week.

(d) He has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week. No week shall be counted as a week of unemployment for the purposes of this subsection:

(1) Unless it occurs within the benefit year which includes the week with respect to which he claims payment of benefits; provided, that this requirement shall not interrupt the payment of benefits for consecutive weeks of unemployment; and provided, further, that the week immediately preceding a benefit year, if part of one uninterrupted period of unemployment which continues into such benefit year shall be deemed (for the purposes of this subsection only) to be within such benefit year as well as within the preceding benefit year.

(2) If benefits have been paid with respect thereto.

(3) Unless the individual was eligible for benefits with respect thereto in all respects, except for the requirements of this subsection (d) and Section 53.

(e) He has during his base year been paid wages for employment by employers of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) ; provided, however, that if more than 75 percent of his base-period wages were paid during a single calendar quarter, he shall not be eligible for benefits unless his total wages, during the base period are not less than 30 times his weekly benefit amount.

(f) He has made such effort to seek work on his own behalf as may be required in accordance with such regulations as the commission shall prescribe."

Amendments read, and adopted.

Amendment No. 1

Strike out the title, the enacting clause, and the entire text appearing on pages 1 to 10, inclusive, of the printed bill, and insert

"An act relating to insurance, adding Article 19 to Chapter 1, Part 2, Division 1 of the Insurance Code, comprising Sections 1120 to 1139.5, inclusive, amending Section 1282 of said code, regulating the making and use of rates, and granting insurers and rating and other organizations formed to serve insurers in connection with the making or use of rates certain immunities from prosecution under other laws which do not specifically relate to insurance.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 19 is added to Chapter 1, Part 2, Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 19. Rates and Rating and Other Organizations

1120. The purpose of this article is to promote the public welfare by regulating insurance rates as herein provided to the end that they shall not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory, to authorize the existence and operation of qualified rating organizations and advisory organizations and require that the rates and rating manuals of such rating organizations be generally available to all admitted insurers, and to authorize cooperation between insurers in rate making and other related matters.

It is the express intent of this article to permit and encourage competition between insurers on a sound financial basis and nothing in this act is intended to give the Commissioner of Insurance the power to fix and determine a rate level by classification or otherwise as adequate for all insurers, or to directly or indirectly fix minimum rates as applicable to all insurers.

1121. As used in this article:

(a) "Rate" means the unit charge by which the measure of exposure or the amount of insurance specified in a policy of insurance or covered thereunder is multiplied to determine the premium or the elements and factors forming the basis for such determination, or either of them. If the premium is not based upon a rate, "rate" means the premium.

(b) "Premium" means the consideration paid or to be paid to an insurer for insurance coverage.

(c) "Rating system":

As applied to casualty insurance, means every system or manual of classifications, rules and rates, every rating plan, and any modification of any of the foregoing for the determination of rates applicable to such insurance. Every such rating system shall include the character and extent of the coverage contemplated.

As applied to fire insurance, means every schedule, class rate or rating plan, by whatever name described, used in determining or ascertaining a rate for such insurance and includes tariffs, general basis schedules embodying basic rates, charges, credits, terms, conditions, permits, standards, rules of procedure for operation relating to the foregoing and other data necessary to the computation and application of rates.

(d) "Rate making" or "making of rates" is the development of rates or rating systems for application to individual risks or the determination of class rates or the elements or factors of a rating plan or schedule.

(e) "Rating organization" means every corporation, unincorporated association, partnership, or individual, other than an admitted insurer, whether located within or outside this State, which has as its or his object or purpose the making of rates or rating systems. No insurer acting alone and not in concert with others shall be deemed to be a rating organization.

(f) "Advisory organization" means every corporation, unincorporated association, partnership or individual, other than an admitted insurer, whether located within or outside this State, which prepares policy forms, makes underwriting rules, surveys or inspections incident to but not including the making of rates or rating systems, or which collects and furnishes to admitted insurers or rating organizations loss or expense statistics or other statistical information and data and acts in an advisory as distinguished from a rate-making capacity. No duly authorized attorney at law acting in the usual course of his profession shall be deemed to be an advisory organization.

(g) "Member," unless otherwise apparent from the context, means an insurer who participates in or is entitled to participate in the management of a rating, advisory or other organization.

(h) "Subscriber," unless otherwise apparent from the context, means an insurer which is furnished at its request, (1) rating services by a rating organization of which it is not a member, or (2) advisory services by an advisory organization of which it is not a member.

(i) "Casualty insurance" means all forms of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable and which are included within Sections 105, 107, 108, 110, 112, 114, 115, and, when written by insurers not admitted to transact fire or marine insurance, Sections 111, 116, and 120.

(j) "Fire insurance" means all forms of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable and which are included within Sections 102, 103, 114, 115, and, when written by insurers admitted to transact fire or marine insurance, Sections 111, 116, and 120.

(k) Wilful or wilfully, in relation to an act or omission which constitutes a violation of this article, means with actual knowledge or belief that such act or omission constitutes such violation and with specific intent to commit such violation.

1122. The provisions of this article shall apply to all insurance on risks or on operations in this State, except:

(b) Life insurance.
(c) Insurance of vessels or craft, their cargoes, marine builders' risks, marine protection and indemnity, or other risks commonly insured under marine, as distinguished from inland marine, insurance policies. As used herein, inland marine insurance shall be deemed to include insurance now or hereafter defined by statute, or by interpretation thereof, or if not so defined or interpreted, by ruling of the commissioner or as established by general custom of the business, as inland marine insurance.

(d) Title insurance.
(e) Disability insurance.
(f) Workmen's compensation and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith.

(g) Credit insurance.
(h) Mortgage insurance.
(i) Aircraft insurance, including insurance against loss arising out of the ownership, operation, maintenance or use of aircraft and resulting from liability for damage to property or property interests of others or from liability for accident or physical injury, fatal or nonfatal, to any natural person.

1123. The following standards shall apply to the making and the use of rates pertaining to all classes of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable:

(1) Rates shall not be excessive or inadequate nor shall they be unfairly discriminatory.

No rate shall be held to be excessive unless (a) such rate is unreasonably high for the insurance provided and (b) a reasonable degree of competition does not exist in the area with respect to the classification to which such rate is applicable.

No rate shall be held to be inadequate unless (a) such rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided and (b) the continued use of such rate will endanger the solvency of the insurer so using same, or (c) such rate has the effect of destroying or unduly restraining competition.

(2) Consideration shall be given to the extent applicable, to past and prospective loss experience within and outside this State, to conflagration and catastrophe hazards, to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies, to past and prospective expenses both country-wide and those specially applicable to this State, and to all other factors, including judgment factors, deemed relevant within and outside this State; and in the case of fire insurance rates, consideration may be given to the experience of the fire insurance business during the most recent five-year period for which such experience is available.

Consideration may also be given in the making and use of rates to dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members or subscribers.

(3) The systems of expense provisions included in the rates for use by any insurer or group of insurers may differ from those of other insurers or groups of insurers to reflect the operating methods of any such insurer or group with respect to any kind of insurance, or with respect to any subdivision or combination thereof.

(4) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both. Such standards may measure any difference among risks that have a probable effect upon losses or expenses. Classifications or modifications of classifications of risks may be established based upon size, expense, management, individual experience, location or dispersion of hazard, or any other reasonable considerations. Such classifications and modifications shall apply to all risks under the same or substantially the same circumstances or conditions.

1124. With respect to any matters pertaining to the making of rates or rating systems, the preparation or making of insurance policy or bond forms, underwriting rules, surveys, inspections and investigations, the furnishing of loss or expense statistics or other information and data or carrying on of research, two or more admitted insurers having a common ownership or operating in this State under common management or control, and, to the extent that such matters relate to co-surety bonds, two or more admitted insurers executing such bonds, are hereby authorized to act in concert between or among themselves the same as if they constituted a single insurer.

1125. Rates and rating systems made or adopted by licensed rating organizations and conforming to the requirements and standards of this article applicable thereto and any modifications thereof and amendments thereto which also conform to such requirements, may be used subject to such requirements by any admitted insurer.

1126. Except as provided in Sections 1124 and 1128, insurers shall not agree with each other or with rating organizations or others to adhere to rates, rating systems, underwriting rules or policy or bond forms. The fact, however, that two or more admitted insurers use, either consistently or intermittently, the rates and rating systems made or adopted by a rating organization, or the underwriting rules or policy or bond forms upon which such rates and rating systems are predicated, shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding that an agreement to so adhere exists, and may be used only for the purpose of supplementing or explaining direct evidence of the existence of any such agreement.

1127. Licensed rating organizations and admitted insurers are authorized to exchange information and experience data with rating organizations and insurers in this and other states and may consult with them with respect to rate-making and the application of rating systems.

1128. Except with regard to types of insurance to which the provisions of Section 11620 apply, agreements may be made among admitted insurers with respect to the equitable apportionment among them of insurance which may be afforded applicants who are in good faith entitled to but who are unable to procure such insurance through ordinary methods, and with respect to the use of reasonable rate modifications for such insurance, such agreements to be subject to the approval of the commissioner.

All such agreements shall be submitted in writing to the commissioner for his consideration and approval, together with such information as he may reasonably require. The commissioner shall approve only such agreements as are found by him to contemplate (a) the use of rates which meet the standards prescribed by this article and (b) activities and practices that are not unfair, unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

At any time after such agreements are in effect the commissioner may review the practices and activities of the adherents to such agreements and if after a hearing upon not less than 10 days' notice to such adherents he finds that any such practice or activity is unfair or unreasonable, or is otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this article he may issue a written order to the parties to any such agreement specifying in what respects such practice or activity is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this article and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice. For good cause, and after hearing upon not less than 10 days' notice to the adherents thereto, the commissioner may revoke approval of any such agreement.

1129. Upon compliance with the provisions of this article applicable thereto, any group, association or other organization of admitted insurers engaged in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance or rating organization or advisory organization may conduct operations in this State. As respects risks or operations in this State, no insurer shall be a member or subscriber of any such group, association or other organization of admitted insurers engaged in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance or rating organization or advisory organization that has not complied with the provisions of this article applicable to it.

1130. No rating organization shall conduct its operations in this State without first filing with the commissioner a written application for, and securing, a license to act as a rating organization. Every such rating organization shall file with its application (1) a copy of its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business all duly certified by the custodian of the originals thereof, (2) a list of its members and subscribers, (3) the name and address of a resident of this State upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such rating organization may be served, and (4) a statement of its qualifications as a rating organization.

The fee for filing an application for license as a rating organization is twenty-five dollars ($25), payable in advance to the commissioner.

1130.1. To obtain and retain a license, a rating organization shall provide satisfactory evidence to the commissioner that it will:

(1) Permit any admitted insurer to obtain and use at its option such rating organization's rates and rating manuals at a reasonable cost without discrimination and without any requirement to become a member or subscriber.

(2) Permit any admitted insurer to become a member of or a subscriber to such rating organization or withdraw therefrom.

(3) Neither have nor adopt any rule or exact any agreement, the effect of which would be to require any member or subscriber as a condition to membership or subscription, to adhere to its rates, rating systems, or the underwriting rules, policy or bond forms upon which they are predicated.

(4) Neither adopt any rule nor exact any agreement the effect of which would be to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policy holders, members or subscribers.

(5) Neither practice nor sanction any plan or act of boycott, coercion or intimidation.

(6) Neither enter into nor sanction any contract or act by which any person is restrained from lawfully engaging in the insurance business.

(7) Submit to examination as prescribed by Section 1132.1 of this article.

(8) Notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members and subscribers; and the name and address of the resident of this State designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such organization may be served.

(9) Make available to the commissioner at all times access to all experience data, statistics, reports, results of surveys and investigations gathered or obtained by it, and all information of every kind and description considered by it in connection with the making of rates or rating systems, or adopted or recommended by it or considered in connection with underwriting rules, policy or bond forms adopted, approved or recommended by it.

(10) Keep reasonable records of the experience or other information gathered, collected, developed or used by it in connection with the rates, rating plans, rating systems or underwriting rules adopted or recommended by it. Such records shall be maintained in an office within this State or shall be made available for inspection within this State by the commissioner at any time upon reasonable notice.

1130.2. The commissioner shall examine each application for license to act as a rating organization and the documents filed therewith and may make such further investigation of the applicant, its affairs and its proposed plan of business, as he deems desirable.

The commissioner shall issue the license applied for within 60 days of its filing with him if from such examination and investigation he is satisfied that:

(a) The business reputation of the applicant and its officers is good.

(b) The facilities of the applicant are adequate to enable it to furnish the services it proposes to furnish.

(c) The applicant and its proposed plan of operation conform to the requirements of this article.

Otherwise, but only after hearing upon notice, the commissioner shall in writing deny the application and notify the applicant of his decision and his reasons therefor.

The commissioner may grant an application in part only and issue a license to act as a rating organization for one or more of the classes of insurance or subdivisions thereof or class of risk or a part or combination thereof as are specified in the application if the applicant qualifies for only a portion of the classes applied for.

Licenses issued pursuant to this section shall remain in effect until revoked as provided in this article.

1130.3. If after hearing upon not less than 10 days notice, the commissioner finds any rating organization to have wilfully engaged in any fraudulent or dishonest act or practices, he may suspend or revoke the license of such organization in addition to any other penalty provided in this article.

1130.4. No advisory organization shall conduct its operations in this State unless and until it has filed with the commissioner (1) a copy of its constitution, articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, or rules and regulations governing its activities, all duly certified by the custodian of the originals thereof, (2) a list of its members and subscribers, (3) the name and address of a resident of this State upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process issued at his direction may be served, and (4) an agreement that the commissioner may examine such advisory organization in accordance with the provisions of Section 1132.1.

Every such advisory organization shall notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members and subscribers; and the name and address of the resident of this State designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such organization may be served.

No such advisory organization shall engage in any unfair or unreasonable practice with respect to such activities.

1131. Every group, association or other organization of insurers which engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance through such group, association or organization or by standing agreement among the members thereof shall file with the commissioner (1) a copy of its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing its activities, all duly certified by the custodian of the originals thereof, (2) a list of its members, (3) the name and address of a resident of this State upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process issued at his direction may be served, and (4) an agreement that the commissioner may examine such group, association or organization in accordance with the provisions of Section 1132.1.

Every such group, association or other organization shall notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members; and the name and address of the resident of this State designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such group, association or organization may be served.

No such group, association or organization shall engage in any unfair or unreasonable practice with respect to such activities.

1132. Every insurer, rating organization or advisory organization or group, association or other organization of insurers which engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance shall maintain reasonable records of its experience or the experience of its members and of the data, statistics or information collected or used by it in connection with the rates, rating plans, rating systems, underwriting rules, policies or bond forms, surveys or inspections made, adopted or used by it so that such information will be available at all reasonable times to enable the commissioner to determine whether such organization, insurer, group or association, and, in the case of an insurer or rating organization, every rate, rating plan and rating system made or used by it, complies with the provisions of this article applicable to it. The maintenance of such records in the office of a licensed rating organization of which an insurer is a member or subscriber will be sufficient compliance with the terms of this subdivision for any insurer maintaining membership or subscribership in such organization, to the extent that the insurer adopts and uses the rates, rating plans, rating systems or underwriting rules of such organization. Such records shall be maintained in an office within this State or shall be made available for examination or inspection within this State by the commissioner at any time upon reasonable notice.

1132.1. The commissioner shall, at least once every two years, and may as often as may be reasonable and necessary, make or cause to be made an examination of each licensed rating organization, and he may, as often as may be reasonable and necessary, make or cause to be made an examination of any advisory organization or group, association or other organization of insurers which engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance. The reasonable costs of any such examination shall be paid in advance by the rating organization, advisory organization, group, association or other organization of insurer examined. The officers, managers, agents and employees of any such rating organization, advisory organization, group, association or other organization of insurers may be examined at any time under oath and shall exhibit all books, records, accounts, documents or agreements governing its method of operation, together with all data, statistics and information of every kind and character collected or considered by the organization, group or association in the conduct of the operations to which such examination relates.

In lieu of any such examination the commissioner may accept the report of an examination made by the insurance supervisory official of another state.

In examining any organization, group or association pursuant to this section the commissioner shall ascertain whether such organization, group or association, and, in the case of a rating organization, any rate or rating system made or used by it, complies with the requirements and standards of this article applicable to it.

1132.2. As often as may be reasonable and necessary, the commissioner shall make or cause to be made an examination of every admitted insurer transacting any class of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable to ascertain whether such insurer and every rate and rating system used by it for every such class of insurance complies with the requirements and standards of this article applicable to it. The reasonable costs of any such examination shall be paid in advance by the insurer examined.

1132.3. (a) If after examination of an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization of insurers which engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, or upon the basis of other information, the commissioner has good cause to believe that such insurer, organization, group or association, or any rate or rating system made or used by any such insurer or rating organization, does not comply with the requirements and standards of this article applicable to it, he shall, unless he has good cause to believe such noncompliance is wilful, give notice in writing to such insurer, organization, group or association stating therein in what manner and to what extent he believes such noncompliance to exist and specifying therein a reasonable time, not less than 10 days thereafter, in which such noncompliance may be corrected.

(b) If the commissioner has good cause to believe such noncompliance to be wilful, or if within the period specified by him in the notice required by paragraph (a) of this section the insurer, organization, group or association does not make such change as may be necessary to correct the noncompliance specified by him in such notice, or establish to his satisfaction that such noncompliance does not exist, then the commissioner may hold a public hearing in connection therewith upon not less than 10 days' written notice to such insurer, organization, group or association specifying the matters to be considered at such hearing. Such notice and hearing shall not include any additional subjects not specified in the notice required by paragraph (a) of this section.

1132.4. Any person aggrieved by any rate charged, rating system, or underwriting rule followed or adopted by an insurer or rating organization, may file written complaint with the commissioner, specifying the grounds relied upon, together with a written request for a hearing thereon. If the commissioner has information as a result of an examination or hearing concerning a similar complaint, or if he believes probable cause for the complaint does not exist or that the complaint is not made in good faith, he may in his discretion deny the request for a hearing. Otherwise, he shall hold a hearing upon not less than 10 days' written notice to the complainant and to the insurer or rating organization against whom the complaint has been made. A copy of the complaint shall be served on the insurer or rating organization complained of at least 10 days prior to the hearing thereon. Such hearing and notice shall not include any matters not set out in the complaint.

1132.5. If after a hearing pursuant to Section 1132.3 or Section 1132.4 the commissioner finds:

1. That an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization of insurers which engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, is in violation of the provisions of this article applicable to it, he may issue an order to such insurer, organization, group or association specifying in what respects such violation exists and requiring compliance within a reasonable time thereafter.

2. That any rate or rating system violates the provisions of this article applicable to it, he may issue an order to the insurer or rating organization which has been the subject of the hearing specifying in what respects such violation exists and stating when, within a reasonable period of time, the further use of such rate or rating system by such insurer or rating organization in contracts of insurance made thereafter shall be prohibited.

3. That the violation of any of the provisions of this article applicable to it by any insurer or rating organization which has been the subject of hearing was wilful, he may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of such insurer or the license of such rating organization.

1132.6. 1133. No person, insurer or organization shall wilfully withhold information from, or knowingly give false or misleading information to, the commissioner or to any statistical agency, rating organization, advisory organization, insurer or group, association or other organization of insurers, which will affect the rates, rating systems or premiums for the classes of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable.

1133.1. (a) Any person, insurer, organization, group or association who fails to comply with a final order of the commissioner under this article shall be liable to the State in an amount not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) but if such violation be wilful he or it shall be liable to the State in an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for such violation. A plan for the payment of dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurer to their policyholders, members or subscribers shall not be deemed a rating plan or system.

1138.5. No act done, action taken or agreement made pursuant to the authority conferred by this article and conforming to the requirements thereof shall constitute a violation of or grounds for prosecution under any other law of this State which does not specifically relate to insurance.

RESOLUTIONS

By Senators Tenney, Burns, Delworth, Kraft, Desmond, Watson, Gordon, Ward, Cunningham, Parkman, Crutenden, McBride, Judah, Quinn, Weybret, Breed, Busch, Hulse, Hatfield, McCormack, and Donnelly:

Senate Resolution No. 75

Relative to the creation of a Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities, to investigate the activity of persons and groups known or suspected to be foreign dominated or controlled and to recommend legislation for their regulation.

WHEREAS, There are perils of public danger. Subversive persons and groups are undermining our democratic society so as to cause us to be prepared to resist attack from without and within. Under many of the pretenses afforded by the Bill of Rights these persons and groups seek to confuse our Government by false evidence,歪曲, misunderstanding and subterfuge, and to subject us to the domination of foreign powers and designs; and

WHEREAS, There is danger that the wisdom through which the Country has suffered to keep the peace of its people may be in vain; and

WHEREAS, Persons and groups, motivated by hatred of American ideals, our republican form of government and democratic processes, some bound together by allegiance to foreign powers, are even now seeking to achieve by subterfuge what we have so bravely fought to prevent from being; and

WHEREAS, California, as one of the States of the great Nation, may perhaps have the persons within its boundaries, and their permanent residents thereof, of such an invidious character; and

WHEREAS, State legislation to meet the problem and to meet law enforcement officers are best to be based on a thorough and impartial investigation by a competent and active legislative committee; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That

1. The Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities is hereby created and authorized and directed to investigate, ascertain, study and analyze all facts directly or indirectly relating to the foregoing, to the activities of groups and organizations whose membership includes persons who are members of organizations who have as their objectives or part of their purposes, the overthrow of the governments of the State of California or of the United States by force and violence or other unlawful means, all circumstances known or suspected to be dominated or controlled by a foreign power which activities affect the interests of this State in national defense, the functioning of any state agency, foreign-owned land and other forms of public investments, substantial contributions of this State appearing in whole or in part by public funds, or any public program, or which may affect the government of the State from a viewpoint contrary to a democratic government or affect the economic and social processes mentioned therein, including but not limited to the operations, affairs, administration, and management and control thereof of any local, State or any other public or private institution, organization, or other entity, and to report thereof to the Senate.

2. In addition to the foregoing, the Senate Fact Finding Committee as a legislative fact-finding committee shall endeavor to ascertain, study and analyze all facts relating to the activities of persons and groups known or suspected to be dominated or controlled by a foreign power, and who are motivated by the overthrow of our republic, our national government, our constitution, or other law, including but not limited to the activities of any such persons or groups of which any substantial contributions were made, financial and other resources were being obtained, used, raised, produced, obtained and the purposes of such contributions and the other facts which may become known to the committee as mentioned above, as well as the operations, affairs, administration, management and control thereof of any and all laws in any way bearing upon or relating to the subject of this resolution, and to report thereof to the Senate.

3. The committee shall consist of six Members of the Senate appointed by the Committee on Rules, subject to confirmation by a majority of the membership of the committee which is fixed by the governing power.

4. The committee is authorized to use during the session of the Legislature, including any recess, and after each recess, the time and facilities of the State Legislative Session, with members as far as time permit and more than the last legislative day of that session.

6. The committee has the following additional powers and duties:

(a) To select a chairman and a vice chairman from its membership, and to employ and fix the compensation of a secretary and such clerical, investigative, expert and technical assistants as it may deem necessary.

(b) To contract with such other agencies, public or private, as it deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies and reports to the committee as will best assist it to carry out the purposes for which it is created.

(c) To cooperate with and secure the cooperation of county, city, city and county, and other local law enforcement agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of this resolution and to direct the sheriff of any county to serve subpoenas, orders and other process issued by the committee.

(d) To report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature and to the people from time to time and at any time, not later than herein provided.

(e) To do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objects and purposes of this resolution.

(f) To create subcommittees from its membership, assigning to the subcommittee any study, inquiry, investigation or hearing which the committee itself has authority to undertake or hold, and the subcommittee for the purposes of this assignment shall have and exercise all of the powers conferred upon the committee limited by the express terms of the resolution or resolutions of the latter defining the powers and duties of the subcommittee, which powers may be withdrawn or terminated at any time by the committee.

(g) To adopt and from time to time amend such rules governing its procedure (including the fixing of its own quorum and the number of votes necessary to take action on any matter) as may to it appear appropriate.

7. The committee, each of its members, and any representative of the committee thereunto authorized by the committee or by its chairman, is authorized and empowered to administer oaths.

8. Every department, commission, board, agency, officer and employee of the State Government, including the Legislative Counsel, the Attorney General and their subordinates, and of any political subdivision, county, city, or public district of or in this State shall furnish the committee and any subcommittee, upon request, any and all such assistance, and information, records and documents as the committee or subcommittee deems proper for the accomplishment of the purposes for which the committee is created.

9. The committee, or a subcommittee or the chairman when authorized by a majority vote of the entire committee, may meet outside the State with similar committees of Congress or of the several states.

10. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby made available from the Contingent Fund of the Senate for the expenses of the committee and its members and for any charges, expenses or claims it may incur under this resolution, to be paid from said Contingent Fund, and disbursed, after certification by the chairman of the committee, upon warrants drawn by the State Controller upon the State Treasurer.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communications were received, read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

UKIAH, CALIFORNIA, April 15, 1947

Joseph A. Beek

*Secretary of the Senate
Sacramento, California*

MY DEAR MR. BEEK: Your letter and the accompanying Senate resolution adopted in honor of my dear husband, A. R. O'Brien, have been received and are appreciated both now and in the future, when such tokens of esteem will be a great comfort.

The sentiments expressed in the resolution add to the feeling of pride I have always had in my life companion.

The make-up of the resolution is a marvel. I know my husband would have been proud to know such beautiful printing and workmanship have been used in a memorial in his honor.

As Secretary of the Senate will you please convey to that body my heartfelt thanks.

Sincerely,

MARGARET H. O'BRIEN

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, April 21, 1947

Mr. Joseph A. Beek, Secretary of the Senate
*California Legislature, State Capitol
Sacramento 14, California*

DEAR MR. BEEK: This will acknowledge receipt of your communication of April 17th in which you enclosed a copy of Senate Daily Journal for Wednesday, April 16, 1947. I had previously read the resolution on page 1407 regarding the pricing of milk.

At the time the original law was passed making it the duty of this department to establish prices to be paid by distributors to producers for market milk, the custom then was to establish the price on a milk fat basis, and an effort for a good many years had been made to increase the number of cows in dairying herds that produced a high percentage of milk fat. While the matter of using another procedure in arriving at the true value has been considered at numerous hearings, practice still is to establish the price on milk fat.

When the men who objected to this procedure called on us, we told them we had followed the custom which had long been established in setting these prices, that the matter was controversial, and that if a change were to be made, it would be up to the Legislature to direct us in accordance with their suggestion rather than to ask the department to make any change in its present procedure. We are persuaded that the evidence which may be presented for the change at any such hearing by the producers of certain breeds may be just as strenuously opposed by the producers of other breeds.

Under the resolutions, of course, we are very glad to go into the whole matter, but if it is a research matter, it is the duty of the University of California.

Very sincerely yours.

A. A. BROCK, Director

SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, April 22, 1947

Senate Bill No. 609—Exemption From Taxation of Irrigation and California Water District Property—No. 4290*Hon. Ben HulseSenate Chamber*

DEAR SENATOR HULSE: We are writing in response to your request for a report upon the background and constitutionality of Senate Bill No. 609, which provides:

(a) All property belonging to an irrigation district or to a district formed under the California Water District Act is held for the carrying out of state purposes;

(b) In order to effectuate such purposes all property belonging to such districts is exempt from all property taxation.

The first statutory provision of which we are aware exempting the property of an irrigation district from taxation is that contained in Section 66 of the California Irrigation District Act, Chapter 189 of the Statutes of 1897, Deering Act No. 3854, which declared:

“The rights of way, ditches, flumes, pipe-lines, dams, water rights, reservoirs, and other property of like character belonging to any irrigation district, shall not be taxed for State and county or municipal purposes.”

While Section 66 was applicable by its own terms to the operative property of an irrigation district used in the distribution of water, it would appear to have also been applicable to the operative drainage, and electric power works of an irrigation district pursuant to that part of Section 1 of Deering Act 2205 codified as Section 22096 of the Water Code, and pursuant to that part of the third sentence of Section 1 of Deering Act 3868 codified as Section 22116 of the Water Code.

At the time that Section 66 was enacted, Section 1 of Article XIII of the Constitution provided:

“* * * property * * * such as may belong to the United States, this State, or to any county or municipal corporation within this State, shall be exempt from taxation.”

By an amendment to that section adopted November 3, 1914, there was excepted from this exemption:

“such lands and the improvements thereon located outside of the county, city and county or municipal corporation owning the same as were subject to taxation at the time of the acquisition of the same by said county, city and county or municipal corporation; provided, that no improvements of any character whatever constructed by any county, city and county or municipal corporation shall be subject to taxation.”

Since an irrigation district was a state agency, it was held in Turlock Irrigation District vs. White, 186 C. 183, that property of an irrigation district outside of the district was not subject to taxation. One judge dissented on the ground that an irrigation district was similar to a municipal corporation for the purposes of the 1914 amendment.

In 1943 Section 66 was repealed by Chapter 372 of the Statutes of 1943, which repealed the entire California Irrigation District Act. (Prior to such repeal, in both the October 7, 1940, and July 20, 1942, mimeographed drafts of the Irrigation District Law prepared by the California Code Commission, Section 66 was set out in strike-out type to indicate the intention of the commission to propose to the Legislature the repeal of the section (page 6-115 of October 7, 1940 draft, and page 121 of July 20, 1942 draft.) The basis for such repeal was Section 1 of Article XIII of the Constitution as interpreted in the Turlock case and later in Anderson-Cottonwood Irrigation District vs. Klubbert, 13 C. 2d 191, holding that nonoperative property of an irrigation district within the district was not subject to taxation.

Despite the repeal, it is possible that Section 66 continues to have its former full effect by virtue of Section 29978 of the Water Code, enacted by said Chapter 372, providing:

"The repeals effected by this part shall not be construed to deprive any district or any person or other entity of any substantial right which would have existed or hereafter exist had such repeals not been effected."

It was not until Rock Creek Water District vs. Calaveras County, 29 A. C. 1, decided September 17, 1946, that the Supreme Court expressly overruled the Turlock case. While the Rock Creek case did not involve an irrigation district, but rather a district organized under the California Water District Act, Deering Act No. 9125, the Rock Creek case stated that an irrigation district was a municipal corporation for the purposes of the constitutional amendment, and so held with respect to a district formed under the California Water District Act. Whether the Supreme Court would distinguish an irrigation district from such a water district by virtue of Section 66 as continued by Section 29978 it is difficult to predict.

There is at least one theory upon which Section 66 could be made the basis of an exemption of the operative property of an irrigation district outside its boundaries, regardless of the 1914 amendment to Section 1 of Article XIII and regardless of the holding in the Rock Creek case. That is contained in Section 13 of Article XI of the Constitution, permitting the Legislature to provide for the supervision, regulation and conduct, in such manner as it may determine, of the affairs of irrigation districts, reclamation or drainage districts organized or existing under any law of this State. It has been stated in several cases that this provision gives the Legislature plenary power with respect to affairs of such districts, but the holding in those cases was confined principally to the sustaining of a very broad power in the Legislature to classify with respect to such districts contravening constitutional provisions against special laws. Whether the Supreme Court in a specific case would hold that the Legislature would have plenary power to exempt the property of an irrigation district outside of the boundaries thereof from taxation, cannot therefore be predicted with substantial assurance.

With respect to California water districts we are unable to find any statutory provision exempting them from taxation, although prior to the Rock Creek case it would have been reasonable to believe that the property of such districts outside the boundaries thereof were exempt from taxation on the basis of the Turlock case.

There are two theories upon which Senate Bill No. 609 might be held by the courts to exempt the property of irrigation districts and districts formed under the California Water District Act from taxation. The first is the same as that under which an exemption could be had under Section 66, that is, on the basis of the plenary power of the Legislature to provide for irrigation, reclamation, and drainage districts.

The other theory stems from the holdings in County of San Bernardino vs. Way, 18 C. 2d 647, at pages 652 to 658, inclusive, and City of Ojai vs. Chaffee, 60 C. A. 2d 54, at pages 59 and 60. Those cases permitted a remission of taxes levied for general county purposes when a public purpose was served thereby, it being held in those cases that neither the prohibition against gifts in Section 31 of Article IV of the Constitution nor the provisions of Section 1 of Article XIII requiring uniformity of taxation were offended. On the basis of permitting the remission of taxes when a public purpose is served, it is logical to believe that the courts might sustain a legislative exemption from taxes other than the exemptions specifically provided in the Constitution when a public purpose is served thereby. If this can be done with respect to taxes upon the property of private persons, there would appear to us to be no reason to distinguish the property of a public body even though such property is subject to the provisions of Section 1 of Article XIII applicable to public bodies. As a matter of fact, the remission in the Ojai case was as to property which had passed into ownership of that city. The provisions applicable to public bodies in Section 1 of Article XIII were intended to grant certain privileges to public bodies, not to deny to the Legislature the power to grant the same privileges it might for a similar consideration grant to private persons.

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1561

The following resolution was offered:

Resolution read.

The roll was called, and the resolution adopted by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Breed, Burns, Busch, Carter, Collier, Crittenden, Cunningham, DeLap, Desmond, Deuel, Dillinger, Dilworth, Donnelly, Gordon, Hatfield, Hulse, Jespersen, Keating, Kraft, Mayo, McBride, McCormack, Parkman, Powers, Quinn, Rich, Slater, Sutton, Swing, Tenney, Ward, Watson, Weybret, and Williams—34.

NOES—None.

Article IV, Section 15, of the Constitution was declared suspended.

Senate Bill No. 1561—An act making an appropriation for public assistance, including aid to the aged, aid to the needy blind, and aid to needy children, to be expended under the conditions and upon the terms specified therein, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Bill read third time.

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Senate Bill No. 1561:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, SACRAMENTO, April 22, 1947

*To the Honorable Members of the Senate

GENTLEMEN:

Senate Bill No. 1561—"An act making an appropriation for public assistance, including aid to the aged, aid to the needy blind, and aid to needy children, to be expended under the conditions and upon the terms specified therein, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately," in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

The Department of Social Welfare advises me that Congress has not yet acted upon the Deficiency Bill, HR 2849, for the Social Security Administration. If this bill should not become law before May 1st, there will be no federal funds available for aged aid, blind aid or children's aid. Under the provisions of our statutes which apply in the absence of federal funds, some 39,800 aged persons would be denied aid for lack of 15 year's residence, and a majority of the remaining 131,600 would have their grants reduced by $5.

Of the 6,300 blind persons estimated to receive aid during May and June, about 700 would not be eligible for residence reasons. Aid to needy children would continue in the same manner and for the same amounts as heretofore.

It is the opinion of the Director of Social Welfare that Congress will pass the Deficiency Bill, but not in sufficient time for it to be effective by May 1st. If no legislation is enacted and the State should operate under our present laws as though no federal funds were to be received, the State would not be eligible for reimbursement from the Federal Government as our requirements would be more restrictive than permitted under the federal act.

It is the director's suggestion that emergency legislation such as this bill be introduced to be passed before May 1st in order to provide state funds in an amount equal to anticipated federal funds for assistance for the months of May and June, with a provision for reimbursement when federal funds are received, and to provide that the eligibility conditions operative under the receipt of federal funds will remain effective during the months of May and June even though no federal funds may be received.

The amount of federal funds involved for the months of May and June to continue assistance on the present basis is as follows:

Assistance	May	June	Total
Aged -----	$4,200,375.35	$4,216,282.81	$8,416,658.16
Blind -----	155,260.80	156,646.89	311,907.69
Children -----	259,210.82	268,583.72	527,794.54
	<hr/> $4,614,846.97	<hr/> $4,641,513.42	<hr/> $9,256,360.39

There is now available in the Social Welfare Fund approximately $103,000 of federal money. This amount is necessary as a reserve for adjustments in both assistance and administrative costs. The figure of $9,256,360.39 represents the amount necessary to meet the federal share of assistance costs for the two months. It does not involve funds to meet the administrative costs of $480,294.67 for counties and $95,946 for the State, because it is believed that federal money will be available before the end of June.

I therefore recommend consideration of Senate Bill No. 1561 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted.

EARL WARREN, Governor

SECTION 1. Article 19 is added to Chapter 1, Part 2, Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 19. Rates and Rating and Other Organizations

1120. Purpose of This Article. The purpose of this article is to promote the public welfare by regulating insurance rates as herein provided to the end that they shall not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory, by authorizing the existence and operation of qualified rating organizations and advisory organizations, by requiring that the rates and rating manuals of such rating organizations be generally available to all admitted insurers, and by authorizing cooperation between insurers in rate making and other related matters.

It is the express intent of this article to permit and encourage competition between insurers on a sound financial basis.

1121. Certain Definitions. As used in this article:

(a) "Rating organization" means any corporation, unincorporated association, partnership or individual, other than an admitted insurer, whether located within or outside this State, which has as its object or purpose the making of rates, rating plans or rating systems. Two or more admitted insurers which act in concert for the purpose of making rates, rating plans or rating systems, and which do not operate within the specific authorizations contained in Sections 1124, 1127, 1128, and 1131 of this article shall be deemed to be a rating organization. No single insurer shall be deemed to be a rating organization.

(b) "Advisory organization" means any corporation, unincorporated association, partnership or individual, other than an admitted insurer, whether located within or outside this State, which prepares policy forms, makes underwriting rules, surveys or inspections incident to but not including the making of rates, rating plans or rating systems, or which collects and furnishes to admitted insurers or rating organizations loss or expense statistics or other statistical information and data and acts in an advisory, as distinguished from a rate making, capacity. No duly authorized attorney at law acting in the usual course of his profession shall be deemed to be an advisory organization.

(c) "Member," unless otherwise apparent from the context, means an insurer who participates in or is entitled to participate in the management of a rating, advisory or other organization.

(d) "Subscriber," unless otherwise apparent from the context, means an insurer which is furnished at its request (1) with rates and rating manuals by a rating organization of which it is not a member, or (2) with advisory services by an advisory organization of which it is not a member.

(e) "Casualty Insurance" means all forms of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable and which are included within Sections 105, 107, 108, 110, 112, 114, 115, and, when written by insurers not admitted to transact fire or marine insurance in this State, Sections 111, 116, and 120.

(f) "Wilful" or "wilfully" in relation to an act or omission which constitutes a violation of this article, means with actual knowledge or belief that such act or omission constitutes such violation and with specific intent to commit such violation.

1122. Scope of Article. This article applies to casualty insurance, fidelity, surety and guaranty bonds, all forms of automobile insurance, and to fire, marine and inland marine insurance (inland marine insurance shall be deemed to include insurance now or hereafter defined by statute, or by interpretation thereof, or if not so defined or interpreted, by ruling of the commissioner, or as established by general custom of the business, as inland marine insurance), on risks or on operations in this State. This article does not apply to:

(a) Reinsurance, other than joint reinsurance to the extent stated in Section 1131.

(b) Life insurance.

(c) Insurance of vessels or craft, their cargoes, marine builders' risks, marine protection and indemnity, or other risks commonly insured under marine, as distinguished from inland marine, insurance policies.

(d) Title insurance.

(e) Disability insurance.

(f) Workmen's compensation and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith.

(g) Credit insurance.

(h) Mortgage insurance.

(i) Insurance against loss of or damage to aircraft, their hulls, accessories and equipment, or against liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of aircraft.

1122.5. Cooperative Action. Subject to the provisions of this article, two or more insurers may act in concert with each other and with others with respect to any matters pertaining to the making of rates, rating plans or rating systems, the preparation or making of insurance policy or bond forms, underwriting rules, surveys, inspections and investigations, the furnishing of loss or expense statistics or other information and data, or carrying on of research.

1123. Rating Standards. The following standards shall apply to the making and use of rates pertaining to all classes of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable.

(a) Rates shall not be excessive or inadequate, as herein defined, nor shall they be unfairly discriminatory. No rate shall be held to be excessive unless (1) such rate is unreasonably high for the insurance provided and (2) a reasonable degree of competition does not exist in the area with respect to the classification to which such rate is applicable. No rate shall be held to be inadequate unless (1) such rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided and (2) the continued use of such rate presently endangers the solvency of the insurer using the same.

(b) Consideration shall be given by rating organizations and insurers, to the extent applicable, to past and prospective loss experience within and outside this State, to conflagration and catastrophic hazards, to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies, to past and prospective expenses both Country-wide and those specially applicable to this State, and to all other factors, including judgment factors, deemed relevant within and outside this State; and in the case of fire insurance rates, consideration may be given to the experience of the fire insurance business during the most recent five-year period for which such experience is available.

Consideration may also be given in the making and use of rates to dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members or subscribers.

(c) The systems of expense provisions included in the rates for use by any insurer or group of insurers may differ from those of other insurers or groups of insurers to reflect the operating methods of any such insurer or group with respect to any kind of insurance, or with respect to any subdivision or combination thereof;

(d) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both. Such standards may measure any difference among risks that have a probable effect upon losses or expenses. Classifications or modifications of classifications of risks may be established based upon size, expense, management, individual experience, purpose of insurance, location or dispersion of hazard, or any other reasonable considerations, provided such classifications and modifications apply to all risks under the same or substantially the same circumstances or conditions.

1124. Insurers under common management or control and co-surety bonds. With respect to any matters pertaining to the making of rates or rating systems, the preparation or making of insurance policy or bond forms, underwriting rules, surveys, inspections and investigations, the furnishing of loss or expense statistics or other information and data, or carrying on of research, two or more admitted insurers having a common ownership or operating in this State under common management or control, are hereby authorized to act in concert between or among themselves the same as if they constituted a single insurer, and to the extent that such matters relate to co-surety bonds, two or more admitted insurers executing such bonds are hereby authorized to act in concert between or among themselves the same as if they constituted a single insurer.

1125. Use of Rates. Rates, rating plans, and rating systems, and any modifications and amendments thereof, made or adopted by a licensed rating organization may be used, subject to the provisions of this article, by any admitted insurer.

1126. Agreements to Adhere. Except as provided in Sections 1124, 1128, and 1131, insurers shall not agree with each other or with rating organizations or others to adhere to rates, rating systems, underwriting rules or policy or bond forms relating to insurance on risks or operations in this State. The fact, however, that two or more admitted insurers use, either consistently or intermittently, the rates or rating systems made or adopted by a rating organization, or the underwriting rules or policy or bond forms prepared by a rating or advisory organization, shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding that an agreement to so adhere exists, and may be used only for the purpose of supplementing or explaining direct evidence of the existence of any such agreement.

1127. Exchange of Information and Experience. Licensed rating organizations and admitted insurers are authorized to exchange information and experience data with rating organizations and insurers in this and other states and may consult with them with respect to rate making and the application of rating systems.

1128. Agreements to Apportion Insurance. Except with regard to types of insurance to which the provisions of Section 11620 apply, agreements may be made among admitted insurers with respect to the equitable apportionment among them of insurance which may be afforded applicants who are in good faith entitled to but who are unable to procure such insurance through ordinary methods, and with respect to the use of reasonable rate modifications for such insurance, such agreements to be subject to the approval of the commissioner.

All such agreements shall be submitted in writing to the commissioner for his consideration and approval, together with such information as he may reasonably require. The commissioner shall approve only such agreements as are found by him to contemplate (a) the use of rates which meet the standards prescribed by this article and (b) activities and practices that are not unfair, unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

At any time after such agreements are in effect the commissioner may review the practices and activities of the adherents to such agreements and if after a hearing upon not less than 10 days' notice to such adherents he finds that any such practice or activity is unfair or unreasonable, or is otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this article, he may issue a written order to the parties to any such agreement specifying in what respects such practice or activity is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this article and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice. For good cause, and after hearing upon not less than 10 days' notice to the adherents thereto, the commissioner may revoke approval of any such agreement.

1129. Conduct of Operations by Organizations or Groups. Upon compliance with the provisions of this article applicable thereto any rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance through such organization or by standing agreement among the members thereof, may conduct operations in this State. As respects insurance on risks or operations in this State, no insurer shall be a member or subscriber of any such organization, group or association that has not complied with the provisions of this article applicable to it.

1130. Licensing of Rating Organizations. No rating organization shall conduct its operations in this State without first filing with the commissioner a written application for and securing a license to act as a rating organization for such kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof as are specified in its application. Any rating organization, whether located within or outside the State, may make application for and obtain a license as a rating organization for such kinds of insurance or subdivision or class of risk or a part or combination thereof, as are specified in its application, provided it shall meet the requirements for license set forth in this article. Every such rating organization shall file with its application (a) a copy of its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business, all duly certified by the custodian of the originals thereof, (b) a list of its members and subscribers, (c) the name and address of a resident of this State upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such rating organization may be served, and (d) a statement of its qualifications as a rating organization.

The fee for filing an application for license as a rating organization is twenty-five dollars ($25), payable in advance to the commissioner.

1130.1. Licensing Requirements. To obtain and retain a license, a rating organization shall provide satisfactory evidence to the Insurance Commissioner that it will:

(a) Permit any admitted insurer to obtain and use at its option such rating organization's rates and rating manuals at a reasonable cost without discrimination and without any requirement to become a member or subscriber;

(b) Permit any admitted insurer to become a member of or a subscriber to such rating organization or withdraw therefrom;

(c) Neither have nor adopt any rule or exact any agreement, the effect of which would be to require as a condition to membership or subscription any member or subscriber to adhere to its rates, rating plans or rating systems;

(d) Neither adopt any rule nor exact any agreement the effect of which would be to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policy holders, members or subscribers;

(e) Neither practice nor sanction any plan or act of boycott, coercion or intimidation;

(f) Neither enter into nor sanction any contract or act by which any person is restrained from lawfully engaging in the insurance business;

(g) Submit to examination as prescribed by Section 1132.1 of this article;

(h) Notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members and subscribers; and the name and address of the resident of this State designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such organization may be served;

(i) Comply with the provisions of Section 1132 of this article.

1130.2. Issuance of Licenses. The commissioner shall examine each application for license to act as a rating organization and the documents filed therewith and may make such further investigation of the applicant, its affairs and its proposed plan of business, as he deems desirable.

The commissioner shall issue the license applied for within 60 days of its filing with him if from such examination and investigation he is satisfied that:

(a) The business reputation of the applicant and its officers is good;

(b) The facilities of the applicant are adequate to enable it to furnish the services it proposes to furnish;

(c) The applicant and its proposed plan of operation conform to the requirements of this article.

Otherwise, but only after hearing upon notice, the commissioner shall in writing deny the application and notify the applicant of his decision and his reasons therefor.

The commissioner may grant an application in part only and issue a license to act as a rating organization for one or more of the classes of insurance or subdivisions thereof or class of risk or a part or combination thereof as are specified in the application if the applicant qualifies for only a portion of the classes applied for.

Licenses issued pursuant to this section shall remain in effect until revoked as provided in this article.

1130.3. Advisory Organizations. No advisory organization shall conduct its operations in this State unless and until it has filed with the commissioner (a) a copy of its constitution, articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, or rules and regulations governing its activities, all duly certified by the custodian of the originals thereof, (b) a list of its members and subscribers, (c) the name and address of a resident of this State upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process may be served, and (d) an agreement that the commissioner may examine such advisory organization in accordance with the provisions of Section 1132.1.

Every such advisory organization shall notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members and subscribers; and the name and address of the resident of this State designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such organization may be served.

No such advisory organization shall engage in any unfair or unreasonable practice with respect to such activities.

1131. Organizations Engaging in Joint Underwriting or Joint Reinsurance. Every group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance through such group, association or organization or by standing agreement among the members thereof shall file with the commissioner (a) a copy of its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing its activities, all duly certified by the custodian of the originals thereof, (b) a list of its members, (c) the name and address of a resident of this State upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process may be served, and (d) an agreement that the commissioner may examine such group, association or organization in accordance with the provisions of Section 1132.1.

Every such group, association or other organization shall notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution, its articles of incorporation, agreement or association, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members; and the name and address of the resident of this State designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such group, association or organization may be served.

No such group, association or organization shall engage in any unfair or unreasonable practice with respect to such activities.

1132. Maintenance of Records. Every insurer, rating organization or advisory organization or group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance shall maintain reasonable records, of the type and kind reasonably adapted to its method of operation, of its experience or the experience of its members and of the data, statistics or information collected or used by it in connection with the rates, rating plans, rating systems, underwriting rules, policy or bond forms, surveys or inspections made or used by it so that such records will be available at all reasonable times to enable the commissioner to determine whether such organization, insurer, group or association, and, in the case of an insurer or rating organization, every rate, rating plan and rating system made or used by it, complies with the provisions of this article applicable to it. The maintenance of such records in the office of a licensed rating organization of which an insurer is a member or subscriber will be sufficient compliance with the terms of this subdivision for any insurer maintaining membership or subscribership in such organization, to the extent that the insurer uses the rates, rating plans, rating systems or underwriting rules of such organization. Such records shall be maintained in an office within this State or shall be made available for examination or inspection within this State by the commissioner at any time upon reasonable notice.

1132.1. Examination of Organizations and Groups. The commissioner shall, at least once every two years, and may as often as may be reasonable and necessary, make or cause to be made an examination of each licensed rating organization, and he may, as often as may be reasonable and necessary, make or cause to be made an examination of any advisory organization or group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance. The reasonable costs of any such examination shall be paid in advance by the rating organization, advisory organization, group, association or other organization of insurers examined. The officers, managers, agents and employees of any such rating organization, advisory organization, group, association or other organization of insurers may be examined at any time under oath and shall exhibit all books, records, accounts, documents or agreements governing its method of operation, together with all data, statistics and information of every kind and character collected or considered by the organization, group or association in the conduct of the operations to which such examination relates.

In lieu of any such examination the commissioner may accept the report of an examination made by the insurance supervisory official of another state.

In examining any organization, group or association pursuant to this section the commissioner shall ascertain whether such organization, group or association, and, in the case of a rating organization, any rate or rating system made or used by it, complies with the requirements and standards of this article applicable to it.

1132.2. Examination of Insurers. The commissioner may, at any reasonable time, make or cause to be made an examination of every admitted insurer transacting any class of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable to ascertain whether such insurer and every rate and rating system used by it for every such class of insurance complies with the requirements and standards of this article applicable thereto. Such examination shall not be a part of a periodic general examination participated in by representatives of more than one state. The reasonable cost of any such examination shall be paid in advance by the insurer examined. The officers, managers, agents and employees of such insurer may be examined at any time under oath and shall exhibit all books, records, accounts, documents or agreements governing its method of operation, together with all data, statistics and information of every kind and character collected or considered by the insurer in the conduct of the operations to which such examination relates.

1132.3. Notices of Noncompliance and Hearings.

(a) If the commissioner, after examination as provided in this article, has good cause to believe that any rate, rating plan or rating system made or used by a rating organization or by an insurer does not meet the standards and provisions of this article expressly applicable to it, or that an insurer or rating organization or an advisory organization or group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, is not in compliance with the provisions of this article expressly applicable to it, the commissioner shall, unless he has good cause to believe such noncompliance is wilful, give notice in writing to such insurer, organization, group or association stating therein in what manner and to what extent he believes such noncompliance to exist and specifying therein a reasonable time, not less than 10 days thereafter, in which such noncompliance may be corrected.

(b) If the commissioner has good cause to believe such noncompliance to be wilful, or if within the period prescribed by the commissioner in the notice required by subdivision (a) of this section, the insurer, organization, group or association does not make such changes as may be necessary to correct the noncompliance specified by the commissioner or establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner that such specified noncompliance does not exist, then the commissioner may hold a public hearing in connection therewith, provided that within a reasonable period of time, which shall be not less than 10 days before the date of such hearing, he shall mail written notice specifying the matters to be considered at such hearing to such insurer, organization, group or association. If no notice has been given as provided in subdivision (a) of this section such notice shall state therein in what manner and to what extent the commissioner believes noncompliance to exist. The hearing shall not include any additional subjects not specified in the notice required by subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) of this section.

(c) If the commissioner, after such hearing, finds:

(1) That such rate, rating plan or rating system is in violation of this article, he may issue an order specifying in what respects such violation exists and stating when, within a reasonable period of time, the further use of such rate, rating plan or rating system by a rating organization or insurer which has been the subject of the examination and hearing in contracts of insurance made thereafter shall be prohibited and a copy of such order shall be sent to such rating organization or insurer.

(2) That an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, is in violation of the provisions of this article applicable to it other than the provisions dealing with rates, rating plans or rating systems, he may issue an order to such insurer, organization, group or association which has been the subject of the examination and hearing specifying in what respects such violation exists and requiring compliance within a reasonable time thereafter.

(3) That the violation of any of the provisions of this article applicable to it by any insurer or rating organization which has been the subject of hearing was wilful, he may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the certificate of authority of such insurer or the license of such rating organization with respect to the class or classes or insurance which has been the subject matter of the hearing.

(d) If any rating organization is found, after such hearing by the commissioner, to have wilfully engaged in any fraudulent or dishonest act or practices, he may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the license of such organization in addition to any other penalty provided in this article.

1132.4. Noncompliance With Order. In addition to other penalties provided in this code, the commissioner may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the license of any rating organization or the certificate of authority of any insurer with respect to the class or classes of insurance specified in such order, which fails to comply within the time limited by such order or any extension thereof which the commissioner may grant, with an order of the commissioner lawfully made by him pursuant to Section 1132.3.

1133. Withholding, or Furnishing False or Misleading, Information. No person, insurer or organization shall wilfully withhold information from, or knowingly give false or misleading information to, the commissioner or to any rating organization, advisory organization, insurer or group, association or other organization of insurers, which will affect the rates, rating systems or premiums for the classes of insurance to which the provisions of this article are applicable.

1133.1. Penalties. (a) Any person, insurer, organization, group or association who fails to comply with a final order of the commissioner under this article shall be liable to the State in an amount not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) but if such violation be wilful he or it shall be liable to the State in an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for such violation. The commissioner shall collect the amount so payable and may bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California to enforce collection. Such penalties may be in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

(b) A wilful violation of the provisions of this article by any person is a misdemeanor.

1134. Proceedings in Connection With Licenses or Certificates of Authority. Except as otherwise provided in this article, all proceedings in connection with the denial, suspension or revocation of a license or certificate of authority under this act shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the commissioner shall have all the powers granted to him therein.

1135. Judicial Review. Any finding, determination, rule, ruling or order made by the commissioner under this article shall be subject to review by the courts of the State and proceedings on review shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure. In such proceedings on review, the court is authorized and directed to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence and unless the weight of the evidence supports the findings, determination, rule, ruling or order of the commissioner, the same shall be annulled. If any act or order of the commissioner be submitted for judicial review, it shall become inoperative for a period of 30 days after the petition for review shall have been filed with the court unless said act or order of the commissioner is stayed by the court for a longer period.

1136. Dividends. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members or subscribers. A plan for the payment of dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policy holders, members or subscribers shall not be deemed a rating plan or system.

1137. Commissions and Fees. Nothing in this article shall abridge or restrict the freedom of contract of insurers, agents, or brokers with reference to the amount of commissions or fees to be paid to such agents or brokers by insurers, and such payments, when otherwise lawful under this code, are expressly authorized with respect to all classes of insurance notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1122.

1138. Immunities From Other Laws. No act done, action taken or agreement made pursuant to the authority conferred by this article shall constitute a violation of, or grounds for prosecution or civil proceeding under, any other law of this State heretofore or hereafter enacted which does not specifically relate to insurance.

1139. Administration, Enforcement and Interpretation of Article. The administration and enforcement of this article shall be governed solely by the express provisions of this article. Except as provided in this article, no other law relating to insurance and no other provisions in this code heretofore or hereafter enacted shall apply to or be construed as supplementing or modifying the provisions of this article unless such other law or other provision expressly so provides and specifically refers to the sections of this article which it intends to supplement or modify.

Nothing contained in this article shall be construed as affecting the operations of insurers or the powers and duties of the commissioner under Chapter 2 and Chapter 3 of Part 3, Division 2, of this code.

Bill read second time.

Motion to Amend

Senator Burns moved the adoption of the following amendments:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "amend Section 8 of", and insert "add Section 8.5 to".

Amendment No. 2

In the title of the printed bill, strike out line 8, and insert "completion of facilities remaining uncompleted by reason of cessation of work by the Federal Government pursuant to contracts for such work, making an appropriation and providing for the allocation thereof, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 3

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 8.5 is added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read:

Sec. 8.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, the director may, from any money made available for the purpose, allocate to a local agency sufficient money to complete any project the housing facilities for which were made available by the National Housing Administrator and as to which the local agency and the Federal Public Housing Authority had a valid and subsisting contract on April 1, 1947 pursuant to which the Federal Government was obligated to construct or otherwise provide for housing and housing facilities for such project but the completion of which project was suspended by the Federal Public Housing Authority on or about December 27, 1946. The local agency shall not be required to meet any cost of such completion, and the director may allocate the full amount necessary to complete the project in the manner and to the extent that the Federal Government was obligated so to do.

At the time of applying for an allocation under this section, the local agency shall supply, in addition to such other information as may be required by the director, a detailed estimate of cost of performing the uncompleted work and a complete inventory of property made available by the Federal Government for the project.

In order to obtain such allocation the local agency must agree with the director that it will pay or deliver to the State any money or other thing of value received from the Federal Government on account of the contract between the local agency and the Federal Government.

The director may authorize the local agency to complete such a project by assuming the obligations of the Federal Government under any contract with any private contractor, materialman or other person in relation to such project, or by entering into new contracts for the work of completion with the same persons or with others, or by a combination of both such methods. Any such assumption or new contract shall be submitted to the director and approved by him prior to any payments thereunder from money allocated pursuant to this section.

The director shall prescribe the time and manner of payment of allocations pursuant to this section, and may provide for the advance of such portion of such allocation as he deems necessary to permit the local agency to meet its obligations as they become due.

Any money received from a local agency pursuant to this section shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the General Fund. Any property received from a local agency may be sold or otherwise disposed of by the director or used for any State purpose. If sold the proceeds of the sale of such property shall be paid into the General Fund.

SEC. 2. Out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated there is hereby appropriated the sum of four million five hundred thousand dollars ($4,500,000) to be expended by the Director of Finance in carrying out the provisions of Section 8.5 of the act cited in the title hereof. There shall first be allocated from this appropriation for the use of the Department of Finance such amount as the Director of Finance shall determine is necessary for administration of the provisions of this section, the total of which allocation shall in no event exceed 1 percent of the appropriation made by this section.

SEC. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the State Constitution and therefore shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

The withdrawal of the Federal Government from participation in the program for providing temporary emergency housing for veterans and servicemen's families has resulted in the cessation of work on such projects with the result that many housing facilities which the Federal Government has agreed to construct are not completed and many never be fully completed. The need for such temporary emergency housing in this State continues to be acute and the completion of the projects as to which the Federal Government has committed itself but on which it has ceased to work will supply a large number of veterans and servicemen's families with urgently needed shelter and eliminate to that extent the dangers to the public health and safety of over crowded living accommodations. In order that funds may be provided for this urgently needed housing without delay it is necessary that this act take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 4

On page 1 of said bill, strike out lines 2 to 22, inclusive; and strike out all of page 2.

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered printed, and re-referred to Committee on Finance.

Bill read second time.

Motion to Amend

356. The State Board of Public Health shall have the power to receive for the division any financial aid granted by any private, state, federal, local or district, or other grant or source, and the division shall use such funds to carry out the provisions and purposes of this article.

SEC. 9. Section 357 is added to said code, to read:

357. No services of any kind for which a license is required by other statutes of the State shall be performed under the provisions of this article, except by a person duly licensed to perform the same.

SEC. 10. Section 358 is added to said code, to read:

358. The State Board of Public Health is authorized to adopt all necessary rules and regulations to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

"SEC. 2. Section 2 of said act is amended to read:

Sec. 2. No local agency shall make, demand or receive any charge in excess of a reasonable charge for the sale or other disposition or for the leasing, licensing or other use of any of its real property.

The economic utility of the property to the user of it for the purpose or purposes to which it is suited is the prime factor in determining the reasonableness of any such charge. For example, in the case of a lease for the grazing of livestock, the value of the forage to the livestock producer, taking into consideration the number of livestock the property reasonably will support when used in a manner that will conserve it as a grazing resource and the monetary return to the livestock producer by such use of the property, is the prime factor in determining the reasonableness of the rental charge.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the sale of [unimproved vacant] property which is not occupied by a lawful tenant or lessee of the local agency and upon which there exist no improvements lawfully constructed or installed and lawfully maintained and which is sold to the highest bidder upon a call for bids.

SEC. 3. Section 3 of said act is amended to read:

Sec. 3. In making a sale or lease of any of its real property, a local agency must first give preference to the person or persons, if any, who have occupied or used that property or any portion of it as a lawful tenant or lessee of the local agency for not less than [two years within the next preceding three years] 24 months during the 36 months next preceding the date of the sale or lease, and an opportunity, within a reasonable period of time from and after written notice to him or them, to buy or lease it at a reasonable price or rental.

SEC. 4. Section 5 of said act is amended to read:

Sec. 5. If a local agency receives in excess of a reasonable charge for the sale or other disposition or for the leasing, licensing or other use of any of its real property, it shall repay the amount of such excess, with interest from the date of collection, to the person or persons from whom received.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the sale of [unimproved vacant] property which is not occupied by a lawful tenant or lessee of the local agency and upon which there exist no improvements lawfully constructed or installed and lawfully maintained and which is sold to the highest bidder upon a call for bids.

SEC. 5. Section 6 of said act is amended to read: "

THE SENATE, STATE OF MICHIGAN
LANSING, MICHIGAN, April 25, 1947

*Mr. Joseph A. Beek, Secretary of the Senate
Capitol Building, Sacramento, California*

GOOD MORNING, MR. BEEK: I have the honor to transmit herewith a copy of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21 which has been adopted by both houses of the Michigan Legislature.

Sincerely yours,

FRED I. CHASE

STATE OF MICHIGAN, MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 21

By Mr. Bates

A concurrent resolution respectfully urging Michigan Senators and Congressmen in Congress to exert all their efforts in attempting to stop or at least reduce the offering of federal aid to the several states and territories.

WHEREAS, Our sister State of Indiana has shown the courage to declare against the unsound financial practice of so-called federal aid, and the General Assembly of said state has passed a concurrent resolution calling upon its Senators and Congressmen "to vote to fetch its county courthouses and city halls back from Pennsylvania Avenue"; and

WHEREAS, The said State of Indiana has called upon the Legislatures of her sister states to join with her in appealing to Congress for a cessation of this unsound political fiscal extravagance; and

WHEREAS, When a state legislature is confronted with a federal aid law, the legislature must either comply or forfeit money which has been or will be taken from the citizens of the state in taxes, the effect being virtual compulsion; and

WHEREAS, It is obvious that unless federal aid is discontinued to all states, it will not be refused by any state; and

WHEREAS, The Members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Michigan Legislature agree with Governor Thomas Dewey of New York when he said that, "It is a fundamental truth that when a unit of government spends money that has not been raised locally through taxes, the inevitable result is irresponsibility and waste and it is old fashioned common sense that BEST government is that which is closest to the people and their pocketbooks"; and

WHEREAS, Our Nation is financially embarrassed to the amount of one quarter of a trillion dollars and should divert so-called federal aid toward reducing its indebtedness; and

WHEREAS, Michigan and most other states are in sound financial condition, able to handle their own fiscal responsibilities; now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring). That the Michigan Legislature joins forces with our neighboring State of Indiana in denouncing this practice of so-called "matching dollars"; and be it further

Resolved, That we respectfully petition and urge Michigan Senators and Congressmen in Congress to exert all their efforts in attempting to stop or at least reduce the offering of federal aid to the several states and territories; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Legislatures or Assemblies of the 48 States, and to the Michigan Senators and Congressmen in Congress.

Adopted by the Senate March 13, 1947.

Adopted by the House of Representatives April 9, 1947.

Norman E. Philles
Clerk of the House of Representatives

Fred I. Chase
Secretary of the Senate

Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Rules.

"SECTION 1. This act shall be known and cited as the Veterans Housing Act of 1947.

SEC. 2. The Legislature recognizes the necessity of providing housing accommodations for veterans in the State at the earliest possible moment, and that aid must be afforded persons who are willing to construct such housing accommodations, in order that they may proceed with the utmost dispatch. The hundreds of thousands of persons in the State who are unable to secure moderately priced living accommodations for themselves and families, and particularly the veterans, make it imperative that many new multiple family units be erected and rented at a rental within the means of such persons. To effectuate this purpose, it is necessary to offer to investors long-term, low interest rate money for financing the erection of such housing accommodations.

SEC. 3. As used in this act:

"Housing unit" means a portion of a building equipped and suitable for one family for living quarters.

"Veteran" includes any person who has served in the military or naval forces of the United States and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable. It also includes the widow of a veteran.

"Family" is limited to the spouse and legal dependents who are members of the household.

"Department" means the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

SEC. 4. Any person desiring to erect housing units pursuant to this act, shall apply to the department, setting forth the proposed location and the plans and specifications of the building or buildings desired to be erected. He shall supply the department with proof of his ability to pay 10 percent of the costs of acquiring the land and constructing the housing units.

SEC. 5. If the location and the plans and specifications are satisfactory, the department shall enter into an agreement with the applicant to loan him 90 percent of the costs of acquisition of the land and construction of the housing units.

SEC. 6. Any such contract shall provide that:

(a) The total building cost per housing unit shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) The loan shall be amortized over a period of not to exceed 40 years.

(c) The rate of interest upon deferred payments shall be 2 percent a year.

(d) A veteran shall be given preference in the renting of all housing units, and that such units shall not be rented to persons other than veterans unless the department determines that there are insufficient veterans in the community desiring to rent such housing units.

(e) Each housing unit shall be let to a single family.

(f) The rent for each unit shall be upon a schedule approved by the department and shall not be more than fifty dollars ($50), nor less than twenty dollars ($20), a month.

(g) All housing units shall be maintained in a state of repair and suitable for renting purposes for the full period of the loan.

SEC. 7. Any loan made pursuant to this act shall be secured by a deed of trust to the benefit of the State.

SEC. 8. The department shall make necessary rules to effectuate the purposes of this act, and to secure to the State the utmost protection on its investment. It shall provide for the foreclosure of all delinquent loans and for the operation of any units of which it may become the owner under such foreclosures or other repossession. It may resell any such housing units for the amount of the unpaid balance of the loan, upon the same terms and conditions as the loan was originally made, and, with the consent of the Department of Finance, may sell for less, or upon different terms.

SEC. 9. There is hereby created in the State Treasury, a revolving fund to be known as the Veterans' Housing Fund of 1947. All money deposited in such fund shall be subject to the provisions of this act. Money may be withdrawn from such fund in accordance with law upon requisition of the department. All money received from payments of loans shall be deposited in this fund, and all money loaned pursuant to this act shall be paid from this fund.

SEC. 10. Out of any money available in the Veterans' Housing Fund of 1947, the department may advance to any owner of housing units constructed pursuant to this act upon his application, and under such regulations as the department may, from time to time, prescribe, sums for the purpose of keeping in good order or repair, or for painting, redecorating or remodeling, such housing units. The money so advanced shall be added to the loan and amortized within the period of the original loan contract. The department shall be the sole judge of the need and desirability of making such advances.

SEC. 11. Out of the proceeds of the sales and use taxes, the State Controller shall transfer to the Veterans' Housing Fund of 1947, a sum equal to 10 percent each month until the sum of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) has been transferred to said fund.

SEC. 12. All sums repaid upon loans not required for the purposes of this act shall, at such times as the Department of Finance and the Department of Veterans' Affairs agree, be returned to the General Fund in the State Treasury.

SEC. 13. The expenses of administering this act shall be paid from the appropriation for the support of the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

SEC. 14. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Hundreds of thousands of veterans and other persons in this State are unable to secure moderately priced living accommodations for themselves and families. In order to provide such persons with suitable housing accommodations at the earliest possible moment, it is necessary that long-term, low interest rate money be loaned to persons who are willing to construct multiple family buildings, in order to house such veterans and other persons. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately."

RESOLUTIONS

By Senators Hulse, Parkman, Burns, Ward, and Powers:

Senate Resolution No. 79

Relative to federal ownership of property within states and local governments

WHEREAS, The problem of the acquisition and ownership of federal lands in the several states is causing considerable concern because of the reduced evaluation base upon which local property taxes can be levied; and

WHEREAS, Such lands are and have been acquired for game reserves, forest reserves, public parks, public monuments, mineral reserves, federal building for governmental purposes, expanding military facilities, property acquired and used in a proprietary sense, and land remaining in public domain; and

WHEREAS, The accumulation of land for governmental purposes in the heart of metropolitan areas of large cities has substantially reduced the tax base used in the determination of the ad valorem tax; and

WHEREAS, The accumulation of land for these several purposes has increased in 10 years from 37 percent to 46 percent of all the lands in California; and

WHEREAS, Such accumulation has extended to 50 percent of all the lands in 17 counties of said State; and

WHEREAS, In all the 11 Western States, 47 percent of the land is owned by the Federal Government; and

WHEREAS, Such large accumulation of land by the Federal Government in California and the other 10 western states has been destructive to the fiscal structure of local government; and

WHEREAS, The withdrawal of such large amounts of land from taxation has left local government without adequate revenue for its support; and

WHEREAS, This loss of revenue can not be supplanted by other sources; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary for local government to provide protection of life and property, the maintenance and construction of streets, roads, and highways, and other local facilities to service the properties acquired by the Federal Government and the people living thereon; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, As follows:

(1) That the Federal Government assume its financial responsibilities in relation to local governmental jurisdictions where such property is located; that Congress immediately enact legislation to this end;

(2) That said legislation provide that local government be reimbursed in amount equivalent to taxes lost by virtue of such acquisitions by the Federal Government; or that such property as is owned by the Federal Government be permitted to be taxed locally in the same manner and to the same extent as other local property;

(3) That property now held by the Federal Government which is not clearly necessary for a public purpose be disposed of in order that it may be returned to the local tax rolls for the purpose of local taxation and support of local government; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to send copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Secretary of the Treasury, to the Secretary of the Interior, to the Secretary of Agriculture, to the President pro Tempore of the Senate, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each of the Senators and Congressmen from California in the Congress of the United States, and that the Senators and Congressmen from California in the Congress of the United States are respectfully requested to urge such action.

Resolution read, and, on motion of Senator Hulse, adopted.

SEC. 2. If any section, sentence, clause, or part of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of
